est: AFFAIRS IN FRANCE. Reception of Mr. Rives. r. Rives, the new Minister of the Ameri

Republic to the French nation, presented redentials to the President on the 8th nt, at the Elysce National. ie President of the Republic declared to Ainister of the United States, that not-standing the faults which it was right to t on both sides, he willingly took the step towards the re-establishment of harmony between the two countries; Cass: that a susceptibility which would be, sps, natural with respect to a monarchy, ot appear to him to have the same serinotive as regarded an elder Republic .ided, that however jealous he ought to the honor of France, he had too high sinion of the enlightened character of ral Taylor, to hesitate a moment in ackedging the pain which he felt on seeing ments of friendship so intimate and of ancient date, altered on account of a idering without importance.

e Ambassador of the United States red the frank and loyal declaration with cordiality.

Kossuth's Address to his Country. e following is the farewell address th to his country, written at Orsova: rewell, my beloved country! Farewell, of the Magyar! Farewell, thou land of w! I shall never more behold the sumf thy mountains. I shall never again the name of my country to that cherish. il where I drank from my mother's bothe milks of justice and liberty. Paroh! pardon him who is henceforth conted to wander far from thee, because he atted for thy happiness. Pardon one whelmed with anguish. Thy plains are weeks and smoke with wood. red with blood, the redness of which ss destruction will change to black, the em of mourning for the victories thy have gained over the sacrilegious eneof thy sacred soil.

ie ingrate whom thou hadst fattened thy abundance he rose against thee; se against thee, the traiter to his mothnd destroyed thee utterly. Thou has en-I all; thou hast not cursed thine exisfor in thy bosom, and far above all w, hope has built her nest. gyars! turn not aside your looks from for at this moment mine eyes flow with for you, for the soil on which my totig steps still wander is named Hungary.

My country, it is not the iron of the stranger that hath dug thy grave; it is not the hunder of fourteen nations, all arrayed gainst thee, that hath destroyed thee; and t is not the fifteenth nation, traversing the Carpathians, that has forced thee to drop thy arms, No! Thou hast been betrayed; thou hast been sold, my country; thy death-sentence hath been written, beloved of my heart, by him whose virtue, whose love for thee I of my boldest thoughts, I should have almost as soon doubted of the existence of the Omnipotent as have believed that he could ever be a traitor to his country. Thou hast been betrayed by him in whose hands I had but a little space before deposited the power of our great country, which he swore to defend, even to the last drop of his heart's blood .-He hath done treasen to his mother; for the glitter of gold hath been for him more seductive than that of the blood shed to save his country. Base gain had more value in his eyes than his country, and his God has abandoned him, as he had abandoned his God for his allies of hell.

Magyars! Beloved companions, blame m and for having given to him my place. It BRILL, to Miss HARRIET SCHMIDT, both of was necessary, for the people had bestowed Union county. on him their confidence; the army loved him, and he obtained a power of which enyself would have been proud. And, never-theless, this man has belied the confidence of the nation, and has repaid the love of the army with hatred. Curse him, people of the Magyars! Curse the breast which did not first dry up before it gave him its milk! 1 idolize thee, O thou most faithful of the nations of Europe, as I idolize the liberty for which thou hast proudly and bravely combatted. The God of liberty will never efface thee from his memory. Mayest thou be forever blest!

A LADY COWHIDER .- The wife of Hon. Lewis C. Levin, number of Cengress from the second Congressional district of Pennsylwanis, has just been tried in Baltimore, charged with assault and battery, on the person of a young merchant, of that city, named Fite. It appears that Mr. Fite wanted to marry the daughter of Mrs. Levin, by a former husband, but it was opposed by Mrs. L. A short time since, Fite was riding in a buggy, on the public road leading to the city, and overtook the carriage of Mrs. L. Thinking that the young lady might be inside, he drove up by the side of it and looked in, but finding that she was not there, held up, and the carriage passed on. Mrs. L., however, took this as an insult, and ordered the footman to seize Mr. Fite, and he held him while she cowhided him. The assault was fully proved. John Van Buren, in his late able speech in Boston while alluding to Gen. Taylor's Whiggary, said he was a much better Whig than Gen. Taylor, as he had once voted for a Whig for Surrogate in his county, when there was ne Democratic candidate in the field, where as the General had never voted at all, even for a Whig!

Written for the American By Louis LE'Roy.

In after life when cares arise, And tro ble reigns supreme;
The thoughts of school-days shall arise

The friends I loved shall therein sour. And hold a blazing place, That ne'er did shine so hright before. 'Twas lightened by their face.

