Biography.

[From the National Gallery of Portraits.]

MAJ. GEN. EDMUND P. GAINES.

EDMUND PENDLETON GAINES, the third son of James Gaines, was born on the 20th of March, 1777, near the Eastern base of the Blue Ridge, in the county of Culpepper, Virginia. His father served in the latter part of the revolutionary war, at the head of a company of volunteers; and was soon after chosen a member of the Legislature of North Carolina, to the Northwest border of which state he had moved with his family at the close of the war.

Entering the army in 1799, he was actively employed for about twelve years in frontier duty, which included many functions of a civil as well as of a military character; and upon him it devolved to take an active part in the arrest of Col. Burr, which was effected in Alabama—an event which has been supposed to have exerted a mysterious and prejudicial influence upon all his after life.—Soon after this he provisionally resigned his commission, intending to engage in the practice of the law, but on the breaking out of the war in 1812, with Great Britain, he resumed his military career, and early gained distinction.

At the battle of Christler's Field, which took place on the 11th of November, 1813, Colonel Gaines, but just recovered from the tedious illness which had deprived him of the honor of a participation in the glory of Harrison's victory on the Thames, commanded the 25th regiment of U. S. infantry.

That regiment was the most effective in the service. The important duty was that day assigned to it of covering the retreat of our several corps, after the check which the enemy had received, to the place of re-embarcation on the St. Lawrence.

The duty was a most important and arduous one. The officer who commanded the British force was Col. Morrison, of the eighty-ninth, than whom his Majesty had not a more distinguished soldier or accomplished gentleman in his service.

Flushed with the advantages he had gained in the capture of a piece of our artillery, and in the death of General Covington, who had fallen at the head of his regiment, in a charge against the British line, Morrison pushed his regiment hard upon his retiring foe, until he encountered the gallant twenty-fifth. Here all his efforts failed. The twenty-fifth held firm foot in spite of repeated assaults, and manifested a degree of fortitude and discipline which astonished the veterans who had followed Wellington over so many fields of triumph. Under its gallant commander, Gaines, it remained as immovable as a rock.

The enemy finally repulsed, and our own troops again on their line of march to join the advance, the twenty-fifth slowly retired from the field, having by its brilliant deportment gained for us all the advantages which could have sprung from the most decided victory. Col. Morrison himself was so much pleased with the conduct of the regiment, that after the battle he sent his card, with his compliments, to the officer who commanded it, expressing the warmest admiration of his courage and conduct, and desiring to be made acquainted with his name, that in case it should be hereafter his good fortune to meet the gentleman under more peaceful circumstances, he might at once claim the privileges of an old soldier and friend. It is needless to say that a message so chivalric and magnanimous could not have been addressed to a heart more ready to respond, or prompt to reciprocate the exalted courtesy it evinced, than that of Col. Gaines.

In the course of the war Gaines received the several successive, rapid promotions of lieutenant colonel, colonel, adjutant general, brigadier general and major general; the last being the highest rank authorized by law, and conferred in a form the most acceptable to the soldier, inasmuch as it was "a war brevet," expressly stating the fact that it was conferred on him in consequence of his gallant and meritorious conduct in battle. The Federal government also honored him and the officers and men of his command with a unanimous vote of thanks, and authorized the President to provide and present to him a gold medal, while the three great and patriotic states of New York, Virginia and Tennessee awarded to him unanimous resolutions of thanks, with a fine gold hilted sword, which he received from each of these states.

From the New York Tribune.

