

THE AMERICAN is published every Saturday at TWO DOLLARS per annum to be paid half yearly in advance. No paper discontinued until ALL arrearages are paid. All communications or letters on business relating to the office, to insure attention, must be POST PAID. TO CLUBS. Whree copies to one address, Seven Do Do 1000 Fifteen Do Do 2000 Five dollars in advance will pay for three year's subeription to the American One Source of 16 lines, 3 times, Every subsequent insertion One Square, 3 months, Six months, One year, Business Cards of Five lines, per annum, Marchants and others, advertising by the year, with the privileget of inserting By none but those bright ones who kneel different advertisements weekly. H. B. MASSER, ATTORNEY AT LAW, SUNBURY, PA. Business attended to in the Counties of Norskumberland, Union, Lycoming and Columbia. Refer to: P. & A. Royoult, Lower & Barron. Philad. Somers & Snodgrass, Reynolds, McFarland & Co., Spering, Good & Co., NEW STORE AT HOLLOWING RUN.

Mt the Cross Roads, near J. D. Conrads, Lower Augusta.

J. R. KAUFFMAN TRESPECTFULLY informs his friends and he public generally, that he has just receiv--d and opened a new stock of goods, which he new offers for sale on the most reasonable terms. His stuck consists in part of

DRY GOODS.

SUCH AS Clothe, Cassimeres, Sattiaetts, Merians, Ne. Summer wear of all kinds-Muslins, Calicoer Ginghams, Checks, &c. ALSO:

As resportment of Hardware of all kinds, most generally in use. ALSO:

Groceries of all Kinds.

A. Sugar, Coffee, Tea, Molasses, Spirite, Sc. ALSO :-- Queensware and Crockery ware, a full assortment Ales-Silk Hate, Chip Hats, and Straw Hats.

ALSO :- An assortment of Liquors, viz : BRANDY, WINE, WHISKEY, &c. Besides a variety of other articles, most generally used and in want by farmers and other persons, all of which he will sell to purchasers at a suring of ten per cent. by calling on him. 3.61 kinds of produce taken in exchange for gends at the highest market price. Biollowing Run, April 26, 1851.--tf.

SPRING AND SUMMER CLOTHING.

EVERYBODY should embrace this opportumay to buy CLOTHING for Men, Youth and Boys, at such prices us have never yet been known in this City, at GEORGE CULIN'S CLOTHING ESTABLISHMENT, South-East Was now on earth, and most forlora Corner of Market and Second Streets, Philadelphis, embracing a choice of the best, most desira-

SELECT POETRY. From the Louisville Journal. THE ERRING ANGEL.

Twas long before this world of ours By human footsteps had been trod, That Zara came to Eden's bowers, Fresh from the presence of her God. And while her radiant wings were yet Unfurled and trembling in the air, She seemed so changed as to forget Her Heaven and all the bright thing there ; Not that her heart had ceased to feel That glow of rapture which is known Around God's ever-during throne. But gazing on that lovely spot, No wonder that her soul forgot The fair and happy realm which lies

Far, far beyond the starry skies. And there in that enchanting place, She loitered long and wondered why It was not peopled with a race Of beings from her native sky.

And oft she wished and sighed to dwell Herself within a world so fair, With some one who could love her well, And deem it Heaven to linger there-With some one on whose willing arm She might recline without a tear, And know his heart was beating warm

With the divinest love for her. How sweet," said she, "how sweet

'twould be To linger here amid these bowers, Where every bush and every tree Is fragrant with its sunny flowers How eweet with him whom I could love, To kneel upon this grassy sod, And having turned our eyes above, Pour out his send in prayer to God : Indeed it would be more like bliss To live thus in a world like this.

