THE POOL AND HIS MONEY ARE SOON PARTED.

We published a few days ago an extract from a letter in the New York Post, from a disabed volunteer, in California, who stated that he had accumulated $7000 in gold in California, and was coming home. The Post gives the sequel as follows:

The letter was received here, and published in the Post on the 20th inst. Only two days after its receipt, to the extreme surprise and joy of his wife and family, Loughrey presented himself before them. He had accumulated at the mines nine or ten thousand dollars, and supposing the sum inexhaustible, took passage to this country very soon after the above letter was written, having about $7000 worth of dust in his trunk, and the balance of his wealth on his person.

His idleness and prosperity were too much for his new resolutions. He abandoned himself to intemperance, and the money so easily acquired, was lightly prized. On his arrival in this city he hired a carriage to carry him to his home, which his gold letter had but a few hours previous made so happy; but before he reached it he contrived to spend forty dollars, in drink and upon his driver, and on his arrival, the trunk, containing his $7000, was missing, and a large portion of the money which he had brought away upon his person. His unhappy wife, when she became aware of her foolish husband's imprudence, solicited the aid of gentlemen to whom she was known, and steps were immediately taken to preserve what money had not been wasted, and to recover what had undoubtedly been stolen from him. About $1200 were thus saved and sent to the mint at Philadelphia. The trunk and its contents are probably lost for ever. Loughrey can give no account whatever of it.

On the subject of Behavior in Company, LEIGH RICHMOND gives the following excellent advice to his daughters:

"Be cheerful, but not giggling. Be serious but not dull. Be communicative, but not forward. Be kind, but not servile. Beware of silly thoughtless speeches; although you may forget them, others will not. Remember God's eyes in every place, and his ear in every company. Beware of levity and familiarity with young men; a modest reserve, without affectation, is the only safe path. Court and encourage serious conversation with those who are truly serious and conversible; and do not go into valuable company without endeavoring to improve by the intercourse permitted to you. Nothing is more unbecoming, when one part of a company is engaged in profitable and interesting conversation, than that another part should be trifling, giggling, and talking comparative nonsense to each other."

NEW BEDFORD AND CALIFORNIA.—The California fever in New England has scarcely ever run higher than at present, though there is more method in the madness of the out goers. There are no less than seven large vessels fitting out at New Bedford for the Gold Regions, mostly loaded with lumber and bricks. The owners will unquestionably make profitable voyages. The whaling ships of both Nantucket and New Bedford are bringing in a good deal of gold from California.

As he is wont, Major Noah, of the Star, has hit the nail on the head. Take six thousand readers of a public journal, and no two of them will see things precisely alike, yet all may complain if the paper fails to reflect the peculiar notions of each. The most ridiculous labour a man ever undertook is trying to please every shade of taste by a single dish.—Augusta Sentinel.

It is said that Mr. Chas. Stetson, of the Astor House, goes shortly to St. Petersburg, Russia, to superintend the establishing of a first-rate hotel there on the American plan.

PEACHES.—The editor of the Yazoo City (Miss) Whig, acknowledges the receipt of a box of fine cling stone peaches, raised near that place.

CONDESCENSION.—The English admiral has granted permission to the officers of the American frigate St. Lawrence to visit Sheerness dock yard. Wonderful condescension!

The following are infallible recipes—to make pie—play at blind man's buff in a printing office. To have music at dinner—tell your wife she is not so handsome as the lady who lives across the way. To save butter—make it so salt that nobody can eat it.

PRETTY GOOD.—A man in Albany, the other night, thought he had an attack of cholera; some friends encouraged the idea; and finally cured him by giving him three pills, made from a celebrated shoe blacking, magination sickened and cured him.

One of the severest struggles in life, is at between a proud spirit and an empty purse.

THE SULPHUR REMEDY.—The newspapers teeming with accounts of the success of sulphur in cholera at Chicago. In real cholera the sulphur has been utterly futile in city, and will be so every where else. Louisville Courier, June 21st.

SENATOR FOOT, of Mississippi, now a resident of Washington, fills about seven columns of the Union, denouncing the great insurrection. Mr. Foot says, the Democratic party can never take him up for President.

WILSON'S Business Directory for the city of New York contains the names of 27,670 persons or firms engaged in business on their own account. Among them are 2824 grocers and provision dealers, 1086 lawyers, 1390 tailors and shoe makers, 1146 dry goods and cy goods merchants, and 1640 keepers of taverns.

FOR BAD.—The marriage of Col. Bragg, of little more than a year's notoriety, is traced by New York Globe as a surrender of the anticolonel, which the Globe says "served right!" He should have known that his try could not resist the small arms of war.

About 50 acres are cleared. The rest well wooded—some good timber.

The improvements are a log house, barn and apple orchard. An unfailing spring of pure and wholesome water, near the door.

For some years past, more or less lime has been put upon the land annually, and as from one of good quality has been found on contiguous tracts, there is reason to believe it exists on this.
