

Washington News.

(Correspondence of the Phila. Ledger.) FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, March, 17th 1850. We shall approach the settlement of the great question now before the country, a little nearer in the course of the ensuing week.

THE AMERICAN. SUNBURY. SATURDAY, MARCH 23, 1850.

H. B. MASSER, Editor and Proprietor.

TO ADVERTISERS.—The circulation of the Sunbury American during the different towns on the Susquehanna, is not exceeded if equalled by any paper published in Northern Pennsylvania.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Business Notices.

NOTES ON CALIFORNIA AND THE PACIFIC, is the title of a new work issued by Long & Bro., New York. It is written by one who has been there, and contains a number of incidents and descriptions of an interesting character. Price 25 cts.

THE MOTHER'S MAGAZINE.—The April number of this periodical is upon our table. The articles are nearly all original, and are well written. Price $1 per annum.

An apprentice to the Printing business wanted at this office. A good boy of about 14 or 15 years would find a good situation.

PRESS FOR SALE.—As we have enlarged our paper we offer for sale a good second handed Washington Iron Press, the same on which the American was formerly printed. The platen measures 21 by 30 inches full. It will be sold simply because we have no further use for it.

Illness among our hands prevents us giving the usual variety this week.

THE WEATHER during the past week has been cold and unpleasant. March has fully sustained its character thus far, whilst January and February were comparatively mild. Tuesday night was one of the coldest of the season.

The time for running the Packets has been altered. They leave Northumberland for the junction at 10 o'clock P. M., and for Williamsport at 3 o'clock A. M.

Hon. JOSEPH CASEY.—On our first page will be found some remarks of our member of Congress Mr. Casey, on a subject of interest to us all.

GEORGE A. SNYDER, Esq., of Selinsgrove is down upon Mr. Casey our member of Congress, in an article in the Union Times for his vote on Gidding's free soil resolution. Mr. Snyder is a free soil Whig. Mr. Casey voted to hang up the resolution.

PIGEONS.—During the past week, large quantities of pigeons were flying. Many have been taken by our farmers and others, fond of the sport. Live pigeons have been selling from 37 1/2 to 50 cents per dozen. Dead ones as low as 18 1/2 cents per dozen.

The Daily News, published by friend Sanderson, comes to us in a new dress, and is now about one of the handsomest papers published in Philadelphia, which was all that was wanting to make it one of the best.

APPOINTMENTS BY THE GOVERNOR.—George W. Harris of Dauphin County has been appointed State Reporter, to report the cases decided by the Supreme Court.

James Hadden of New Berlin, Associate Judge for Union county in place of John Montelius.

Another Union meeting was held in Philadelphia a few days since, which took grounds against the proceedings of the meeting of the 22d of February, at the same place, in regard to the slavery question. The last meeting is opposed to the further extension of slavery in territory now free.

Hon. John M. Reed addressed the meeting. His speech, it is said, was an able argument on the subject, showing the right of Congress to impose such restrictions. The Pennsylvanian, we observe, is finding fault with these proceedings, advocating, as usual, the Southern side of the question. Although, Pennsylvania may be willing to make almost any sacrifice for the sake of the Union, there can be no doubt, but that there is an almost perfect unanimity with the people, in favor of the restriction of slavery to its present limits, though they may be willing to waive it for the sake of peace and harmony.

COFFEE.—The high price of coffee has induced a number of substitutes that we see recommended in the papers, such as rye, beans, &c. There is, however, a substitute much cheaper and infinitely superior to any we see recommended, that is seldom noticed—we mean good cold water. Coffee we believe, has more to do in causing dyspepsia, than any thing taken into the stomach. The great rise in coffee is principally owing to the tyrannical conduct of his sable Majesty Faustin the 1st, the Emperor of Hayti.

The bill for the election of the Judges, passed the House on Friday last, only three members, viz: Judge Porter, Cornyn and David Evans, voting against it. To make it a part of the Constitution, now only requires the sanction of the people which it will receive at the next election. The next legislature will then provide for the election of the judges at the next ensuing election.

THE PITTSBURGH CHRONICLE says the girls wear so much scarlet this winter, that they seemed clad in blushes, like modest worth or a boiled lobster.

One we saw yesterday even went so far as to have vermilion slippers and red hair. No wonder the fire bells rang.

THE PUBLIC EXAMINATION.