And in her eye the trembling light, Of her pure spirit softly shone, And her sweet face, before so bright, A more angelic smile put on, But, gazing up into the air, She saw a lone star twinkling there, And knowing that the bright orb shone On none but those who'd strayed so far From God, and his eternal throne, She blessed the glory-beaming star ; And kneeling on the green earth there, Lifted her trembling hands to Heaven,

And offered up a fervent prayer, That her crushed heart might be given. And, ore the angel ceased to speak,

The tear which had suffosed her check Fell to the earth and stilled the pain Which had seized on her throbbing brain, Poor Zara ! She was far away.

From all that bright and joyons throng, Whose lips are breathing day by day An endloss round of prayer, and song-Yes, she who had been first each morn To wake the harp around the throne, Of all God's angels and alone. But he who saw his erring child The moment she had learned to err Behold her now repent and smiled-That smile a pardon was to her, And looking upward through her tears Which now were flowing faster still, She said : God, then hast stilled my fears, I'll go to thee, I will, I will.<sup>23</sup> And bidding earth a long farewell, She breathed and did not breathe in vain, The daleet words whose mystic spell his commission, on its departure for Africa, cessaries-that the poetry, with its music long one, and many people looked at it, and he was full of hopes for himself and and perfume; the one gave the knowledge promise for his triends. Poor Adolphe of his true position, the actual fact of what night from out the cemetery of Pere la had just got the place of trombone player in Franconi's orchestra, which might lead castle, the vision of what he would be. In the notes of music, long-drawn, sweet, subto something better, but his brightest hopes the one he was the poor trombone-player dued. A priest coming from administering rested on the ultimate success of a march of the Cirque Olympique, in the other the the last rites of the church to a dying man, he had composed, and, in honor of his celebrated composer of 'The Spahis March.' friend's regiment, named "The Spahis' It was the contrast of present and future, March ;" this, he doubted not, would, of poverty and glory. Happy Adolphe ! through Auguste's patronage, realize all the he lived by faith ; and Eulalie ! she lookvisions men indulge in at twenty. And ed at her rose-bush, shook her head, stifled now Auguste rose to depart; this night's a sigh, and made a very good copy of a leave-taking could not be like the usual "a yellow rose-bud, with silk, muslin, and ade; but over the grave of broken friend- by Bavaria and Saxony, and Russia in par leace prevailed; the Virgin Mary was put demain" of the three friends; and young Dumont, who shared with his countrymen of them very well the following day.

a taste for theatrical effect as well as much | The campaign ended, Auguste's regisentiment, rose, took Eulalie's hand in one ment remained at Marseilles, causing Adolof his, and Adolphe's in the other, then phe to believe and declare that had he reholding them both together in his left, turned to Paris, he would have entered to raised the right, in the attitude of oath- the strains of the Spahis' March. Another taking, "Adolphe and Eulalie," said he, campaign began and ended, and Auguste fore, they did right. It was the record of "brother and sister Dupre, on the eve of returned with the title of colonel, and a promise faithfully made and faithfully commencing a career of danger and glory, hear my resolution : though ye share not my danger, ye shall share my glory ; let the battle be mine, the victory yours.— You, Adolphe shall claim my promise in the success of your march, which I will the success of your march which I will the your which I will the success of your march which I will the your which I which render celebrated ; and you, Eulalie-here | self. Crowds assembled to witness the enhe dropped his voice to a low, tender tone, as he plucked a bud from the rose already mentioned, and placed it in her bosom— from you shall I claim again this rose-bud, and with it another promise. And now for many loss of the same singularly striking and attractive.— Adolphe and Eulalie stood on the same farewell both, and when you hear of my spot, outside the barrier, where they had fame, remember you share it." witnessed its departure ; and Auguste, old-"And we, on our part," said Adolphe er, browner, more worn, more militaryspeaking for his sister, promise that my at once the worse, and the better for wear march, and her rose-bush, shall alone be -rode past them without recognition.-yours ; it is all we have to promise or to The band of his regiment played somegive." Auguste embraced them both, and thing; Adolphe listened with ears and hurried away. The next morning the heart-it was not the Spahis' March.

