SELECT POETRY.

EARLY WOOD AND WOOD. BY MRS. ARBY. Of sigh not for the fair young bride, To glad another bride was;

A Select Tale.

THE WILKINSON'S BLUFFS.

A TALE OF LOVE, MURDER AND SUICIDE.

The facts I am about to relate are not the less true, because they wear the air of romance and resemble many of the groundworks of the fictions which fanciful writers weave from their imaginations.

THE HERO OF ERIN'S ISLE.

A health to the Chief—the brave old Chief— Let us give him the welcome smile, Here's health and renown, and broad green To the Hero of Erin's Isle.

THE EMPLOYMENT OF WOMEN.

THE EMPLOYMENT OF WOMEN.—We sometimes busy ourselves in conjecturing the employment of our fair readers within doors.

THE POOR BOY IN LONDON.

Upon one of my visits to the various ragged schools in the metropolis, I became most interested in a boy of ten or eleven years of age, with frank, open countenance.

AFFECTING INSTANCE OF FILIAL AND MATERNAL LOVE.

A young man named Thompson, about twenty-five years of age, who had been in the penitentiary of this State, sentenced to imprisonment for life, was on Thursday pardoned by Governor Johnson with the consent of the Senate.

FAMILY GOVERNMENT.

By REV. RALPH W. ALLEN. On the correct formation of character, hangs all which is dear to the human race. It is true, that the teacher and example have much to do in its formation.

AFFECTING INCIDENT.

Yesterday morning we witnessed a scene that we little believed could be enacted within the borders of Kentucky.