My teacher too in his arm chair, Shall sit with anxious mien; And gaze around with watchful care, And smile upon the scene,

That aching void shall then be full, A happy heart I'll own; My cares and troubles off I'll throw, And seek the pard'ning throne. Williamsport, Dec, 1849.

CASS AND WEBSTER.

Daniel Webster, in his speech at the New Hampshire festival, bore the following testimony to the merits of Gen. Cass. It is as honorable to Mr. Webster as it is to Gen.

Mr. Webster rose and stated that "circumstances" had prevented the attendance there of Hon Lewis Cass, but he should read a letter from him. At the mention of the word "circumstance," the recollection of the recurrence of the word in another letter came to the audience, and a roar of laughter shook the hall. When silence was restored, Mr. Webster read the letter of Gen. Cass. adding a few remarks, in which he made honorable mention of that gentleman's talents and services, and spoke very feelingly of his own personal knowledge of him when they were boys together at the Academy in Exeter, of which the venerable Dr. Abbot, now no more, was the principal. He said he had through life entertained for Mr. Cass none FERS. Two of them are red and white spotted.

Several years since I was attacked with a breaking out on my neck in the form of Tester, which I am convinced was contracted at the Barber's Shop. It grandonly extended over my face until it reached the upper part of the cheeks. During the several months that it continued spreading, I used different applications, some of which had the effect, apprently at least, of increasing the disease, but from none of them did I perceive the least benefit until applied the Rose Oixtmext. By the use of one jar of it, I was perfectly cured and have remained free of the affection.

I have since used the Ointment, lightly applied for roughness of the face, blotches, chapped hands, &c. With perfect success. I have no healtation in recommending it in the atrongest manner to the public.

OLD DOCTOR JACOB TOWNSEND, THE ORIGINAL DISCOVERER OF THE

Genuine Townsend Sarsuparina! OhD Dr. Townsend is now about 70 years of age, and has bug been known us the author and discoverer of the Geneine Original "Townsend Sarsuparilla"! Heing poor, he was compelled to famil its Tunimature, by which means it has been kept out of market, and the mice circumserised to those only who have proved its worth and known its value. It had reached the ears of many, nevertheless, as those persons who had been healed and incases, and saved from death, proclaimed its excellence and wonderful HEALING POWER. Knowing, many years ago, that he had, by his skill, sei-mee, and experienced, decised in article, which would be of menicipate advantage to mankind, when once known

This is so prepared, that all the most properties of the Sarsparilla root are first removed every thing capable of becoming neid or of fermentiation, is extracted and rejected; then every particle of medical virtue is secured in a pure and concentrated form; and thus it is rendered inca public of losing may of its valuable and healing properties.

Prepared in this way, it is made the most powerful agent in the

CURE OF INNUMERABLE DISEASES. CURE OF INNUMERABLE DISEASES.

Hence the transin why we hear commendations on every side in its favor by men, we men, and children. We find it doing wonders in the cate of Consumption, Dyspepsis, and Liver Complaint, and in Rheumatism, Scrotials, Piles, C. salveness, all Cutaneous Eruptions, Pumples, Biotches, and all affections riving from BPU RITY OF THE BLOOD. NERVOUS DISEASES AND DEBILITY.

And thus prevents or relieves a great variety of other mahalies, as Seimal Irritation, Neuraigia, St. Vims Dance, Sweeding, Epitectic Pits, Convulsions, &c.

And yot he would find have it understood that Old Dr. Jacob Townsend's Gentuine Original Sormaparilla, is an IMITATION of his interior preparation?

Heaven forbid that we should deal in an orticle which would hear the most distant resemblance to S. P. Townsend's article? and which would bring down upon the Old Dr. such a memtain load of complaints and criminations from Agents who have so'd, and purchasers who have used; S. P. Townsend's Fermenting Compound. We wish it understood, became it is the absolute truth, that S. P. Townsend's article and Old Dr. Juch Townsend's Sarsaparilla are heaven-wate apart and infinitely dissimilar; that they are unlike in every particular, having not one single thing in common.

As S. P. Townsond is no dector, and never was, is no ASS. P. Townsend is no declar, and never was, is no chemist, no pharmacentist—knows no more of mechanics or disease than my other common, unscientific, unprobessional man, what guarantee can the public have that they are toccaving a genuine scientific medicine, containing all the virtues used in preparing it, and which are inequalite of changes which hight render then the agents of disease ininstend of health?

But what else should be expected from one who knows nothing commerciavels of methanic or disease.

And thus to have the unpurchaseable satisfaction of having mised thousands and millions from the hold of sickness and desp misency to hope, health, and a long life of vigor and merchanics to themselves, their families and friends.