brother and sister stood outside the barrier When Auguste was made colonel, Adolthrough which passed the regiment of Spa-his, the sun shining on the handsome person and brilliant uniform of Auguste Du-mont, as, full of hope, happiness, and vani-higher rank and better wages than his ty, he rode past, nodding a recognition to trombone had done; and he was seated in them-if they saw it through their tears. his usual place in the orchestra the night

Adolphe went back to his trombone- of the grand performance in honor of Auplaying, Eulalie to her flower making, and guste's regiment. The musicians had both to think of Auguste, the former doubt- turned their instruments, and all were ready ing less than ever of his brilliant friend's to begin when the Spahi officers in full will and power to perform his promises; uniform entered their opera boxes. Adolthe latter, with a more correct instinct, phe looked up and recognized distinctly feeling a strong misgiving that the dazzling the handsome figure of his ex friend, though career now stretching before him would his hair was so short, his mustaches so not allow him to think of his poor early large, and his tace so thin, to say nothing which was to be cured by physic. Accordfriends in the Quartier Latin. "He'll soon forget us," sighed she, as of the loss of his arm. In honor of their presence, the house stood up, smiled, and she looked at the faded rose-bud, though waved handkerchiefs-whilst the orches- needful, took thubarb for crossness. No she did not try to infect the hopeful spirit | tra played the regiment march, a wild and of Adolphe with her doubts, as he preluded spirited Moorish air. Adolphe's cornet-athe notes of the Spahis' March on his in-separable cornet-a-piston, and spoke of his heart sank, for other notes rang in his Auguste's and their glorious future. She | ears-the notes of his own Spahis' March.

A spirit of just and most commendable tolthough his widow shed no tear. At midpaused, crossed himself, then hastened on -there was something so strange and plaintive in the sound and the tune.

It had sounded no triumph on the conquest of a city ; it had rung to no victorious entry ; it had breathed no gentle serenthe Spahis' March ! On the following day, several persons walking in the cemetery saw at the head of a newly made grave a yellow rose plant of a peculiar shade. If they connected this circumstance with the sounds heard the night be-

GREAT YIELD OF THE CARSON'S CREEK to increase the tide of emigration now so each end of the street, and the cross streets. Within the fence was displayed all the with Major Austin, who reached the city on United States. Our readers have, doubtless, beauty of this ancient city. At the hour of Thursday night, from the Carson's Creek become accustomed by this time to the four in the afternoon, a toro was let loose, quartz mine, bringing with him two hundred frequent publication by the Autocret of all and put to flight by horsemen. This was and fifty pounds of gold. The specimens the Russias, of some ukase concerning the the famous sport every afternoon until the we have seen are astonishingly rich, being Jews of Russia and of Poland, setting forth following Sunday. We then had a respite almost solid lumps of gold, without more regulations and prohibitions affecting their until the last Sabbath, which was set apart than one per cent, of quartz. This mine is costumes, and even their beards ! "In for killing the Jews. This was accomplished situated on the crest of a mountain, 5000 civilized Europe," says the paper before by having a number of stuffed men preparfeet above the level of the Stanislaus, be- cited, "it is difficult to understand why the ed, with masks on, and the centre of their ween that river and the Carson's Creek. It Emperor of Russia should prescribe the bodies and head were filled with fire-crackhas proved, perhaps, the richest mine in the caftan and the cap ; for nobody ever thinks ers. These figures, suspended by their world. The head or gold bearing vein has of reproaching the English Quaker with necks high in the air, in the most public been traced about one hundred feet, ordina- their distinguishing costume. Did the Au- places, were set on fire, and when the exrily not thicker than a knife blade, but at tocrat, when he issued his destructive de- plosions took place, it called forth great ntervals expanding into pockets, one alone crees against long hair and military queues, shouts of applause. So much for the resurof which yielded $150,000. The company envy the title given to NaPOLEON by his rection.

have some seventy Sonotian miners at soldiers, of "The Little Busybody ?" On orchestra to that of the Italian opera, work. They are sinking seven shafts to the the other side, the Government of the Subvein, and when Major Austin left, all the lime Porte (the same journal seems to indications were that they were about to think) is animated by a spirit of noble tolercome upon another pocket .- San Francisco ation with the reference to the subject of Arriba county, a substance resembling soap.