The examination of the scholars of Mr. A. Christman's School took place on Thursday last, in the Lecture room of the German Reformed Church. We understand the scholars acquitted themselves with much credit. In the evening there was an exhibition according to the published programme of exercises, consisting of declamation, reading of compositions, &c., accompanied during the intervals with vocal music, at which we were present. The room, which was handsomely decorated by the ladies was crowded to excess, and the exercises seemed to give general satisfaction. The declamation of the boys, with a few exceptions, was too rapid and indistinct in enunciation, a fault we know, to be almost impossible to prevent in youth, who find it difficult to maintain their self possession. The composition of the young ladies was highly creditable, even beyond expectation. The young ladies of our Borough have always maintained a high character in this branch of education. The music was well executed and highly entertaining, as we had a right to expect from the performers, Messrs. H. D. Wharton, Jacob Youngman, Martin Luther Shindel, accompanied with the splendid deep toned bass voice of our young friend Dr. Charles S. Weiser. The concluding address of Mr. Christman, on the subject of Poetry as the handmaid of civilization, was a well written—well delivered and a highly entertaining effort.

THE CHAMPION OF "FREELAND."

A few weeks since we hastily threw together some remarks in relation to the proposed new county of Freeland, in a vein of pleasantry, comprehensible, we thought, to every mind of ordinary capacity. These remarks, however, have excited the ire of some Solomon, who gives vent to his indignation in the columns of the last Miltonian, in a strain of the "Bombastes Furioso" style, that is really shocking to a nervous temperament. We acquit the editor of any part or lot in the matter, and we are sure the senior editor, had he been at home, never would have enlivened his columns, with such a wonderful emanation of fancy, froth and fustian.

Have we, indeed "held up the private opinion of an old woman?" No, no! we have too great a regard for the sex, to dignify such an amaran in breeches, with the title of woman. Though we may strip him of this title, we are willing to let others judge of the applicability of one, suggested by the following couplet:

What tho' the generous cow give me no quaff The milk nutritious—am I then a calf?

We have too much respect for the intelligence and good sense of the members of the Bar in Milton, to suppose that any, except probably the smallest fractional portion of them, could endorse such a tissue of balderdash and nonsense. And we know they would regret, if they were even suspected of such an absurdity. But of this there is no danger, for the paternity of the article is made as obvious, by certain characteristic features, as if the writer had placed his imprint A.S.S. at the bottom.

We need not say, that for the members of the profession in Milton, and for the citizens of the upper end generally, we have always entertained the best feelings. For this among other reasons, we should very much regret to be separated from them.

HARRISBURG & SUNBURY RAIL ROAD. We see that considerable opposition is made to the passage of the supplement to this act, by the Philadelphia interests, on account of a clause which permits the company to connect the road with any railroad now constructed or to be constructed, through Perry or Cumberland counties. This they allege, is but a trick or fraud, to make a connection between the York and Cumberland road and the Pennsylvania rail road, for the benefit of Baltimore, which is 26 miles nearer than Philadelphia.

When this same argument was used to persuade the Philadelphians to make the Sunbury and Erie Road, it was not heeded, and now forsooth, they are opposed to any improvement in that direction, for fear Baltimore will overreach them. Since the above was written, we received the following letter from a correspondent at Harrisburg, with the gratifying intelligence of the passage of the bill in the House.

The bill was so amended as to confine them to the county of Dauphin, and to cross the Susquehanna river above the junction with the Juniata.

HARRISBURG, March 20, 1850. H. B. Masser, Esq. The supplement to the Harrisburg and Sunbury Railroad Charter was taken up yesterday and although considerable opposition was manifested, passed first reading.

It was again taken up this morning, and on motion of the Representative from your county (Mr. Packer) passed second and third readings. It will now go to the Senate and will, I think, pass that body as soon as it can be taken up.

Yours, &c., E. Y. B.

THE FORBES DIVORCE CASE.—The New York Mirror alluding to the fact that the Senate reported a bill in this case, says that "judging of the character of that body from their conduct on similar occasions, they would not be surprised that the report would be adopted." Our legislature, we confess, has become somewhat notorious for its liberality in granting divorces, especially to pretty and interesting women.

SENATORIAL FISTICUFF.—Senator Borland of Arkansas, in an altercation in the street, at Washington, a few days since, struck Senator Foote of Mississippi in the face. Senator Borland has since apologized and the matter is made up.

Hon. Chas. A. Barnitz, died at York in this State on the 8th inst., in his 62d year.

BALTIMORE CONFERENCE M. E. CHURCH.

The Baltimore Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, met in Alexandria last week. From the list of the appointments for the year we take the following: Mr. James Ewing, who has been located at this place for the past two years, has been transferred to the Lewistown District.

