

The Jeffersonian.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 23, 1876.

FRIEND "ALEC." of the Philadelphia Times makes James Place the representative from Monroe. "Alec" you are as good on the count as your southern democratic brethren, but A. J. Shoemaker is our representative, no matter how you count. "This true he is a democrat, but then he is a decent one."

PRESIDENTIAL.

South Carolina, which the Democracy claimed as sure for Tilden, has been counted according to the wishes of the Democrats, errors, frauds and irregularities, and in spite of all these, Hayes has carried all the electors by majorities ranging from 320 to 964. So South Carolina is undisputedly, at last, placed on the Hayes side of the state. Louisiana, another hitherto Republican State, but which the Democracy has been claiming as sure for Tilden, is just now being canvassed or counted and the result will be officially announced in a few days, and notwithstanding the loud claims of the Tildenites, will be found true to her old Republican faith along with South Carolina for Hayes.

Florida, the other Republican State which the Democratic whole has been swearing it had swallowed, will probably not be counted and officially announced before ten or twelve days to come. But when it is counted it is confidently expected to be found to have cast her vote for Hayes. The official returns are not sent into the State canvassing board yet. Only 32 counties out of 39 are yet received. These last seven counties are in the hands of the Democracy, and it is feared that fraud is contemplated.

As soon as reports from all the counties are received, the State count will commence. We hope to be able to give the general result in our next issue, and trust it will be in favor of Hayes and Wheeler for our next President and Vice President.

CHARLES W. WASHBURN, Esq., formerly United States Minister to the Republic of Paraguay, South America, and brother of the present Minister in Paris, will shortly become a resident of Bethlehem. He has taken one of the elegant houses lately erected by Mr. Tinsley Jeter, on Fountain Hill, and will make his home in that beautiful locality.

THE bursting of the water-pipe and the giving away of the plug in the pipe, at the corner of Sarah and Franklin streets, in this borough, one day last week, caused quite a sensation among the inhabitants in that neighborhood for a short time. Dr. Cloud, the engineer, soon made his appearance and in a short time had the defect remedied and the flow of water stopped.

ON Thursday evening last the Beethoven Band gave another of the series of sociables, which turned out to be one of the liveliest and most jolly crowd we ever saw in Williams' Hall. The music was furnished by Messrs. Wolfe, Smith, Miller, Keller and Keiser, and was very good. Their purpose we learn to give another sociable in a week or two, of which notice will be timely given.

An Election Bet.

Mr. Harry Wolfe, Republican, and Mr. Howard Marsh, Democrat, both of this place, have agreed that, if Tilden is elected president, Wolfe is to give Marsh a wheelbarrow ride to East Stroudsburg and back, and if Hayes is elected president Marsh is to wheel Wolfe over the same route. Both are confident of winning, but we hope Harry will be the rider.

To give an idea of the superior economy of narrow gauge over broad gauge railroads, it is stated that since the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western road has been reduced in gauge, two or three cars are added to every freight and coal train, without adding to the expense for fuel. The locomotives are able to draw larger and heavier trains now than ever before, without burning a pound more of coal.

SALE OF THE KEYSTONE FURNACE.—The furnace property, engine-house, dwellings, farms, mines, quarries, &c., of the Keystone Iron Company, situated near Chain Dam, Northampton county, was sold at Sheriff's sale last Friday, to Henry Fulmer, of Easton, for $77,000. Its original cost was over $200,000. Mr. Fulmer is a thorough business man and we have no doubt that the Keystone Furnace will prove a mint to its purchaser and a blessing to the laboring class in which it is located for Mr. Fulmer is not the man to let it lie idle.

BANK DIRECTORS.—On Monday last, the stockholders of the Stroudsburg Bank, held an election for Directors, at their banking house, which resulted in the election of the following named persons, viz:

- Stoddell Stokes, Wm. Haney, Jacob Stauffer, John Heller, D. D. Walton, David Keller, Amiel Bush, William Wallace, Charles E. Kisdler, Michael Hansbury, Jonathan Fetherman, P. M. Bush, S. Holmes, Jr.

ALTHOUGH the usual amount of cooing and wooing appears to be indulged in, matters matrimonial are quiet.

GOV. HAYES' majority in Pennsylvania over Tilden is 17,944.

THE Northampton county prison at Easton, contains fifty-three prisoners.

It is claimed that $95,000,000 have been spent in Philadelphia by centennial visitors.