country of Europe which profess to be A RECIPE FOR MOTHERS. - A sensible woman of the doctor's acquaintance, (the shame.

mother of a young family) entered so far The position now occupied by Great into his views upon the subject, that she taught her children from their earliest childhood to consider ill-humor as a disorder ingly, she had always small doses ready, and the little patients, whenever it was thought mons, as one of the members from the city punishment was required. Peevishness, ill-temper, and rhubard were associated in attracted no ordinary share of attention, both sus Office at Washington. their minds always as cause and effect .--in the Old World and the New, amongst those who are curious to know whether, in

HOLY WEEK IN VENEZUELA. It is as curious as it is instructive to see eration appears to be gradually gaining ground how different nations celebrate the same in different parts of Europe, as respects the event. The following account of Holy civil and religious liberty of the Jews. In week at Cumana, Venezuela, is from a corthe principal states of Germany, in Austria respondent of the Herald

Prossia, and Hanover, those who belong to "The semana souto has passed very geletly "the faith of Moses" are now almost en- and with the usual ceremonies. The erucitirely emancipated from ancient restric- fixtion was made to take place on Thursday, tions; and, judging from the tenor of recent instead of Friday, which, I believe, is gen accounts, their deportment is such as to erally conceded to be the day. The lying attest the propriety of such changes. But, in state of the body contined until 11 o'clock on the other hand, the policy still pursued on Saturday, during which time a dead siticular, indicates that the governments of into deep mourning, and even the bell was those countries continue to be influenced by silenced from giving the time of day. At the old leaven of bigotry and superstition. the hour of resurrection, the glad tidings Thus (as we gather from L Univers Israelite) were announced by the firing of cannon and Saxony is on the point of withdrawing from muskets, letting off sky-rockets, the beating some hundred of Jews the privileges gran- of drums, sounding of trompets, and every ted to them by the vote of the Legislature, other thing which could be converted into a and confirmed by the King ; while Bavaria noise, until Sanday night. On Easter Suncontinues its oppression of 60,000 of the day, the principal streets was fenced in, outsame faith, and thus indirectly contributes side of the side walks, also a fence across

NATURAL SOAP IN NEW MEXICO .- John Gorman, Assistant Marshal, who was engaged in taking the census of New Mexico, discovered in the Town of Bhimallo, in Rio Judaism, which might cause more than one It makes a lather like soap, and has the property of removing grease spots or stains "civilized" and Christian," to blush with out of any kind of cloth. When put in water it immediately slacks like line. At the place where the discovery was first made, Britain on this subject, is already known to it is with the surface, and about fifteen our readers. The bill introduced into Par- yards square. It is rotten on the top to liment, by Lord Jons Russen, having in about the depth of three feet, but appears contemplation the removal of 'Jewish cleaner and sounder at greater depths. It Disabilities," and the claim of BARON DE can be taken out in large lumps, of ten or Rornscilp, to a seat in the House of Com- fitteen pounds weight. It is as white as snow, and seems to exist in large quantities. of London, are matters which has already Specimens have been forwarded to the Cen-

STATISTICS OF MISSISSUPL .- The census of industy in the last year, $2,704,914 -

Cotton bales raised, 459.654. Bushels of Corn, 21,031,600 Schools, 931; teachers

1107 ; churches, 994. Paupers, 245 ; crimnals, 65. From the county of Yazoo no

The everlasting perseverance of the Yankee is admirably illustrated in a case that lately occurred at Lynn, nway down

East. A cote chap indentured himself to a boot maker for two weeks, to learn to fit boots. At the end of three days he bought

THE New York Legislature have before them a bill authorizing married women owning stock in the corporations of any charac.

ter, to vote in elections for trustees or directors, as the case may be. This is taking a

The following was posted on the door of the Ludlow Church, in Hersfordshire, England, some time back :- This is to give notice that no person is to be buried in this out his time, and set up for himsoff.

step in the woman's rights direction.

returns were received.

hle, mit tashionabl BRESS AND FROCK COATS.