NORTHUMBERLAND DISTRICT.—J. A. Gere, P. E.—Sunbury, John Sine, Wm. Gwynn; Northumberland, S. L. M. Conser, Henry W. Bellman; Danville, Thomas Mitchell; Berkeley, Philip B. Reese, Benj. H. Hamlin; Luzerne, J. G. McKeehan, Albert Hartman; Boomingdale, J. W. Houghawout, T. M. Goodfellow; Bloomsburg, Jos. S. Lee, E. H. Warring; Lewisburg, John Guter; Milton, M. G. Hamilton; Milton, Ct. J. Moorhead; Lycoming, T. Tannyhill, J. A. Melick; Williamsport, H. G. Dill, A. M. Barnitz; Jersey Shore, Gideon H. Day, Thos. Barnhart; Pine Creek, to be supplied; Lock Haven, J. H. Torrence, A. T. Ewing, Dickinson Seminary—T. Bowman, Principal; C. Macley, Agent.

The Pittsburgh Mercury and its Harrisburg Correspondent, handles Jesse Miller of the Keystone with great severity. Jesse is determined to effect the nomination of a favorite for Canal Commissioner, and therefore launches forth his abuse against all who are likely to be in his way. Hence his abuse of Gen. Cameron, and other distinguished democrats. The Mercury, we presume, Jesse classes with ourselves, among the papers with "anti-democratic tendencies." The Mercury in regard to this matter says:

"But who is this Jesse Miller? Is he a man whose intelligence, or whose character should entitle his opinions to any extraordinary respect? We leave his past career, characterized, as it has been, by the meanest sycophancy, and the grossest inconsistencies, to answer these questions.

But he must be dictator! He must trample upon Democratic Conventions, put up his own nominees—and woe be to all those who do not obey that mandates of Jesse Miller! Jesse's candidate for Canal Commissioner is now Mr. Nimrod Strickland of Chester county. Jesse's candidate! and woe unto the Democrat who breathes a word against Jesse's candidate!"

THE ELECTRIC CHURN.—The editor of the Howard (Md.) Advocate, saw one of these operate, a short time ago, on a gallon of milk, fresh from the cow, and it produced butter in about 11 minutes.

Finding the above going the rounds of the papers, it may not be out of place to say, that we saw one of Francisco's Patent Atmospheric Churns in operation one day last week, about noon, on three quarts of milk, taken from the cow that morning, which produced butter in 2 1/2 minutes, and from cream in two minutes. The butter made from the new milk cannot be equalled by that made from cream, no matter how sweet or how well it is kept. Hence the superiority of the Goshen and Orange country butter, which is made from the milk, and which is often kept perfectly sweet a whole year.

The right for the manufacture and sale of these churns, in Northumberland and Columbia counties, has been purchased by P. B. Masser & Co., of this place.

GODEYS LADY'S BOOK for April has been received, which will interest you next.

(Correspondence of the Phila. Times) THINGS IN HARRISBURG. HARRISBURG, March 19th, 1850. A new interpretation of the resolution which recently passed both branches of the Legislature to the election of Judges by the people, has been given, in a written opinion of Walter Forward. The resolution declares, that not less than three months after its passage, the amendments embodied in it shall be submitted to the people. It is the opinion, so I am informed, of Mr. Forward, the intention of the framers of the Constitution was, for any amendment to be voted for at a special election, as the people could then vote without any bias. In view of this, a bill will be introduced, providing for the special election to come off some time in July, which, if passed, will give the people an opportunity of voting for their Judges at the October election. It is to be hoped no impediments will be thrown in the way of a consummation so devoutly to be wished for.

DEATH IN A COAL MINE.—To get breathing air in a coal mine, narrow subterranean openings must be driven up to the surface here and there. Some men engaged in such a job at Bowman's mine on Silver Creek, came unexpectedly to the surface sail which caving in upon them, cast them headlong over a hundred feet to the gangway below. They were taken up awfully crushed and dead.

SOME OF THE SALT manufactured in New York and Kentucky is said to be totally unfit for packing provisions. A correspondent of the New York Journal of Commerce states that the injury done to provisions by its use is more than the whole value of the salt used.

THE BODY of a pedlar, named Victor, was found in a field near Uica, N. Y., last week, the head being almost cut off as by a blow from behind, and there being two large stabs in the body.

FROM THE POTTSVILLE Mining Register.