COAL oil has gone up in price. Lovers will therefore learn economy by turning down the light.

PRESCRIBED rule for handkerchief flirtation—two fools and a couple of handkerchiefs.

THE wheat crop of the United States this year is 245,000,000 bushels, or about sixty bushels apiece.

MR. N. B. DEMOND, of Experiment Mills, killed a hog 14 months old, which weighed when dressed, 437 1/2 pounds. Who can beat this?

THERE were 34,022 votes cast for the presidential ticket in Luzerne county at the late election. The registry list contained about 44,000.

GOV. HARTMAN, has issued a warrant for the execution, on January 13, 1877, of Allen C. Laros, convicted in Northampton county, in August last, of the murder of Martin Laros.

A LARGE paper balloon has just descended at a stone quarry in the upper part of New Jersey, having on it an inscription indicating that it was put aloft in the air by a business firm in London.

A PARTY of fish hawks was out last Friday and took in an immense lot of suckers. Each party engaged in the enterprise getting from fifty to seventy-five pounds of fish. The fish were unusually large and fine.

PAT. VILLEY, alias Pat. Brown, was arrested at the Prospect shaft, near Wilkes-Barre, on Saturday last, supposed to have been concerned in the murder of Alex. Red, a mine superintendent, near Mount Carmel, eight years ago. He was taken to Pottsville Sunday morning.

SAD AFFAIR.—On Monday morning last, a daughter of Mr. David LaBar, of Smithfield township, started out to milk the cows, and not returning, one of the members of the family went out to see what had become of her. After considerable search they found the young lady in the meadow lying in a small pool of water dead.

THERE was a serious riot at Scranton on Tuesday between the mechanics of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad company, who are on a strike, and those of their number who have recently resumed work. Just as the latter were quitting work and were leaving the shops they were attacked. Bars of iron, stones and other missiles were used. Several persons on both sides were severely injured.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Mr. Henry Daggars, a resident of this place, aged 69 years and 20 days, when getting out of bed yesterday morning, complained to his wife of having a dizziness in his head and returned to bed. The services of Dr. D. D. Walton, were secured but proved of no avail, as he expired in about two hours. The Doctor pronounced it a stroke of apoplexy which caused his death.

Funeral Saturday afternoon at 2 p. m.

SURGICAL OPERATION.—Dr. Howard Patterson, of Gouldsboro, assisted by Dr. J. Pace Mutchler, of this place, performed a very critical surgical operation last Friday at Gouldsboro, upon the leg of A. B. Spicker's son Howard. It was the taking of a dead bone from the thigh, extending from the knee to the hip, formed from a bruise, three years ago. The patient is said to be doing well and it is thought his limb will be as useful as ever.

Robbery of Amos Shoemaker's Grocery Store!

On Saturday night last, the grocery store of Mr. Amos Shoemaker, adjoining Samuel Hood's stove store, Main street, this borough, was broken into and robbed of goods amounting to $40.00. The goods taken was flour, butter, cheese, tobacco, cigars, &c. The thieves effected an entrance into the store by breaking through a back window. Mr. Shoemaker, it will be remembered, was so crippled by a fall from the Burnett House about two years ago from the effects of which he was entirely disabled from working at his trade. When he had sufficiently recovered so that he could hobble he started a grocery store by which he has since supported his family. Mr. Shoemaker has the sympathy of the entire community and it is to be hoped the thieves will be found out and punished.

Mr. Amos Miller's out-house was entered last Sunday night by some hungry cuss and robbed of three loaves of bread and a few other edibles.

William Nevil, a resident of Pocono street, this borough, had a number of chickens stolen on Sunday evening last.

Daniel Webster's widow is still living in New York, aged 85.

Snow fell to the depth of four inches in Windham county, Vermont, Sunday evening last.

Personal.

MR. C. R. Andre, is confined to the house with a severe cold.

Mrs. M. E. Shay, of this place, is in New York, visiting her many friends.

Mr. Daniel V. Drake, one of our oldest and most respected citizens, is lying seriously ill at his residence.

Prof. Moran, of South Bethlehem, was in town, and attended to the musical wants of the "Cornet Band" on Monday evening last.

Mr. Joseph Heckman, of Baltimore, Md., is here visiting his sister, Mrs. Wm. Davis. Mr. H. at one time was a resident of this borough.

Miss Alice Schoonover has returned home from a months sojourn in Philadelphia, where she had been visiting friends and doing the centennial.