Hahit Cloth do., Linen Drilling do., Tweeds, Are. Se., together with a great variety of Boys' Clothing, Consisting of Sack Coats, Polka Jac., 18, Monkey Jackets, Vests and Round Jackets made of Tweed, Linen Drilling, Cloth, Alpacea, Kersa-mier, Docskin, &c., &c. Particular care has been taken to procure the new styles for Men and Boys' Summer Coats, Pantaloons, Vests, &c., to which he would invite special attenti-

Furnishing Goods.

Consisting of Shirts, Stocks, Handkerchiefs, &c.; all of which are offered at the lowest Possible eash Prices, and as cheap as any other Clothing Store in the Union.

Parents who desire Boys' CLOTHING are carnestly invited to examine the Stock. Country Storekeepers can be accommodated at very low rates.

GEORGE CULIN. S. E. Corner of Second & Market Sts. Phila April 19, 1851 .--- ul.

TO ADVERTISERS.

You ere respectfully informed, that

C. PIERCE. General Advertising Newspaper Agent,

HAS THE AGENCY For all papers generally in the U. States. A DVERTISERS can always see their adver-tisements when published, as he wishes to keep a regular fils of all papers he advertises in. From his experience with Newspapers in advertising in city and country, advertisers would find it to their interest to consult with him upon the C. PIERCE.

Gen, Advertising Agt., Bulletin Building. Philadelphia, April 19, 1851 .-- 1v.

NATIONAL HOTEL, SHAMOKIN, Northumberland County, Pa.

THE subscriber respectfully informs his friends and the public generally, that he has open-ed a new Hotel in the town of Shamokin, Northumberland county, on the corner of Shamokin and Commerce streets, nearly opposite to the House he formerly kept. . He is well prepared to accommodate his guests, and is also provided with good stabling. He trusts his experience, and strict attention to business, will induce per-sons visiting the coal region to continue the liberal patronage he has heretofore received. WILLIAM WEAVER.

Shamokin, April 19, 1850 .--- tf.

JAMES II. MAGEE AS removed from his ob Vine street, to No. 52 Dillwyn St., (bet'n Cal'hill & Willow,) where he has constantly on hand, BROWN STOUT, PORTER, Ale and Cider,

FOR HOME CONSUMPTION OR SHIPPING.

N. B .- Coloring, Bottling, Wire and Bottles Vinegar, &c. For sale as above. Philadelphia, April 12, 1851.-1y.

Lycoming Mutual Insurance Company. DR. J. B. MASSER is the local agent for the above Insurance Company, in Northumber-land county, and is at all times ready to effect Insurances against fire on real or personal pro perty, or renewing policies for the same. Sunbury, April 26, 1851 .--- tf.

JUSTICES' FEE BILLS. For sale by H. B. MASSER

Should plame her wings for Heaven again : And whereupon that fatal ground

The tears of her repentance fell, A light of glory beams around And renders Eden hollowed ground.

A Select Cale.

THE SPAHIS' MARCH. FROM "HOWITT'S JOURNAL."

"BRAVISSIMO, maestro mio! A little go down before you as you do before me at this moment." With that the foot was and the successful musician, cornet-a-pisthat his quondum friend had many brilliant take ; Auguste had forgotten both his ton in hand, prostrated on the floor. "Sacre, Auguste, you should'nt," said and delightful associates in the army, who friends and promises. He lived in his used in grafting. A short time thereafter his hands and knees.