He was made a Brigadier General, March 9, 1814, and commanded at Sackett's Harbor until August, reaching Fort Erie and taking command there on the 5th. The gallant and successful defense of Gen. Gaines of that post forms one of the most brilliant chapters in our Military annals. At length, having been severely wounded by a shell, he resigned the command to Gen. Ripley and crossed to Buffalo. He did not recover in time to engage in the farther prosecution of the War, which closed the next Spring, but he received the thanks of Congress, with a medal and the brevet rank of Major General for his brilliant defence. He was soon after transferred to the South, and engaged under Jackson in the Creek war of 1812. He afterwards commanded in the Southern Military District until the reduction of the Army in 1828, but Mr. Adams decided that Gen. Mecomb's claim was the senior officer during what is vulgarly known as 'the Sank fuss' in 1831-3, and was for a time engaged in the Seminole war of 1836. When the Mexican War broke out, he called out a liberal allowance of South western militia without awaiting orders from Washington—involving a heavy expense with no adequate result. He was Court martialed for this, but not censured. He was soon after transferred to the Eastern Division, with his headquarters in this city, and only returned to the South during the last winter. He was 72 years old, and a man of extreme simplicity of character and the most unquestioned integrity.

At a printers' festival in Washington, the following was a regular toast:

WOMAN—the fairest work of creation—the edition being extensive, let no man be without a copy.

BROWN'S

ESSENCE OF JAMAICA GINGER

PREPARED and sold only, at FREDERICK BROWN'S DRUG and CHEMICAL Store, N. E. corner of FIFTH and CHESNUT streets, Philadelphia. This Essence is warranted to possess in a concentrated form, all the valuable properties of Jamaica Ginger, and will be found on trial an excellent Family Medicine. It is particularly recommended as a tonic, to persons recovering from fever or other diseases, a few drops imparting to the stomach a glow and vigor, equal to a wine glass of brandy or other stimuland, without any of the debilitating effects, which are sure to follow the use of liquor of any kind; and it is therefore especially serviceable to children and females. To the aged, it will prove a great comfort; to the dyspeptic, and to those who are predisposed to gout or rheumatic affections, it gives great relief; and to the inebriate who wishes to reform, but whose stomach is constantly craving the noxious liquor, it is invaluable—giving tone to the digestive organs, and strength to resist temptation; and is consequently a great agent in the cause of temperance. ☞ Full directions accompanying each bottle.

The above article can be had at the office of the American.

SILENCE

That dreadful Cough! the Lungs are in danger, the work of the Destroyer has been begun, the cough of Consumption hath in it a sound of Death,

Rev. HENRY JONES, 108 Eighth avenue, was cured of cough and catarrhal affection of 30 years standing. The first dose gave him more relief than all the other medicine he had ever taken. Dr. L. J. Beals, 19 Delaney-street, gave it to a sister-in-law who was labouring under Consumption, and to another sorely afflicted with the Asthma. In both cases its effects were immediate, soon restoring them to comfortable health.

Mrs. LUCRETIA WELLS, 95 Christie-st. suffered from Asthma 42 years. Sherman's Balsam relieved her at once, and she is comparatively well, being enabled to subdue every attack by a timely use of this medicine. This indeed is the great remedy for Coughs, Colds, Spitting Blood, Liver Complaints, and all the affections of the throat, and even Asthma and Consumption.

Ask for Sherman's All-Healing Balsam, and see that his written signature is on each bottle.

Price 25 cents and $1 per bottle.

Dr. Sherman's Worm and Cough Lozenges, and Poor Man's Plasters sold as above.

SHERMAN'S POOR MAN'S PLASTER

has cured more cases of Rheumatism, Pain in the Back, Side and Chest, Lumbago and Weakness, than any application that has increased, hundreds of unprincipled rascals have attempted to counterfeit it, and palm it off upon the community as the genuine. ☞ Beware of Deception. ☜ Remember that the true and genuine Plaster is spread upon reddish paper made expressly for the purpose and every case the signature of Dr. Sherman is printed upon the back of the Plaster, and the whole secured by Copy Right. None others are genuine. Therefore when you want a real good Sherman's Poor Man's Plaster, call at the office, 106 Nassau street, and you will not be disappointed.