Mr. Peter Born, was unfortunate enough while out gunning to blister the toes of his right foot, which incapacitated him for several days. He is able to hobble about again.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Conner and daughter Ida, returned home from Port Jervis, N. Y., on Saturday evening last, where they had been visiting friends during the past week.

Mr. J. E. M. Keller, of this borough, who has been sojourning in Philadelphia for the past two weeks, returned home on Wednesday evening of last week, in the enjoyment of good health.

Mrs. Jane Hollinshead and her accomplished daughter, Lizzie, of Port Jervis, N. Y., Dr. Bond and wife, and B. F. Howe and wife, of New Jersey, were here, in attendance at the funeral of Wm. Hollinshead, last week.

Mr. E. L. Wolf, of Scranton, was in town last Saturday. His visit was short yet his numerous friends were glad to see him, and especially to see him looking so well. Ned, is extremely fond of sour-kraut and one of his friends hints that his visit was to hunt up his old "cutter."

Col. E. E. Norton and family took their departure for New Orleans, last Tuesday, where they will spend the winter. The unsettled condition of the "solid south" seems to have but little effect upon the Col's nerves; and why should it, when his political opponents in New Orleans have learned to regard him as an honest official and politician, notwithstanding democratic billingsgate to the contrary.

TO THE DEMOCRACY.

Duty prompts us to inform the Democracy of Monroe, of the imminent peril which threatened them on the night of 17th of November last. On the evening named, their standard bearer, their great and shining light, whose words of Democratic wisdom are swallowed by them, as Jonah was by the Whale without chewing or digesting, was returning peacefully from a visit to the city of New York.

Some passenger on board the train read aloud some interesting dispatches from Florida, which seemed to point pretty conclusively to the certainty of the election of Hayes and Wheeler which at once aroused our neighbor over the way, as well as another passenger of like Democratic proclivities and eloquent tongue, and an animated discussion was at once entered into on the merits and demerits of the two political parties. The standard bearer of Monroe held his own bravely, supported ably by his eloquent brother in the faith, who got upon his feet, and wildly swung his fists, roared about the sins and crimes of the administration and the Republican party in general. Finally however this orator reached his station and left our friend across the way alone. Alone and surrounded by not less than eight staunch Republicans, who immediately closed in on him, and by plausible arguments and stories well told, completely converted him into a Republican.

There can be no doubt about it. He was thoroughly convinced of the error of his ways, and if just then, a ticket for Hayes and Wheeler had been put in his hand, and a ballot box placed before him, we know he would have put the ticket in. We saw it in his countenance,—the prodigal look—the higher aspiration,—the forgetfulness of the husks that he had been fed on, and the party he had meekly followed so long. Yes, for the moment he broke loose from democracy and was a Republican, and if you, Mr. Editor of the JEFFERSONIAN had only been there to see the glance of his eye, and the converted look on his face, we know you would have enthusiastically taken him in your arms, and with sobs, exclaimed "my child, my child, my wayward but repentant child, I freely forgive you all." Ye Democrats, imagine the scene!

We regret to relate however that directly the good influences were removed, the light faded from his countenance, and the Democrat appeared, and we mentally ejaculated "can a leopard change his spots or the Ethiopian his skin."

This however should serve as a caution to the party to be more watchful over their standard bearer, otherwise they may wake up some day to find heretical doctrine preached in their favorite organ, and their beloved leader in the camp of the enemy.

Yours, &c. X.

George S. Hart, Democrat, was elected judge in Washington county, Pa., by four votes.

Col. Lewis F. Watson carried the Erie, Warren and Venango Congressional districts by 3617 majority. This is a district which the Philadelphia Times alleged that the Republicans would probably lose this year. It was carried in 1874 by Egbert, Democrat, by 12 majority, but it couldn't be done this time.

22d SENATORIAL DISTRICT.—The following table shows the vote cast for Senatorial candidates in the 22d District.

U. S. Grant, jr., has joined the law firm of Coe & Kingsford, in New York.

PENNSYLVANIA.

The Official Vote Complete—Hayes' Plurality, 17,944.

HARRISBURG, November 21.—The official vote of the state is as follows: For Hayes, Republican, 384,148; For Tilden, Democrat, 366,204; For Cooper, Greenback, 7,204; For Smith, Prohibition, 1,318; For an unknown ticket, 83.