"Never mind, mon brave garcon ; for one knock down Pil give you such a help up that all Paris shall ring with your fame. The Spahis' March,' shall be our entrance into every town of conquered Algeria; it shall be our triumphal return to Paris; it shall make the house rise with the curtain at the 'Academie;' and (the door opened to admit a young girl carrying a yellow rose-plant of a peculiar shade) it shall be coftened into a serenade the day I claim a certain promise, Eulalie." The unoccupied hand was at the speaker's lips, and a bright blush was the only answer. The good fortune, foregoing scene took place in a small room, not quite a garret, in the Quartier Latin: the actors were two young ex-students of the Ecole Polytechnique, alike in age, but differing in every other particular; one rich, well-born, handsome, with all the good spirits good fortune gives ; the other poor, low-born, plain, and obliged to husband what spirits he possessed for the lifestruggle which lay before him. The third person who entered at the conclusion of the scene was the sister of the latter, a pretty young fleuriste of the Rue Vivienne, who had for some time attracted the attention, and gained the fancy, he called it the heart, of Auguste Dumont, her brother's very unequal companion. The two Dupres were orphans, bound together by more than the ordinary bond of affection, their lonely situation. Adolphe had been educated at the Polytechnique, where his talent for music had caused an intimacy, with Auguste, who loved it passionately; and the united attractions of Adolphe's cornet-a-piaton and Eulalie's bright eyes let him build his castles, and worked at The performance was over, and he retornher flowers. From time to time the usual ed to his little room his first faith shaken, reports, correct and incorrect, reached but not destroyed. "It is thus Auguste has fulfilled his pro-

them from the seat of the war. Auguste had written to them from Marseilles previ- mises! and yet, when he has time to think ous to his embarkation ; his letter was short of us? You see, Eulalie, he has been so and joyous , he promised to write again hurried, how could he ? we must wait." "We must," said Eulalie, and she said from Oran, but he did not. The campaign had begun in good earnest, so most nothing more. likely he could not. And now the cafes | They did wait, and wait patiently, till became filled with eager and interested one sunny morning, when bright Paris was groups, talking with true Parisian anima- looking its brightest, a marriage, first civil, and the names of Bugeaud, Cavaig- then sacramental, a double tie, knotted nac, Changarnier, and others, rang loudly doubly firm by mayor and priest, with all in the ears of Paris; caused her walls to the accompaniments of trousseau and setstrike out in great placards and affiches, tlements, cashmeres and diamonds, took and covered the saloons of the Luxembourg place ; and the parties were the most elewith Horace Vernet's pictures. The Jour- gant and best dowred demoiselle a marier nals and the Chambers talked of nothing in Paris, the daughter of the Viscount de but razzias and Kabyles, whilst the elegan- Belleville, and the distinguished young tes assumed coiffures a la Africaine; but colonel of Spahis-Auguste Dumont. A

all this was public and official, and said bouquet of beautiful yellow roses was nothing about Auguste. Private rumor, thrown into the bride's carriage as she left more than public report, spoke of him, and the church of the Madeleine, but it was while, and Halevy, Berlioz, and all must its tales to brother and sister Dupre were not of that peculiar shade ; a band screnavaried, and, to an indifferent hearer, might | ded the new married pair at their hotel, have been amosing : to each it had its dif- but it did not play the Spahis' March. At suddenly withdrawn from the chair-leg, ferent version of the subject, and something last Adolphe's eyes were opened, and he in common to both. To Adolphe it said saw the truth. There could be no mis-

the poor fellow, scrambling awkwardly on must necessarily supersede him; that his splendid hotel in the Rue Rivoli, as the cut off the peach stem underneath, and it prospects were splendid, and his promo- colonel Count Dumont; they in their will continue to grow out of the willow .on would be rapid-but he had never small house in the Quartier Latin, as the Winchester Republican been heard to mention the Spahis' March ; brother and sister Dupre. It is useless for all that, Adulphe played it on his cor- complaining of the injustice of either man net-a-piston. To Eulalie it said that her or tortune. Adolphe had never played quondam lover had arrived at Oran with a his march to any one but Evialie, though beautiful little Arlesenienne, who had fol- he fanced (it might be a composer's vani- the late act of Congress, will be laid by the lowed him disguised as a boy, and was ac- ty) that the Chef d Orchestra at the opera companying him through the campaign, would approve it. But it had been prom-though he made her sadly jealous with a ised, as it was dedicated to his early friend, native sultana. Eulalie sighed, and look- and no one else seemed to have any right ed at the yellow rose-bush. To both it to it. Eulalie felt the same towards her said that he was admired, envied, and dis- rose plaut; the flowers she had plucked inguished for his courage, talents, and from it were always admired, the buds she that an address on that occasion will be dehad made from it always sold. And she

