

[From the New York Spirit of the Age.] SONG OF THE MOSQUITO.

Huzza! huzza! For many a day Well hidden I've been From the light, I been; But the time hath come When my ceaseless hum Shall fill with fear, Those far and near,

Mine's a glorious state: I know that hate Filioth every breast, As I mar the rest Of young and old, Of timid and bold, As I gaily sing, On ceaseless wing.

That song which never peace doth bring, Oh, who can guess the mosquito's mood, When he dippeth his trunk in the ruby blood? Which he madly sips From beauty's lips, In the silent night, When all is bright

'Neath the clear moonlight; And though such darning my doom me death, What incense so sweet as beauty's breath Can ever save O'er an early grave!

Then merry and wild in life I'll be, And that ruby lip be the tomb for me!

MANUFACTURE OF INDIA RUBBER SHOES IN BRAZIL.—A number of blacks, bearing long poles on their shoulders, thickly strung with India rubber shoes, also attracted our attention. These are for the most part manufactured in the interior, and brought down the river for sale by the natives. It has been estimated at least 250,000 pairs of shoes are annually exported from the province of Para, and the number is constantly on the increase. A few words here, respecting the tree itself, and the manufacture of shoes, may not be out of place. The tree is quite peculiar in its appearance, and sometimes reaches the height of eighty, and even a hundred feet. The trunk is perfectly round, rather smooth, and protected by a bark of a light color. The leaves grow in clusters of three together, are thin, of an ovate form, and are from ten to fourteen inches in length. The centre leaf of the cluster is always the longest. This remarkable tree bears a curious fruit of the size of a peach, which, although not very palatable, is eagerly sought after by different animals; it is separated into three lobes, which contain each a small black nut. The trees are tapped in the same manner that New Englanders tap maple trees. The trunk having been perforated, a yellowish liquid, resembling cream, flows out, which is caught in small clay cups, fastened to the tree. When these are full, their contents are emptied into large earthen jars, in which the liquid is kept until desired for use.

The operation of making the shoes is as simple as it is interesting. Imagine yourself dear reader, in one of the sereno groves of Brazil. Around you are a number of good looking natives, of long stature and olive complexions. All are variously engaged. One is stirring with a long wooden stick the contents of a cauldron, placed over a pile of blazing embers. This is the liquid as it was taken from the rubber tree.—Into this a wooden last, covered with clay, and having a handle, is plunged. A coating of the liquid remains. You will perceive that another native then takes the last, and hold it in the smoke arising from the ignition of a species of palm fruit, for the purpose of causing the coating to assume a dark color. The last is then again plunged into the cauldron, and this process is repeated, as in dipping candles, until the coating is of the required thickness. You will, moreover, notice a number of Indian girls, (some very pretty,) engaged in making various impressions, such as flowers, &c., upon the soft surface of the rubber, by means of their thumb nails, which are especially pared and cultivated for this purpose. After this final operation the shoes are placed in the sun to harden, and large numbers of them may be seen laid out on mats in exposed situations. The aboriginal name of the rubber is cauchua, from which the formidable word of caoutchouc is derived. In Para it is styled borrhaca, or seringa.—Bentley's Miscellany.

JUDG M'CLEAN, we learn by a letter from him, published in the Cleveland Democrat, declines going before the Buffalo Convention as a candidate. He gives an opinion upon the subject of the extension of slave territory which, coming from a Judge, must we suppose, be regarded as law.

Resting upon the principles of the Constitution, as they have been judicially settled, the free States; by moderation, vigilance and firmness, may prevent the extension of slavery to the territory lately annexed. Without the sanction of law, slavery can no more exist in a territory than a man can breathe without air. Slaves are not property where they are not made so by the municipal law. The Legislature of a Territory can exercise no power which is not conferred on it by an act of Congress.

The Utica and Schenectady Railroad Company have settled with J. R. Howard, Esq., of Felt's Mills, for the death of his son, killed by a collision of the cars, near Herkimer, in May last, by paying all the incidental expenses attending the accident, including the physician's bill, coffin, sending the remains home, &c. and two thousand two hundred dollars besides.

