Presidential.

Intimidation and fraud have followed in the track of the Democratic reformers from the opening of the Presidential campaign to the present moment. The leaders were afraid to attempt to get into power by fair and honorable means. They knew that their cause was, on its merits weak and untenable, and before an intelligent and patriotic public must fail.

Twelve years ago the colored man shot against the rebels, and they were defeated. The other day he again voted against them and they are once more defeated. What a power the colored man has become!

THE REV. THEOPHILUS HEILIG.—We learn from the Easton Daily Free Press of the 27th ult., that the Rev. Theophilus Heilig of the Lutheran Church, whose first pastorate was over his people in this place and in Smithfield, from about late in 1861 to 1864, when he accepted a call from Reigelville, where he maintained pastoral relations during the last twelve years, has recently been called to fill, pro tempore, the pulpit of Christ's Lutheran Church in Easton, until April 1st, 1877.

Mr. H. resigned the Reigelville Charge on the first of last September, and accepted the call to Easton on the first of November.

On the eve of his leaving Reigelville to assume pastoral relations at Easton, his numerous friends at the former place, in token of their appreciation and kindness, gave the Rev. gentleman a surprise, which proved to be successful in the highest degree in all its appointments.

THEY try to frighten the Senate out of counting the electoral votes according to law and custom. But the Senate won't intimidate. But what next? The "reformers" then make an attempt to buy three of Hayes' electors to vote for Tilden.

But what next? Upon Oregon they found a "reform" governor in a state which voted strongly for Hayes, and he, being a democrat, is readily bought with a mess of pottage to issue a certificate of election to a democrat who was signally defeated at the election for elector.

THE WINCHESTER ARMS FACTORY is running night and day on an order from Turkey for 10,000,000 cartridges. Attention is also given to a new gun, to carry 1,000 yards with seventy grains of powder.

THE GUN named above will just suit our neighbor of the Democrat.

GO to the City Hall of Fashion for Holiday presents, where you will find a large selection of useful ones. Bargains in ladies winter hats. Closing out at cost.

THE HOLIDAY SEASON.—The holidays are fast approaching and Santa Claus is being written and talked to every time he comes to town or goes away.

A TEACHERS INSTITUTE will be held on Saturday afternoon at Del. Water Gap school house, by County Superintendent MORLEY, for the benefit of Smithfield and Middle Smithfield Teachers.

CITIZENS and Directors are also invited to attend.

We do not envy the position of Governor Tilden if he should happen to reach the Presidency through the stealing of an elector in Oregon or by any other technical or questionable means. The only pretext for refusing a certificate of election to the excluded Hayes man in Oregon is that he was a postmaster some time ago. It is admitted that the State gave a clear majority of its popular vote to Hayes and Wheeler, and the Tilden man who got a certificate was on the beaten ticket.

If the allegations are true which come from Louisiana and South Carolina, that attempts were made in those States to bribe Republican electors to cast their votes for Tilden and Hendricks, the circumstance is most disgraceful to the party which sought to reap the benefit of such acts of corruption and treachery.

THE rabbit crop is rather short. We know from experience. On Thursday last was our day, not for cotton-tails, but for pheasants, for we bagged three of the feathery tribe.

THE man who lost a glove in front of the JEFF. office on Friday evening last, can recover the same by calling at this office, identifying the same and paying for this notice.

MARRIED.—On Tuesday, November 28th ult., at Grace Church, Waverly, N. Y., by the Rector, Rev. F. A. Brown, Mr. James K. Daves, editor and proprietor of the Easton Free Press, of Easton, Pa., to Miss S. Frankie Baldwin, of Waverly.

THERE will be a public meeting held in the Court House, Monday night, December 25, for the purpose of organizing a military company. All the necessary papers have been received and all that is needed is the number of men to make up the company.

THE recent cold snap and the freezing over of the several streams around our borough, gladdened the hearts of both skaters and fisherman. On Sunday last, temptation being too great, some of the "weak-minded" ventured out and went for some of the finny tribe.

DEATH OF FATHER HUNT.—Rev. Thomas Hunt, widely known as "Father Hunt," died last week in Philadelphia and was buried on Friday at Wilkes-Barre. For more than forty years he was an earnest champion of the temperance cause. His death will be a great loss to the cause of religion and temperance.

LARGE HOGS.—Alfred Drake of Stroud township, killed two hogs, 15 months old, the weight of which is as follows: 339 and 441 lbs.