"Auguste will not forget us," said Adol- might have sold the plant, no doubt ; but phe ; "wait till they take some fortress and it was promised to Auguste. They little when fanatics are threatening dismion, will then we shall hear of the Spahis' March." knew how soon they would fulfil their Klemsau was taken, and Paris rejoiced ; promises.

Auguste had especially distinguished him-The present and future of the count and self, was made captain on the spot, and counters Dumont had to be identical, but his regiment had entered the town in tri- their past had been very dissimilar; for whilst Auguste was making razzias and

"Now, Eulalie," exclaimed her happy other, "we shall hear of the Spahis' duetts and listening to Bellini's languishing duetts and listening to Bellini's languishing brother, "we shall hear of the Spahis' March."

They heard the particulars of the storm Ernestine was beautiful, Henri devoted, and the surrender, they heard of the braand life was a dream of delight to both .--very of the troops, the talent and courage But unfortunately they remembered their of their leaders; they heard of Auguste, dream when they ought to have forgotten his present honors and his future fame, but it ; as Auguste found out to his loss, when they heard nothing of the Spahis' March. nothing remained to him but to challenge "Perhaps the next town they take, Eu- the too fortunate beau cousin to a twelve alie, we shall hear; Auguste has not had paces' distance meeting in the Bois de Boulogne, where his usual good luck detime to think about it," said the simplehearted musician, and he played it as a solo serted him, and instead of avenging his in honor of his friend. Whilst Auguste was conquering, Adolphe was struggling. His little room in the Quartier Latin was as poor as ever. The table, the two chairs, it hat her husband was killed and her lover brought him to the small room in the the mattress he slept on, the trombone he escaped.

It was the time for Auguste to join the re- lalie's wellow rose, its only ornaments .- his was carried to his grave with full mili- ing for the keyhole to his trunk !" and the second states

THE Habit of prograstination is another nemy to improvement. In some men it negatives all their good. We may be sore this is a very bad and mischievous habit earnestly remonstrates against it. Many a fine young man falls into it, and wastes his ife and faculties intending to do what he nover finds an opportunity to do. This is melancholy and criminal too. The circumstances of the world and the will of Providence call upon all young men to be minute men, with their banner inscribed with the word

Southey's Literary Pastimes.

Herald, of 7th ult.

"Now."-New York Orean.

SINGULAR MODE OF GRAFTING -A friend from Massachusetts has communicated the following singular method of grafting the peach on the willow, and assures us that he has seen the experiment successfully tried Bend a willow shoot until the two ends take root and grow in the ground. Then bury a peach stone midway between, and when the young tree attains a height to intersect the willow above, cut a slit in the latter, pass the peach twig through it, and close up the opening with the preparation commonly from the Republic that the corner stone of the addition to the Capitol, authorized by President of the United States on the Fourth of July next, in the presence of such officers of the Government as may then be in Washington city, and of all citizens who may see fit to assemble to witness the ceremony, and livered by the Secretary of State. The enlargement of our National Capitol at a time afford a glowing theme for the oratory of DANIEL WEBSTER.

thus : Let the patient draw in a full breath and then begin to count as far as he can, strains at the opera with her cousin Henri, lungs. The number of seconds he can continue is then to be carefully noted. In confirmed consumption, the time does not exceed eight, and is often less than six seconds. In pleurisy and pneumonia, it ranges from nine to four seconds. But when the lungs are sound, the time will range as high as twenty and thirty seconds.

