FARMERS COMPANY

Over 70,000 Members. GUARANTY CAPITAL OVER $500,000

THE Washington County Mutual Insurance Company of Granville, N. Y., through their Agent, is now taking risks in this County and vicinity, on dwelling Houses, Churches, Taverns, Boarding Houses, Hay, Grain and Farmers produce generally. This Company takes no risks in exposed parts of villages or on Stores, Mills, Shops or Machinery, nor insures exceeding $2000 in one locality. The rates are exceedingly low, ava-raging less than $5 per thousand for Policies run-ning 5 years or $1 per year. A small premium

note is required, but the prosperous condition of the Company and the large accumulated cash fund, precludes all probability of there ever being an assessment. The Policies of this Company are free from objectionable conditions often found in policies of other Companies; the Company being also responsible for the correctness of busi-ness done by its Agents. It is now the most extensive Mutual Company in the United States, and universally popular among the farmers of N. Y. Mass., and Conn. All losses, however, SMALL after due notice will be promptly paid either at the place of loss or the Branch Office at Harrisburg. The Company is now under the direction of the following gentlemen: Hon David Russell late member of Congress. Hon. Solomon S. Cowen, Cornelius L. Allen, Joseph M. Bishop, H. N. Graves, Henry

Holmes, Geo. Clements, Joseph U. Orvis, Arch Bishop, Geo. Young, jr., Nathan Doane. DAVID RUSSELL, President. Persons desiring Insurance in the above Company by informing the subscriber by letter or otherwise will receive prompt attention.
