THEY are robbing the gardens in various parts of the town of choice fruits grapes, etc.

EXCURSION trains to the Centennial are now all the go. On Monday morning a special train was run from Scranton numbering 14 cars, and containing about 1000 passengers.

THERE is a hermit at Greenwood Lake who lives in a hut that is hardly large enough to allow a man to lie at full length or stand erect. His only article of furniture is a powder-horn.

THE Southern bound mail train Monday, on the D. L. & W. R. R., was the largest passenger train that has gone over this road for some time. The principal part of the passengers were bound for the Centennial, of course.

ON Sunday last, during the heavy rain and wind storm, which visited us, the awnings in front of M. W. Rhode's store, Lee & Co's. furniture ware-rooms and H. D. Bush's store, were badly damaged, some of them being torn into shreds.

TIMES FLIES.—It seems only yesterday since we heard people talking about strawberry shortcake and mint juleps with ice in 'em, and now the boys are getting ready to steal chestnuts and field-corn to roast by moonlight. Our childhood days are being pleasantly revived.

RELIGIOUS.—The Rev. Mr. Bartholomew, of Carbon county, will preach a trial sermon in the Hamilton church next Sunday afternoon, at 2 o'clock. We are informed that Rev. Mr. Daniels is about to leave that congregation and so the members of that congregation are looking around for another minister.

By reference to another column will be seen the advertisement of Geo. G. Kunkle, A. M., in which he sets forth the branches which he proposes to teach any who may favor him with their support. The school will be held in the basement of the Lutheran Church in this place.

Mr. Kunkle is a worthy gentleman and we trust will give entire satisfaction to those giving him their patronage.

ACCIDENT.—John Dungan, the agent at High Bridge, had his left leg caught between car bumpers on Saturday last and held him fast for some minutes before he got loose. He was brought to Dr. Bische's office for treatment and Dr. Mutchler of this place was called in consultation and found one bone of the left leg broken and the calf badly bruised and crushed. The sufferer stood the ride home with much fortitude. Dr. D. thinks, we learn, that his leg can be saved.

On Saturday evening last as Dr. N. L. Peck, his sister Ella, accompanied by Miss Ella Walker, of this borough, were out riding, and on passing the residence of William Bell, on George street, the horse shied, throwing the whole party out of the carriage to the ground. Miss Walker was unfortunately enough to have her right shoulder dislocated, fortunately the Dr. and his sister were not injured. Dr. Geo. W. Jackson was called and attended to the wants of the sufferer.

LEHIGH AND EASTERN RAILROAD.—The contractors of the Lehigh & Eastern Railroad, have set a large force of men to work near the Bluff, just below Milford. Gangs are also being placed at various points along the line between Milford and Matamoras. With the exception of two or three, the right of way has been secured from the farmers through whose lands the road runs.—Mr. Barnum, who is negotiating for the right of way, thinks he will have but little difficulty in procuring it from those who yet hesitate. As soon as this is accomplished, work will be begun on every section, and pushed rapidly to completion. A large number of teams are now engaged hauling stone for bridge purposes, and masons are to be set at work at once.

Special Notice. OVERCOATS feel good even at mid-day now. Don't foolishly catch a cold that may never leave you, by failing to keep your body warmly clad. No one who values his health will venture out in the evening, at least, with no more clothing than he has worn at noon. If you mean to get one, why not attend to the matter and have done with it? Of course you know where to go. Run in on Wanamaker & Brown, at Oak Hill, Sixth and Market Streets, Philadelphia. Their advertisement in another column tells how handsomely they treat all who deal with them.

A CLASSICAL SCHOOL. A Classical School for both sexes will be opened in the basement of the Lutheran Church, at Stroudsburg, Pa. The aim of this school is: First, to furnish a practical education for the ordinary pursuits of life. Secondly, to give special attention to the classics and higher English studies. Thirdly, to prepare young men for Colleges and Universities. No efforts will be spared to make our school-room the most attractive in the county. Our work must recommend us. Tuition per term of ten weeks (common English branches) $2.00. Latin, Greek and German, each one dollar per term extra. The first session begins on Monday, Oct. 16, 1876.