ANOTHER FRESH. Notice the stage-horn! Ring one bell! That the waiting world may know! Publish it through all our borders, Even unto Mexico. Send your pen, oh! dressing pool, And in numbers smooth as may be, Spread forth the joyful tidings, Every negro's happy baby!

Life is a vast railway train, in which we are compulsory passengers. On the outside is written, "No stopping by the way." We get in at the cradle and are put down at the grave; we have just time to change clothes in the transit.

PHILADELPHIA MEDICAL HOUSE,

Established 15 years ago by Dr. KINKELIN. The oldest, surest and best land for the cure of all secret Diseases, diseases of the skin and solitary habits of youth, is Dr. KINKELIN'S. N. W. corner of 3d and Union sts., between Spruce and Pine, 14 squares from the Exchange.

YOUNG MEN! if you value your life or your health, remember, the delay of a month, may prove your ruin, both of body and mind. Hence, at no false modesty let you from making your case known to one who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend you. He who places himself under Dr. KINKELIN'S treatment, may religiously confide in his honor as a physician, and in the wisdom which will forever lock the secret of the patient.

Many think they will hug the secret to their own hearts, and cure themselves. Alas! how often is this fatal delusion, and how many a promising young man, who might have been an ornament to society, has fallen from earth. COUNTRY INVALIDS, finding it inconvenient to make personal application, can, by sending their certificates, together with all their symptoms, (per letter, post-paid), have forwarded to them a chest containing Dr. K.'s medicines appropriated accordingly. Packages of Medicines forwarded to any part of the United States at a moment's notice. Post paid letters, addressed to Dr. Kinkelin, Philadelphia, will be promptly attended to. Oct. 30th, 1847.—ly

SIX YEARS AGO

The children began to cry for Sherman's Lozenges. The mother was so low in spirits, that time, but it has kept increasing ever since, and now has become so great that the mouths of the little ones can scarce be stopped. Dr. Sherman sympathizes with the little sufferers, and very much regrets a that any of them should be disappointed. Knowing the benefit which has been conferred upon the community by the introduction of his infallible WORM LOZENGES, he has entered into arrangements for enlarging his Manufactory, by means of which he thinks he will be able to supply the demand. And the same pains and care will be taken, that these celebrated Lozenges be made as they have always been, in order that those who depend upon them, may not be disappointed in their hopes. He knew when he commenced the manufacture of the Worm Lozenges, that they would supersede the use of every other vermifuge, as the Lozenges is very pleasant to the taste, speedy in its effects, as well as certain, and the quantity required to effect a perfect cure. These lozenges possess properties, in connection with the fact that they are so easy to be taken, that they are in the reach of the poorest man in the land, has not only caused them to take the place of every other vermifuge ever offered, but also so rendered them popular to the community.

COUGH LOZENGES

Continue to cure Coughs, G.C.S., Consumption, Asthma, shortness and difficulty of Breathing, and other diseases of the Lungs, with the same facility they did on their first introduction, and the people have now become persuaded by actual experience, that on the accession of a slight cold, they have only to step to either the Dr.'s office, or one of the Agents, and obtain a box of his Cough Lozenges, which are very convenient to carry in the pocket, and to take a few through the day, and the patient will be cured in 24 hours, and the patient about his business. So great is the celebrity of the Lozenges, that thousands of persons who have used them, and become acquainted with their effects, will never be without them.

SHERMAN'S

FOOT MAN'S PLASTER has cured more cases of Rheumatism, Pain in the Back, Side and Chest, Lumbago and Wounds, than any application that has ever been made. As the celebrity of the Plaster has increased, hundreds of unprincipled rascals have attempted to counterfeit it, and palm it off by assuming the name of Sherman's. Beware of Deception, Community as the fact that the true and genuine Plaster is spread upon red paper made expressly for the purpose, and in every case the signature of Dr. Sherman is printed upon the back of the Plaster, and the whole secured by Copy Right. None other goods are genuine. Therefore when you want a real good Sherman's Foot Man's Plaster, call at the office, 106 Nassau Street, and you will not be disappointed. Remember the number, 106 Nassau St., where all Dr. Sherman's Lozenges are sold. His Agents are Mrs. Hays, 139 Fulton street, Brooklyn; Hinson, Williamsburg and Reading & Co., Boston, and JOHN YOUNG, Sunbury, Pa. M. A. McCAY, Northumberland. September 11th, 1847.—ly