FROM CALIFORNIA. We give below extracts of a letter from Mr. E. M. HALL, of Sunbury, now in California to the editors of this paper. It will be read with interest not only by his immediate friends, but by those who are unacquainted with him:

AUBURN, CALIFORNIA, Forty miles north Sacramento City, January 20, 1850.

Since the commencement of the rainy season, we have been barely paying expenses, which is quite contrary to our expectations. We, however, work every favorable day.—Another great thing against us is, the scarcity of gold in this vicinity. We have all along been at work in the ravine which we started at, working out the sides, which pays not more than 4, 5 and 68 per day to a man.—As soon as the rains are over, I am going farther North to work in the dry diggings, and will remain there until the rivers are low enough to be worked.

The winters here I would prefer to our cold ones at home, if it were not for the frequent rains. When we have a clear day, it is delightful—neither too cold, nor too warm.

I am far from believing this country to be as unhealthy as it is represented. It is true we hear of a great many deaths; but this is in a majority of cases, brought about by exposure that few in the "Old Thirteen" could undergo. The little sickness I have experienced since here, was produced by exposure that would have laid me up for months at home.

Sacramento city has turned out, as many persons predicted—a miserable location for a town. Being very low, the greater part of the city is overflowed whenever we are visited with a heavy rain.

There was a ball at Sutters Fort last week. Quite a large and respectable company were present to engage in the merry dance. Although we cannot number, in proportion to the population, as many of the fair sex as you; still there are some here, and I can assure you, they are good specimens of the sex. In fact, they are perfect heroines; and, in coming to this distant land, to share the fate of the sterner sex, in a lottery more hazardous than those which infest your cities, they have exhibited a spirit of devotion and disinterestedness that deserves the highest commendation. Those at the ball were not only handsome, but some of them were very intelligent. I never saw a company of persons enjoy themselves more, although many of them had met with nothing but misfortune since their entrance in this land of "golden dreams." This reunion had a very happy effect on all present. The unfortunate returned to their arduous labors with renewed energy and spirit, hoping, with the smile of fortune, to be soon able to commingle with their friends at home in the same happy manner as they did at the Fort.

But few letters and papers reach me from home. The Post Office at San Francisco is in a very confused condition. Many of the letters are never delivered; and when we do get them, they cost us a sum that would not be considered for postage with you. From San Francisco to this place, the carriage of a letter is $2.00—to San Francisco $1.00. The express rider was drowned on his way to this place, and all the papers he had with him were lost, among which were, I suppose, my anxiously looked for letters.

The Indians are still stealing cattle, &c. from the Americans, both North and about these diggings. Some 20 miles North of this the Americans burnt their village, and killed several of them for it. They, as is natural, retaliate, and there is now a married man, with a large family, missing.

Deer have been very plenty about here, until the present month. Grizzly Bears are in rather too great numbers for comfort. A number of them, with their cubs, have been killed in this neighborhood. The Wolf, or Coyote, are around us as thick as bees. They are a pretty animal—about as large as a common sized dog, and perfectly harmless. I like to hear them howl at night. They do it to perfection.

Christmas I spent quite pleasantly with Messrs. Robin and Markley, of Westminsterland, Co. Pa. They treated me with a fine venison pie, done up in as good style as you will get in a more refined county than this.

The merchant in Auburn—and a host of them there are, too—are doing very little business this winter. Neither are the gamblers, making much head way just now. In the end however, they will be the most successful gold hunters.

Provisions still keep up to an enormous price. A short time since we bought a barrel of flour which cost $1.60. It has been as high, however, as $1.25 per pound by the barrel. Fortunately for us, if even the dust is scarce at the present time, we have on hand a good supply of provisions.

We were visited with snow the other day, which lasted but a few hours, the sun being too hot to leave it lay any time. Snow is seen distinctly all around us on the high mountains.

Yours truly, E. M. HALL.

CHEMICAL AFFINITY.—This law in Chemistry is remarkably illustrated in the equilibrium between the supply and waste in diseased animal matter through the agency of G. W. Merchant's Celebrated Gargling Oil. It is well known that chemical action takes place only under certain circumstances; that some bodies have no tendency to unite with others. The former are said to have no affinity for each other, their mixture is merely mechanical, and no change takes place. The latter class of bodies, in which is included the Gargling Oil in its application to morbid animal matter, act by their affinity for each other, their action being productive of chemical phenomena, and the properties of one or both are altered. Hence the strong affinity of the constituents of the Gargling Oil to unite with the elements of the morbid matter, may be referred to the beneficial influence exerted over so great a variety of diseases, most of which were considered as incurable.