"DEAR SIR," lisped a great lady in a wat-ADVICE to young men-live temperately ered silk at the World's fair, "have the -go to church-attend to your affairs-love goodness to inform me if there are any noblemon in the United States 19 "Yes. ma'am," answered a full fed Jonathan, who was showing off the beauties of a cream

Quartier Latin oftener than to the gay played at Franconi's, were its only furni- In the prime of youth, health, glory, she so closely scanned the elephant with salons on the or posite bank of the Seine. ture; his beloved cornet-a-piston, and Eu- and prosperity, the young colonel of Spa- her opera glass, replied that she was "look-the course of time. Jews will not become statistics of Mississippi show the number of entitled to sit in the Parliment of Great dwellings to be 50.927; families, 50.884 .--Britain, just as their brethren now in the Free population, 296,008. Slaves, 302,178. French Chamber of Deputies and the Con- Deaths during the year, 8261. Farms, 36.from the fact that the Bible so often and so gress of the United States .-- N. Y. Courter. 322. Value of teal estates, $69,570.232. personal estate, $112,860,559; of products

Excelsior.

BY PROFESSOR SHORTFELLOW.

The shades of night were falling fast, When through our quiet city passed A lass, whose sommer costume nice Reminds me of the quaint device, Excelstor

Her brow was glad, her skirts beneath Unsolled by mud, hung scant and brief And with a joyful murmur rang The accents of her silver longue, Excelsion

"Try not the dress !" the old folks said, "The rabbles' scornful shout we dread The gutter's filth we can abide :' But firm that silver voice replied,

"Oh, stop !" the dry goods merchant said, "You'll save your dress and spoil our trade !"

A smile lurk'd in her bright blue eye, But still came back the firm reply,

Pretty and neat she went her way ; And to the sky, serene and fair, A gladsome shout did rend the air,

A SINGULAR INVENTION .- One of the most ngular mechanical inventions displayed at he Worlds Fair, is the model of a man by Count Danin. It represents the figure of a nan five feet high, in the proportion of the Apollo, and from that size the figure can be f Inerros acreased in all its compartments to six feet

THERE JULIAS -Julia Dean, Julia Turnright inches. It is intended to facilitate the all, and Julia Bennett, three actresses of dothing of an army and it is so ingenious note, have been engaged at Rico's Theatre, that the Emperor pardoned and recalled Count Danin, who is a Pole, on seeing this n Chicago.

result of many years' labor. The number VERMONT CENTRAL RAILBOAD .- Eatning of pieces composing the model is 7000.

station were put out; and the light shown from a small electrical machine illuminated

he entire station sufficiently for the transaction of the ordinary business. A similar experiment was tied at Manchester on Wed-

A BLOOMER pic-nic is to come off near Milford, Ohio, on the Fourth of July.

freezer, "and I'am one of them."

nesday ovening or May, 1851, $47,960 99; May, 1850, 17,945 90, Gain, $30,015 09-being more THE ELECTRIC LIGHT -On Tuesday night than 160 per cent, over last year.

the experiment of lighting the Lime street "Bob, did you know that my father got station of the London and Northwestern narried again last week." "No, Tom, I Railway by electric light was tried in the did not. Did he get an old woman ?" "No presence of some of the directors and Mr. Booth, the secretary. All the lights in the sir-ee ! He got a new one."

> SINCE TIME, says Goethe, is not a person we can overtake, when it is past, let us honor him with mirth and cheerfulness of heath while he is passing.

Sin EDWARD BUIWEA's much talked of day "Not so Bad as we Seem," is Not so, Good as we Expected .- Southern Press.

WHERE true fortitude dwells, loyalty sounty, friendship, and fidelity may bu

The loss of a friend is like that of a limb. ime may heal the auguish of the wound but the loss cannot be repaired.

A fool loseth his estate before he finds his

Appirton to THE CAPITOL .- We learn

THE LUNGS can be tested as to soundness,

A lady in a menagerie being asked why

Excelstor

Excelsior . Thus in the twilight cold and gray, churchyard but the living in the parish .---Excelsion Those who wish to be buried are desired to