M'ALLISTER'S

It has power to cure all external SORES, SCROFULOUS humors, SKIN DISEASES, POISONOUS WOUNDS to discharge their putrid matters, and then heal them. It is richly termed All-healing, for there is scarcely a disease, external or internal, that it will not benefit. I have used it for the last fourteen years for all diseases of the chest, consumption and liver, involving the utmost danger and responsibility, and I declare before heaven and man, that not in one single case has it failed to benefit when the patient was within the reach of mortal means. I have had physicians, learned in the profession, I have had ministers of the gospel, judges of the bench, aldermen, lawyers, gentlemen of the highest education, and multitudes of the poor use it in every variety of cases, and they have all pronounced it a universal voice—saying: "M'Allister's Ointment is GOOD."

In Scrofula, Old Sores, Erysipelas, Tetter, Liver Complaint, Sore Eyes, Quinsy, Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Broken or Sore Breast, Piles, all Chest Diseases, such as Asthma, Oppressions, Pain—Also, Sore Lips, Chapped Hands, Tumor, Children's Cutaneous Eruptions, Nervous Diseases, and of the Spine, there is no medicine now known so good. SQUAND HEAD—We have cured cases that actually defied every thing known, as well as the ability of 15 or 20 doctors. One man told us he had spent $300 on his children without any benefit, when a few boxes of Ointment cured them.

HEADACHE—It will restore the hair sooner than any other thing. BALDNESS—The same has cured persons of the headache of 12 years' standing, and who had it every other week, so that vomiting often took place. DEAFNESS, EAR ACHES, and AGE 18 years of age, are cured by this Ointment with like success. RURNS—It is one of the best things in the world for Burns. (Read the directions around the box.) RHEUMATISM.—It removes almost immediately the inflammation, and restores the sinews. (Read the Directions around the Box.) COLD FEET.—Consumption, Liver Complaint, Pain in the chest or side, falling off of the hair, one or the other always accompanies cold feet. (This Ointment is the true remedy.) It is a sure sign of disease, if it returns the money.

TETTER—There is nothing better for the cure of Tetter. PILLS.—Thousands are yearly cured by this Ointment. Occasional use of the Ointment will always keep Cures from growing. People need never be troubled with them if they will use it. Read the following Communication. Received from an old, respected and well known citizen of Philadelphia, and then judge for yourself. Philadelphia, 10 mo., 13th, 1846.

To T. B. Peterson.—Having been requested to give my opinion on the merits of M'ALLISTER'S SALVE, I am willing to enumerate some of the benefits which I have experienced in the use of the article. In the spring of 1845, I had an attack of Erysipelas in my face which became very painful, and extended into one of my eyes, being attended with fever, my distress was great and I began to be fearful of losing my eye. Although not a believer in what is commonly called quack medicines, I purchased a box and made an application to my face. To my surprise the pain soon abated, and in a week's time it was entirely cured, and I firmly believe that it cured the entire disease that caused me to use it. From that time to the present, I have used the article as occasion required, and in every case where I have used it, I have found a decided benefit. At one time, on going to bed at night, my throat was so sore that I swallowed with difficulty, but on an application of the salve I was relieved before morning. I have used it in case of burns, bruises, sprains, and all such, with all the happiest effects, and one case of poisoning by a wild vine in the woods, has been cured by a few applications. From my own experience, I would strongly recommend it to all, as a cheap, convenient, family medicine. I have become so partial to it, that I expect to keep it constantly in my family. At one time, on going to bed at night, my throat was so sore that I swallowed with difficulty, but on an application of the salve I was relieved before morning. I have used it in case of burns, bruises, sprains, and all such, with all the happiest effects, and one case of poisoning by a wild vine in the woods, has been cured by a few applications. From my own experience, I would strongly recommend it to all, as a cheap, convenient, family medicine. I have become so partial to it, that I expect to keep it constantly in my family. Though not a believer in what is commonly called quack medicines, I purchased a box and made an application to my face. To my surprise the pain soon abated, and in a week's time it was entirely cured, and I firmly believe that it cured the entire disease that caused me to use it. From that time to the present, I have used the article as occasion required, and in every case where I have used it, I have found a decided benefit.