Remember principal Office 106 Nassau-street, New-York, where all Dr. Sherman's Lozenges are sold. His Agents are Mrs. Hays, 139 Fulton street, Brooklyn; Hinson, Williamsburg; and Redding & Co. Boston, and

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR COUGHS, COLDS, CROUP, HOARSENESS, ASTHMA, HOOPING COUGH, BRONCHITIS AND CONSUMPTION.

THIS valuable preparation, so astonishingly successful in curing diseases of the Lungs, is the result of a skillful combination of the known curative principles of medicine. Its ingredients are freely made known to the public, and are those acknowledged to medical men as possessing rare medical virtues, which peculiar virtues are combined in the "CHERRY PECTORAL" in their greatest purity and efficacy, and when used, as will be seen from the following valuable testimony:

PROFESSOR CLEVELAND,

of Bowdoin College, Brunswick, Maine, writes:—"I have witnessed the effects of your Cherry Pectoral in my own family and in that of my friends, and it has given great satisfaction in cases both of adults and children."

A VOICE FROM MASSACHUSETTS.

From Dr. Bryant, Druggist and Postmaster, Chicopee Falls, Mass:—

DR. J. C. AYER—Dear Sir: Enclosed please find remittance for all the Cherry Pectoral last sent me. I can unhesitatingly say, that no medicine we sell gives such satisfaction as your's does nor have I ever seen a medicine which cured so many cases of cough and lung complaints. Our Physicians are using it extensively in the practice, and with the happiest effects.

Truly yours, D. M. BRYANT.

DR. PERKINS.

President of Vermont Medical College one of the most learned and intelligent physicians in the country, "considers it a composition of rare excellence for the cure of that formidable disease, Consumption."

An almost incredible number of certificates have been received; proving that the Cherry Pectoral is, in truth, a for Coughs, Colds, Asthma and all pulmonary complaints.

PRICE 75 CENTS PER BOTTLE.

Prepared by J. C. AYER, Lowell, Mass., and sold by H. MASSER, Sunbury, and MARY McCAY, Northumberland.

Arrival of the U. S. ship Lexington from California, with a Quarter of a Million Dollars in Gold Dust.

NEW YORK, June 10.

The U. S. ship Lexington, from San Francisco, is now coming up the harbor, with twelve hundred and eighteen pounds of grain gold, from California, on board, having left 458 pounds at Valparaiso.

Among the passengers are Samuel F. Hazard, last from Rio Janeiro; Fred. W. Robinson, midshipman, from San Francisco, and Thos. H. Stevens, of the U. S. Navy, and family, from San Francisco.

[SECOND DESPATCH.]

The United States store ship Lexington has arrived at the Naval anchorage off Brooklyn. Officers and crew all well. Her arrival created much excitement during the afternoon. The California fever has broken out afresh.

In the fifteenth century, a German astronomer made a wooden eagle that flew forth from the city, met the Emperor, saluted him, and returned. He also made an iron fly, which flew out of his hat at a feast, and returned after sporting about the room.

A Botany Bay magistrate, who had risen from the situation of a convict to the bench, having indulged in some harsh reflections on a person whom he fined five shillings for being drunk, the delinquent said: "There's the money! I well remember the time in England when I should have liked much less to meet you with five shillings in my pocket."

"Mr. Showman," said a greenhorn at the menagerie, "can the leopard change his spots?" "Yes sir," replied the individual who stirs up the wild beasts, "when he gets tired of one spot he can easily go to another."

A Clergyman at Moorwinston, was baptising a child, but being used to cold water it did not cry. He kept dashing it on the poor infant several times, and on being asked his reason for so doing, said, "Sin did not depart" till the child cried!!!

An Invention is announced to protect banks and shops from robbery. The moment they touch the locks, inside or out, a galvanic battery knocks them down and rings a bell.

SERVED THEM RIGHT.—The Hallowell Gazette, in commenting on the practice of "sitting in church in prayer," says—"We remember a good old minister who once prayed fervently for those of the congregation who were 'too proud to kneel and too lazy to stand.'"
