

THE NEW LETTER-WRITER.
The Philadelphia Dispatch thinks that the new law securing to married women their rights to property, is destined to revolutionize the hymeneal relations in this State. The rich wife, instead of being now at the mercy of her lord, in a thousand matters touching her comfort, may rigidly enforce a performance of the courtship-trove, by simply tightening the purse-strings. Shaws, bouquets, and new dresses, she may buy as many as she pleases, whether her husband grumbles or assents; and, if unable to pay, she may enjoy the delightful privilege of a personal introduction to sheriffs and constables.

The subject is suggestive of many thought and among them is one touching the change that will now ensue in marital epistolary literature.—The modern complete letter-writer has no provision for his emergency, and the Dispatch hastens to supply the vacuum. We deem it important to copy a few specimens of these model epistles. Here they are:

Letter 1.—From a husband to his wife, asking for a cool fifty.
"From the Store, Market St., 13 o'clock."

"Dear Jane—I am confoundedly 'short' to-day, having Jenkins' note to take up, and am decidedly afraid of a protest. Please send me a check for $50 by bearer. I expect money from Middle's draft, next week, and will then refund it. I wait.
"Yours, CHARLES."

Letter 2.—From a wife, who knows her rights to a delinquent husband.
"At Home—quarter before two."

"Dear Charles—I am astonished that you should come to me for money, after the manner you have acted. I loaned you ten dollars last week, which you were to return next day. I did not hear a word from you for three days afterwards. Besides that I gave you fifty cents yesterday to get tobacco, which you promised to repay at evening—I have not seen it yet. I should judge, from these facts, that you are 'hard up' and not to be trusted. If you are failing circumstances, I've no disposition to bail you. If you are much in want of money, I'll share your note with a good endorser, at three per cent., a month. If you like this proposition send up the note with an endorsement—say Snook's; I suppose he'll endorse for you're always together. Let it be done right away, for I've got my bank-book ready, and want to make a deposit.
"Yours, JANE."

Letter 3.—The Husband's Reply.
"From the Store—2 o'clock."

"Dear Jane—This is no time for jesting. If I do not get the $50 to-day, I shall be ruined—my credit will be gone, and everything brought to the hammer. The very house will be sold over our heads. Please send me the money immediately. This is a poor fulfillment of the love you pledged at the altar.
"Yours, CHARLES."

Letter 4.—The Wife's Answer.
"At Home—quarter past two."

"Dear Charles—As a friend, I'm heartily sorry to hear of your troubles. However, it's nothing more than I expected. If you do fail, my advice to you is, to bear up under your sorrows; there is nothing like a stout heart to buoy one up in affliction. If the house is sold by the Sheriff, I have one consolation, that I can remove to my own. In regard to your unkind insinuation, about the love which I pledged at the altar, I beg to remind you that I promised to love you according to law—and the law allows me to manage my own property in my own way. However, as you can't get an endorser, I won't be hard upon you. Send me your note for $50 at six days, and $100 worth of silks as collateral, and I'll send you the $50. Hurry home—dinner's waiting.
"Yours, JANE."

Letter 5.—From a "responsible" wife to a Tailor.
"Saturday, May 27."

"Mr. Skews—Sir: The bearer of this is my husband, who wants two pair of spring pantaloons. Please let him have them, and charge the same to my account.
"M. R. SILVER."

"N. B.—I'll not pay higher than $12 for the two, if you allow him to exceed that amount, you do so on your own risk."

THE NEW FIGURE OF GEN. JACKSON has arrived at the Boston Navy Yard, for the frigate Constitution. As the General is dead, and political hatred against him subsided, it is probable that it will be allowed to remain here un molested. It is eight feet high.

A Lucid Interval.—The best toast of the season was given at the celebration of the 4th in the Lunatic Asylum, at Utica, by one of the patients, viz: "The Revolution in Europe—While in the old world the people are trying to maul governments after ours—may we take care that we do not spoil the pattern?"

A certain Cure for consumption has been found in Allentown, Pa., so the papers say. The article has been used with the most unbounded success.

The Celebrated ex-minister Guizot and Mettenich are said to contemplate the publication of a newspaper, to be called The Spectator of London.

Another Cure.—A write in the New York Herald, says that a vapor bath, raised to a very intense heat, is a positive cure for hydropthia.

A recent Philosopher discovers a method to avoid being dunned! "How!—how!—how?" we hear every body asking. Necessity is the mother of invention.

GOING AHEAD!—They are laying rails on the Pennsylvania road, on the section between Harrisburg and the bridge.

MARRIED.—In Buffalo, on the 15th ult., Mr. J. R. Downing to Mary A. Stray. This is verified the old adage, that a drowning man will catch at a straw.

YOUNG MEN! If you value your life or your health, remember, the delay of a month, may even a week, may prove your ruin. Both of body and mind. Hence let no false modesty deter you from making your case known to one who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend you. He who places himself under Dr. KINKELIN'S treatment, may religiously confide in his honor as a physician, and in the success of his treatment. Let the secret of the patient.

