The undersigned has spent several years in the study of Veterinary practice in "London and Edinboro"," he has also availed himself of the researches of Leibig, and other celebrated men, who have contributed so much towards a judicious treatment of animals; the principles of our practice consists in the rejection of general bleeding and the total rejection of all medicines that experience has shown to be of a dangerous tendancy. These remedies act in harmony with the vital principle, and when given according to the directions which accompany each article they are capable of exciting and increasing the natural functions, without diminishing or destroying their power, hence are safein the hands of every one.

COLUMBIAN SERIES OF

Arithmetics.

The Pupil's friend and Teacher's comfort. HE COLUMBIAN CALCULATOR.—This work is already introduced into some of the best Acadamies and a large number of Schools, where its use has given decided and universal satisfaction, both to teacher and pupil. It is purely American in its character, based upon our own beautiful decimal system of currency. It contains more, the arrangements are better, and it is the easiest and cheapest work of the kind now in use; and it is so considere! by hundreds of the most competent teachers and men of science in the Union, who have recomminded it. It is the

which the solutions of the questions are given with much extra matter for the black board. These eys are the most complete works of the kind ever ublished, and contain, in addition, about two undred examples in Mensuration, &c., for the se of the Teacher. All that is wanted is to have ne above books examined, and no teacher who is equainted with the science of Arithmetic, will esitate to pronounce them the best works that ave ever been published in this or any other

Although issued but a few months, they have ready been introduced into the Night Public chools of New York City—in all the Schools ublic and private, except two, in the City of leading. Also, in about twenty Acadamics in the State of Pennsylvania—in a large portion of the Schools in the City of Wilmington, in the City of Lancaster, and in the Boroughs of Harrisburg, Vork, Chambersburg, Lebanon, Doylestown, Pottslle, Orwigsburg, &c., &c.

Bronchitis, Consumption can be cured.

Bronchitis, Consumption, Liver Complaint, Colds, Coughs, Catarrh, Ashma, Spitting of Blood, Soreness in the Chest, Heetie Flush, Night Sweats, Difficult and Profuse Expectoration, and Pain in the Side, &c., &c., have and can be cured.

Probably there never was a remedy that has been so successful in desperate cases of consumption as this; it cleanses and strengthens the system, and appears to heal the ulcers on the lungs, and patients gradually regain their usual health and strength.

CURIOUS CASE OF CONSUMPTION.