MR. LEWIS DRAKE, of Wolf Hollow, brought two dressed hogs to town last Tuesday which weighed 981 pounds, the one weighed 475 and the other 506 pounds. They were fifteen months old.

NOTICE.—At a regular meeting of the Stroudsburg Cornet Band held on Monday evening, December 11, 1876, it was Resolved, that from this date no visitors can be received in Band room on instruction nights, Tuesday and Thursday evenings. Other evenings visitors will be welcome.

Mr. JAMES G. CLARK, the only original ballad singer in America, and a man of extraordinary talent in that line, will hold one of his evenings of song at the M. E. Church, in this Borough, on Friday evening, December 15th, 1876, for the benefit of the Sunday School. Tickets, 25 cents; Children, 15 cents; Reserved Seats, 35 cents.

FIRE.—On Saturday night last, about mid-night, the Grist-Mill of Mr. Joseph Heller, situate in Chestnut Hill township, near Brodheadville, was totally destroyed by fire together with its entire contents, consisting of wheat, rye, corn, and buckwheat. Every effort to stay the flames or save any of the contents proved fruitless. The mill books were also burned.

Insured in Northampton Insurance Company for $4,000.

HAVE you paid up your borough and school taxes?

THE 1876 almanac, centennial year, will soon be laid on the shelf.

SNOW to the depth of about two inches fell in this place on Monday morning.

HONEY by the pailful was offered for sale to some of our grocery men last week.

THE annual election expenses of Carbon county are stated at about $1,000.

THE ice crop is a good one this year. It is about 8 inches thick and clear as a crystal.

GRAND Centennial Holiday opening at D. R. Brown's, Saturday evening, December 16th, 1876.

DURING the past week, our enterprising jeweler, D. R. Brown, received a large supply of holiday goods.

FORTY-SIX rabbits were killed in the vicinity of the residence of Shrawder Lee, in Stroud township, on Monday last.

SATURDAY last was rather blustery and cold, the thermometer at 9 o'clock in the morning indicated 12 degrees below zero.

THE cold chilly winds of December is a great stagnation to the corner loafing business. Compulsion makes the loungeer hunt his hole.

LAST Friday evening a very fine hive of bees was stolen from the back yard of Mrs. Daniel Miller, in Stroud township, near this borough.

LAST Saturday's gale blew everything out of Main street except the gravel stones, and it even took some of these into new quarters.

TWO men recently entered the granary of Samuel Brown, in Lehigh county, bored holes in the floor, caught the grain in bags and carried it off.

THE recent changes in the weather, "everybody but you shants the door," is an excellent "card" with which to secure the shutting of your office door.

THE rabbit crop is rather short. We know from experience. On Thursday last was our day, not for cotton-tails, but for pheasants, for we bagged three of the feathery tribe.

LUCKY.—On Saturday last, when everybody was supposed to be behind some warm stove, one of the "knights of the awl" ventured out and captured two rabbits.

Personal.

Drake Halleck, of Hackettstown, N. J., is spending a few days in this place among his many friends. He seems to be in the enjoyment of good health.

A letter from Mr. John Baldwin, dated Laramie, Wyoming Territory, to a friend in this place, states that he holds a position on the Union Pacific R. R., and that he is in the enjoyment of good health.

Wm. H. Werkheiser, of New York city, is enjoying the bracing atmosphere of Stroudsburg and vicinity. He has not recovered the use of his leg, which was broken some time ago, sufficiently to dispense with his crutches.

James Smith, instructor of the Beethoven Band, has been engaged by the Stroudsburg Cornet Band for the same purpose. Mr. Smith, is an excellent musician and instructor and in securing his services the boys have acted wisely.

Frank A. Page, esq., who it will be remembered by many, superintended the laying of the original track on the D. L. & W. R. R., over twenty years ago, has been stopping in town for the last few days. We had nearly forgotten him, but were glad to take him by the hand. We learn that he has been engaged extensively in constructing public works since that time.

A FESTIVAL will be held in the Cherry Valley M. E. Church, on the evening of Thursday, December 28th, the proceeds of which will be to assist in paying the salary of the pastor, Rev. G. W. Schaffer. The friends of the church and the pastor are requested to favor us with their presence, as it is our intention to make the occasion as enjoyable as possible, and all will be cordially welcome.

By order of the COMMITTEE.

N. B.—Should Thursday evening prove unfavorable, the Festival will be held on Friday evening.
