CHARTER PERPETUAL,

The By-Laws of this Compay, and regulations govern ing insurance have, recently been very materially hanged, placing it upon a basis equal to that of any Fire Insurance Company in the State. Important among these changes are the following, Policies, instead of being perpetual, are issued for All property is classified and the rate of premium is xed according to the risk of the property. Premium notes are taken, and all assessments are ande on the notes. Property is instruct for not more than two thinks of its actual cash value, and the full amount of insuranea paid in case of loss, provided the loss be equal to the mount of insurance "Annual assessments" only are made, except in cases of heavy loss, and where a special assessment is The Company is therefore prepared to insure property apon terms much more desirable than under the old
