GEMS OF POESY.

The poems of Lamartine are little known to English readers. We subjoin the following version of one of them written on the eve of his departure for Palestine.

THE RESCUE.

It was in the month of February, 1831, a bright moonlight night and intensely cold, that the little brig I commanded lay quietly at her anchors inside of the Hook.

ADDRESS OF RUSH AND LAMARTINE.

The American Ambassador, Richard Rush, occupies at present a very important position. If he has a clear vision and correct understanding of the present situation of Europe...

THE INDIAN TREATY IN YUCATAN.

We find in La Patria of the 10th the complete treaty between the Indian leader, Pat, and the Commissioners of the Spanish Government, Barbachano, the terms of which have already appeared in the Tribune.

THE TWO BROTHERS.

The following beautiful Arabian legend we copy from the "Voice of Jacob." The site occupied by the temple of Solomon was formerly a cultivated field, possessed in common by two brothers.

ANTIQUITY OF THE I. O. O. F.

The origin of the order of Odd Fellows is of very great antiquity. It was established by the Roman soldiers, in the camp, during the reign of Nero, in the year 56.

SLAVERS CAPTURED.

The schooner T. B. Guger, whaler, arrived at New York from Sierra Leone, April 17, reports the arrival there of two Brazilian slave schooners, prizes to H. B. M. brig Rapid and Alert.

THE RIGHT KIND.

REV. ABEL C. THOMAS, one of the most eloquent and successful preachers of the present age, served his time at the printing business; and so far from looking back with regret at the time thus devoted to mechanical labor, he says, in a recent letter to a Boston publisher...

DEARABILITY OF CEDAR.

At the head of one of the graves in the burial ground of "old St. Mary's," Maryland, there stands a cedar slab, which, as the inscription upon it indicates, was placed there in the year 1717!

QUITE A DIFFERENCE.

Six years ago, says the Bangor Courier, potatoes were selling at twenty-five cents per bushel, and it took six bushels at that price to pay for a bushel of corn.

NATIONAL COURTESY.

The Montreal papers state that the English government has granted permission for the Jefferson and Dallas, two steam vessels belonging to the Revenue department of the United States to descend by the St. Lawrence.
