It is impossible that each member should examine the merits of every claim on which he is compelled to vote : and it is preposterous to ask a judge to decide a case which he has never heard. Such decisions may, and frequently must, do injustice either to the claimant or the Government, and I perceive no better remedy for this growing evil than the establishment of some tribunal to adjudicate upon such claims. I beg, leave, therefore, most respectfully, to recommend that provision be made by law for the appointment of a commission to settle all private claims against the United States; and, as an exparte hearing must in all contested cases be very unsatisfactory, I also recommend the appointment of a Solicitor, whose duty it shall be to represent the Covernment before such to represent the Government before such commission, and protect it against all ille-ality. I not only promoted to ecclesiastical system of the Roman Catholics their origin to hard labor in early life seen. It is impossible to confound the recent measures of the Pope with the division of Scotland into dioceses by the Episcopal GRATIS, of the Agent. There is an assumption of power in all the documents which have come from Rome-a pretention to supremacy over the realm of England, and a claim to sole and undivided sway, which is inconsistent with the Queen's supremacy, with the rights of our bishop and clergy, and with the spiritual independence Catholic times. I confess, however, that my alarm is not equal to my indignation.