"Too many think they will hug the secret to their own hearts, and cure themselves. Alas! how often is this a fatal delusion, and how many a promising young man, who might have been an ornament to society, has fallen from the earth.
COUNTRY INVALIDS
finding it inconvenient to make personal application, can, by stating their case explicitly, together with all their symptoms, (per letter, post-paid), be forwarded to them a chest containing Dr. K.'s medicines appropriated accordingly.

Packages of Medicines forwarded to any part of the United States at the rate of a few applications. Extraordinary letters, addressed to Dr. KINKELIN, Philadelphia, will be promptly attended to.

MCLEES & GERMON'S DAGUERRETYPE ROOMS,

No 108 Chesnut Street,
South East Corner of Eighth st., Philadelphia.
PORTRAITS from the smallest blemish to the largest size, singly or in groups. The Proprietors are warranted in saying, that their work has gained a reputation second to none in the world. Extracts from the Press:

"Life-like in the expression, chastely correct in the shading."
"The art has arrived at great perfection, and none understand it better than McClees & Germon."
"Baltimore Iris."

"Admirable! nothing can exceed their exquisite delicacy."
"The Iris & Gazette."

Extract from the report of the Judges, at the last fair of the Franklin Institute: "Daguerotypes in this department there are some very excellent specimens in the exhibition, and the Judges think they see a progressive improvement in this branch of the art. They have not recommended an award in favor of any of the competitors, but are disposed to rank as first in order, the collection of McClees & Germon, as containing the largest number of superior specimens."

SIX YEARS AGO

THE children began to cry for Sherman's Lozenges. The noise was not so loud at that time, but it kept increasing ever since, and now has become so great that the mouths of the little ones can scarce be stopped. Dr. Sherman sympathizes with the little sufferers, and very much regrets that any of them should be disappointed. Knowing the vast benefit which has been conferred upon the community by the introduction of his infallible he has, by stating their case for entering his Manufactory, by means of which he thinks he will be able to supply the demand. And the same pains and care will be taken, that these celebrated Lozenges be made as they have always been, in order that those who depend upon them, may not be disappointed in their hopes. If he knew when he commenced the manufacture of the Worm Lozenges, that they would supersede the use of every other vermifuge, as the Lozenges are very pleasant to the taste, speedily in their effects, as well as certain, and the quantity required to effect a perfect cure, very small. These properties in combination with the fact that they are sold for 25 cents per box, thus placing them in the reach of the poorest man in the land, has not only caused them to take the place of every other vermifuge ever offered, but has rendered them popular to the community.

Dr. Sherman's

continue to cure Coughs, Colds, Consumption, Asthma, shortness and difficulty of Breathing, and other diseases of the Lungs, with the same facility they did on their first introduction, and the people have now become persuaded by actual experience, that on the accession of a light cold, they have only to step to either the Dr.'s office, or one of the Agents, and obtain a box of his Cough Lozenges, which such very constant to carry in the pocket, and to take a few through the day. By pursuing this course a cure is often effected in 24 hours, and the patient about his business. So great is the celebrity of the Lozenges, that thousands of persons who have used them, and become acquainted with their effects, will never be without them.

SHERMAN'S POOR MAN'S PLASTER
has cured more cases of Rheumatism, Pain in the Back, Side and Chest, Lumbago and Weakness, than any application that has ever been made. As the celebrity of the Plaster has increased, hundreds of unprincipled rascals have attempted to counterfeit it, and sell it upon the community as the genuine. Beware of Deception! The genuine Plaster bears the true and genuine Plaster is spread upon reddish paper made expressly for the purpose, and in every case the signature of Dr. Sherman is printed upon the back of the Plaster, and the whole secured by Copy Right. None others are genuine. Therefore when you want a real good Sherman's Poor Man's Plaster, call at the office, 106 Nassau St., where you will not be disappointed.

Remember the number, 106 Nassau St., where all Dr. Sherman's Lozenges are sold. His Agents are Mrs. Hays, 139 Fulton street, Brooklyn; Hineson, Williamsburg; and Redding & Co., Boston, and JOHN YOUNG, Sunbury.

M'ALLISTER'S DISPENSARY.

IT has power to cure all EXTERNAL SORES, SCROFULOUS HUMORS, SKIN DISEASES, POISONOUS WOUNDS to discharge their dirt matter, and then heal them.

It is termed All-healing, for there is scarcely a disease, external or internal, that it will not benefit. I have used it for the last fourteen years for all diseases of the chest, consumption and liver, involving the utmost danger and responsibility, and I declare before heaven and man, that not in one single case has it failed to benefit when the patient was within the reach of mortal means.

I have had physicians, learned in the profession, I have had ministers of the gospel, judges of the bench, soldiers, sailors, gentlemen and ladies, of every condition, and multitude of the poor use it in every variety of way, and there has been but one voice—a universal voice—saying: "M'Allister, your Ointment is GOOD."

In Scrophulous Sores, Erysipelas, Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Broken or Sore Breast, Piles, all Chest Diseases, such as Asthma, Oppressions, Pain—Alas, Sore Lips, Chapped Hands, Tumors, Children's Cutaneous Eruptions, Nervous Diseases, and of the Spine, there is no medicine now known as good.