Hayes' plurality, 17,944; Hayes' majority, 9,339; Aggregate vote, 758,957.

This is by far the largest vote ever polled in the state, the nearest approach to it being the vote for governor in October, 1872, which aggregated 672,467, or 89,488 less than the vote of this year for president. The total vote of last year for governor was 609,564.

The return judges of the XIth Congressional District—Messrs. C. D. Brodhead, of Monroe, Biddis, of Pike, J. K. Gotz, of Columbia, R. M. Brodhead, of Carbon, W. D. Warfel, Luzerne, and John Everitt, of Montour—who met at the Carbon county Court House on Tuesday afternoon, returned the following as the official vote of the district:

Table with 3 columns: Name, Collins, Waller. Includes Columbia, Carbon, Monroe, Pike, Luzerne, Montour, and Collins' majority.

East Stroudsburg Items.

A series of delightful sociables have been inaugurated by the St. Mark's Lutheran Mission of this place.

Mr. Daniel Callahan having purchased the house and lot formerly owned by Henry Detrick, deceased, we learn, contemplates building a blacksmith shop on the lot adjoining his house and converting his present place of business into dwellings.

Centennial visits have become more scarce since the close of the grand exposition, and Messrs. Putterbaugh, Hitchcock, Reynolds, Young, Lyons and other R. R. officials and dignitaries have found condolence in the fact that the trains are running on time once more, and even friend Houser, Supt. of S. P. R. Co., wears a smile on his countenance now that he does not have to be out until midnight.

REAL ESTATE SALES.—Wilson Peirson, Real Estate agent of East Stroudsburg, has just disposed of the following real estate.

Mr. John Wightman's farm of 49 acres, in Stroud township, to Jacob Wagner, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Wm. R. Cross' farm of 62 acres in Stroud township to Wallace McKirgan, Esq., of Summit, N. J.

Mrs. Maria Frazier's farm of 20 acres in Stroud township, to Wm. R. Cross.

Mr. Peirson is energetic and untiring in his business pursuits and his business ability is above question. He is winning for himself a reputation in the real estate business that no one need be ashamed of. He has a large amount of property in this county and elsewhere for sale or exchange, and parties living in this vicinity wishing to purchase or sell real estate cannot do better than to employ him. Persons having money to loan can find through his agency good investments on first mortgage and other securities and have their securities carefully examined.

IMPROVEMENTS.—Few men have done more in the way of beautifying their homes than Andrew Hallot, of this place. For years in front of his residence there has been an unsightly high bank, leaving his dwelling in the back ground and hard of approach, but this has all been taken away and a neat stone wall, about four feet high, built along the front of the lot and the ground sloped off from the top of the wall and neatly sodded. In addition to this, Andrew has laid a neat 6 ft. pavement, all of stone, the full width of the pavement, altogether presenting as handsome appearance as any property in town. Andrew is an enterprising man and deserves great credit for his taste and enterprise.

Other improvements have been going on in our borough, but owing to the wild excitement of election times, we have failed to notice them, although, we aim to give every one the credit due, that have displayed the least enterprising spirit. The Misses Lake have greatly added to the appearance of things about their property by the laying of a side-walk and the erection of a neat stone wall in front of their property. The neat manner in which they have laid out the grounds around their house and the opening of a side street in which their lot covers; in fact, the laying of a sidewalk along the entire length of Courtland street, from the Analomink House to the railroad crossing, is an improvement that is worthy of notice, for many of the citizens along the line of this improvement have caught the spirit of enterprise from our Borough Fathers and have danced to the tune of improvement. Among others we will mention George Plattenburg, Martin Chambers, Mrs. VanWhy and Peter Albert, all of whom have erected stone walls along the front of their respective lots and some of them have capped this with a neat picket fence. The old stoops and collar doors along the front of the properties owned by Jacob L. Rhodes and Wm. Wallace, have all been removed and in addition to the neat side walk, stoops have been erected. Mr. John Bart has greatly beautified his home by a new side walk and painted the front of his house and fence. The Lackawanna House under the proprietorship of Mr. John Barlow, has been undergoing thorough repairs in the way of a new tin roof and neat coat of paint. Mr. B. believes in keeping things in good order and Mrs. B. is no less anxious about the interior order. Few, more comfortable stopping places are to be found, and strangers stopping there once are apt to find and secure the same comforts again. Mr. Theodore Drake, saddler and harness maker, has been clothing his domicile in a coat of paint.
