[From the Pennsylvania Inquirer.] CULTIVATE GOOD MANNERS.

The obligation of Good MANNERS is incum bent upon all. Many men have owed their elevation and prosperity in the world, entirely to their address, and manner. How often do we entertain a friendly feeling towards a person, of whom we know nothing more than their mery, wholesale and retail, by cordial greeting in the street; and, on the other hand, how often are we conscious of a secret dislike, (blameable, indeed,) where we made of recognition. The former, it is a pleasure to meet; we heartily reciprocate his bland salutation and kind smile, and would be delighted to do him a good turn; the latter, chills us by his freezing air and rigid countenance; and we would be very glad to avoid speaking to him altogether. The cordial man makes even his enemies his friends; the cold, forbidding man converts friends inhave nothing to condemn but a stiff, formal the cold, forbidding man converts friends into enemies. Every man has a degree of selflove, which is gratified by the one, and wounded by the other.

The cordial man commences business with no capital, perhaps, but his good manners, and he soon gathers friends, customers, and dellars.

Selfishness and narrowness of mind, which are generally the cause of cold manners, thus betray the unhappy possessor, and ruin his interest. We do not recommend good manners because they are profitable; were they unprofitable, the duty would be as imperative, and should be as cheerfully per- AND A VARIETY OF OTHER DISEASES ARISING formed. We merely show, that kindness and goodness have every thing to commend them to our practice. The exchortations of Holy Writ, upon this subject, are frequent and pangent; and no man maintains well the Christian character, who is not habitually gentle, conciliating, and pleasant in his intercourse with others. Have a kind smile and s kind word for every body, and you will find the benefit of it every day of your life. Men often complain of the way in which the world treats them : but, the fact is, that you will be treated yourself very much as you treat others. If you wish to make a thorny path for yourself, you can easily do so. When you meet an acquaintance in the street take care not to smile, but speak to him as if you had the rheumatism in your neck.

If your customers ask you to show them your goods, let them see that you consider it a great deal of trouble, and that you expect them to buy, immediately, without any loss of time, or impertiment questions. "What's the use of talking about it? You are there to sell, and they come to buy." When you are in company, insist, peremptorily, upon the correctness of your political, religious, or literary, opinions, and resent any dissent from your views, as a personal insult. Wherever you may be, at home or abroad, on I change or in church, always insist upon your "rights" -the best seats, the best dishes and the best of every thing, you can lay your hands on. If a man great you with a friendly smile, and a cordial shake of the hand, take care to not him right down with a frozen aspect and a pump-handle shake in return. If you follow these directions, minutely, you will find the world as sour as your vinegar can make it; but, if you wish to be happy, respected, and have "that which should accompany" a man's earthly course, "as honor, love," respect "and troops of friends," be the reverse of all this, and you may confidently expect success.

Dt. Townsend: I verily believe that your Sarsaparilla has been the means, through Providence, of saving my life I have for several years had a bad e sigh. It became worse and worse. At last I raised large quantities of blood, had night sweats and was greatly debilitated and reduced, and did not expect to live. I have only used your Sarsaparilla but a short time, and there has a wonderful change been wrought in me. I am now able to walk all over the city—I raise no blood, and my cough has left me. You can well imagine that I am thankful for those results. Your obedient servant.

She was given up as past accounts ye our family physician; but fortunately I was recommended by a friend to try your Sarsaparilla. Before having used one bottle she recovered her speech and was embled to walk alone, to the astonishment of all who were acquainted with the errounstances. She is now quite well, and in much better health than she has been for its months pass.

I tried the usual remedies, but they had but little or no effect in removing the complaint. I was induced, about two mouths more, to try your Estrace of Sarasparilla, and I must say with little confidence; but after using nearly two bottles, I found my appetite restored and the heartburn entirely tentoval; and I would carnessly recommend the use of it to those who have been afflicted as have been.

ofals or King's Evil, Rhoumatism, Obstinate Cutaneous raptions, Pimples or Pestules on the face, Blotcher, Blee, Chronic Sure Eyes, Ring Worm or Tetter, Scald Head, Enlargement and Pain of the Bones and joints, Stubb on Ulcers, Syphilitic Symptoms, Scintica or Lumbago, diseases arising from an injudicious use of Mercury, Dropsy, Exposure or Imprudence in life; also, Chronic Constitutional Discorders.

In this medicine several innocent but very potent articles of the vegetable kingdom are united, forming a compound entirely different in its character and properties from any other preparation, and unrivalled in its operation on the system when laboring under disease. It should be in the lands of every person, who, by business, or general course of life, is predisposed to the very unany alliments that render life a curse, unstead of a blessing, and so often result in death.

FOR SCROFULA. qr. Drake's Panocea is recommended as a certain remedy. Not one instance of its failure has ever occurred when free ly used! It cures the disease and at the same time impart vigor to the whole system. Scrollhous persus can never pay too much attention to the state of their blood. Its partification should be their first aim; for perseverance will accomplish a cure of KVEN HEREDITARY disease.

POR ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN. Scurvy, Scotbutic Affections, Tumors, White Swelling Erysipelas, Ukers, Caucers, Running Sores, Scabs am Biles, Dr. Drake's Panacen enimot be too highly extolled it searches out the very root of the disease, and permanent

RHUEMATISM.

RHUEMATISM.

Dr. Drake's Panacea is used with the greatest success in Rheumatic Complaints, especially such as chronic. It cirre by driving out all impurties and foul humours which have accumulated in the system, which are the cause of Rheumatism, Gout, and Swellings of the hints. Other remedies metimes give temporary relief; this entirely eradicate the disease from the system, even when the limbs and bone are dreadfully swellen.

CONSUMPTION. CONSUMPTION.

CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED.—Coughs, Catarth. Bruschitts, Spitting of Block, Asthana, Difficult or profuse Expectration, Hec.ic Flush, Night Sweats, Pain in the side &c. have been curred, and can be with as much certainty is any other disease. A specific has I ng been a ught for, but in valu until the diseavery of Dr. Brake's Pansicea. It is mild and safe but certain and efficial us in its operation and cannot possibly injure the most deficial constitution. We would carnestly reasonment these afficient type in trial—and we believe they will not have occuss in to regree. The system is cleaved and streambound, the alterial.

TESTIMONY.

DRAR Sin:—In reply to your questi in respecting the use of Dr. Drake's Panacea, I will say, that although a perfect disbeliever in the existence of a Panacea, or cure for ALL discases, however valuable it may be in certain conditions of the system, still I have believed that a cure it is consumption would be disc vered so mer or later, and currosity led me to try your medicine in two very invelerate cases. They were pronounced by the attending physicians to be fulmonant of the process had been under the treatment of several very able practitioners for a number of years, and they said she had "lid fashi ned Consumption combine with Ser sids," and that she might larger for some time but could not be permanently relieved. In both cases the effect of the Panacea has been most gratifying. Chily four or five bottles were used by one of the persons before she began to improve rapidly. The other took about ten. I will only add that familiar as I am with consumption by inheritance and by extensive observation as a study, and knowing also the injurious effects in nine cases out of ten of tar, bousset, and other vegetable tonics, as well as of many of the expectermist and selectives, I she had never bave recommended the use of Drake's Panacea if I had in these are recommended by our most popular and scientific physician, and in their present combined state, form, probably the best discattive that has ever been made. The cure is in accordance with a theory of Consumption by the content writers on medicine, and now established by facts which admit of no discute.