SCALD HEAD.—We have cured cases that actually defied every thing known, as well as the ability of 15 or 20 doctors. One man told us he had spent $500 on his children without any benefit, but a few boxes of Ointment cured them.

BALDNESS.—It will restore the hair sooner than any other thing.

HEADACHE.—The salve has cured persons of the headache of 12 years' standing, and who had it regularly every week, so that vomiting often took place. Druggists, Agents, and Agents in the Fact, are cured by this Ointment with like success.

RURNS.—It is one of the best things in the world for Burns. (Read the directions around the box.)

RHEUMATISM.—It removes almost immediately the inflammation and swelling when the pain ceases. (Read the Directions around the Box.)

COLD FEET.—Consumption, Liver Complaint, Pain in the chest, or side, falling off of the hair, and other ailments, accompanied with cold feet. (This Ointment is the true remedy.) It is a sure sign of disease to have cold feet.

TETTER.—There is nothing better for the cure of Tetters.

PILES.—Thousands are yearly cured by this Ointment.

GILLES.—Occasional use of the Ointment will always keep Corns from growing. People need never be troubled with them if they will use it.

Read the following Communication.
Received from an old, respected and well known citizen of Philadelphia, and then judge for yourself:

Philadelphia, 10 mo., 13th, 1846.
To T. B. Peterson.—Having been requested to give my opinion on the merits of M'ALLISTER'S Ointment, I am willing to commend some of the benefits which I have experienced in the use of the article.

In the spring of 1845, I had an attack of Erysipelas in my face which became very painful, and extended into one of my eyes, being attended with fever, my distresses great and I began to be fearful of losing my eye.

Although not much of a believer in what is commonly called quick medicines, I purchased a box and made an application to my face. To my surprise the pain soon abated, and in a week's time it was entirely cured, and I firmly believe that it was the cause of my recovery.

From that time to the present, I have used the article as occasion required, and in every case where I have used it, I have found a decided benefit.

At one time, on going to bed at night, my throat was sore and inflamed, and I was unable to swallow. By an application of the salve I was relieved in a few minutes.

I have used it in case of lacerations, sprains, and flesh cuts, all with the happiest effects, and one case of poisoning by a wild vine in the woods, when I was driven up and cured by a few applications.

From my own experience, I would strongly commend it to all, as a cheap, convenient, family medicine.

I have become so partial to it, that I expect to keep it constantly in my family.

Though not anxious to appear in print, yet I cannot refuse to have this medicine made public if judged best to serve the cause of humanity.

Respectfully thine,
WM. ADAMS,
No. 26, Old York Road.

CAUTION.—No Ointment will be genuine unless the name James M'Allister, or James M'Allister & Co., are written with a pen on every label.

VENI, VIDI, VICI.—Dr. ALLEN'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND.

DR. ALLEN'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND, FOR THE CURE OF DYSPEPSIA, LIVER COMPLAINT, NERVOUS DEBILITY, BILIOUS AFFECTIONS, &c. This Medicine is offered to the public under the assurance that there is no article in existence having stronger claims to their consideration. It has been tried by a registered and experienced Physician in College, Philadelphia, and a practicing physician of twenty years' standing in Philadelphia, his long experience has confirmed him in the opinion that a compound medicine was required to prevent and remedy the debility produced by residing in low, miasmatic climate, and to counteract the prostrating influences of many nervous disorders with which the human family are afflicted.

Dr. ALLEN is a well known physician, and has used the above medicine in his practice for 8 years with the most astonishing effect, having tested its qualities on himself.

FIVE THOUSAND CASES.
No medicine ever received more flattering recommendations from physicians of eminent standing than this has been bestowed on this.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION AND ITS CONSEQUENCES.—An eminent Professor says: "It chiefly arises in persons who have led either a very sedentary or irregular life. Although not regarded as a fatal disease, yet if neglected it is a source of great suffering, and may bring on incurable Malacia, Insanity, Paralysis, Dropsy, and Apoplexy. A great singularity attending on it, is that it may and often does continue a great length of time without any remission of the symptoms."

CAUSES.—Grief and uneasiness of mind, intemperate use of food and drink, excess in sexual excesses, use of spirituous liquors, tea, tobacco, and other narcotics, immoderate repletion, over distention of the stomach, a deficiency of the secretion of the bile or gastric juice, exposure to cold and damp air, are the chief causes of this disease.

SYMPTOMS.—Loss of appetite, nausea, heartburn, acidity, and fetid eructations, gnawing of the stomach when empty, uneasiness in the throat, pain in the side, costiveness, chilliness, languor, loss of spirits, palpitations, and disordered sleep.

TREATMENT.—Dr. ALLEN'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND has never failed in affording immediate relief, and a radical cure for this disease.

This Medicine can be had of H. B. Mason, Sunbury; J. C. Martin, Portville; Medlar & Bickel, Owingsburg; and of Druggists generally. Beware of cheap imitations.
