NEW SERIES VOL. 4, NO. 21

SUNBIRY, NORTHUMBERLAND COUNTY, FA., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1851.

OLD SERIES VOL. 12, NO. 5

TERMS OF THE AMERICAN. THE AMERICAN is published every Sounday at TWO DOR ARS por amount to be pool half year; to advance. No paper one attorned unit all arroanges are All communications or letters on business relating to the effice, to mean attention, must be POST PAID.

TO CLUBS. Three copies to one address, Sire Seven B- Bo 100 Farsen, Ds Bo 2006 Farsen, Ds Coverbast will pay for three year's sole script in to the American. Que Sugar of 16 times, 3 times, Cue square, Banontin, pear, carls of Pive lines, get souldu, Mechanic and others, alcordance be too year, with the partiers asserting a decrease and adventorable ways as per agreement.

15° longer Advertisements, as per agreement.

e. B. Icasser, ATTORNEY AT LAW. SUMBURY, PA. Musiness attended to in the Counties of Nor-Swamberland, Union, Lycoming and Columbia. tiefer tot P. & A. Royonda, Lower & Barron, Samers & Sundgrass. Reynolds, McFarland & Co., (Spering, Good & Co.,

SIRING AN SUMMER CLOTHING. Where the mother that here the mother than here than here the mother than here the mother than here than here the mother than here and Boys, at such prices as lave tower yet been known in this City, at GEORGE CULIN'S CLOTHING ESTABLISH MENT, South-East s orner of Market and Second Streets. Philadelg-his, embracing a choice of the hest, most desira-ble, and fashionable

Where the hidden wound is healed;
Where the hidden wound is healed;

DRESS AND FROUK COATS. Habit Class de., Lives Drilling do., Tweeds, dat, dec., negether with a great variety of Roys' Clothing, Consening of Sack Coats, Palks Jac., is, Mon-Ley Judgets, Vests and Hound Jackets made of I Where we find the jew of loving the part Diction, Cloth, Almeen, Kersa. As we never loved before; Tweed, Liven Dalling, Cloth, Alpacea, Bersamire. Bushing &c. &c. Particular cure has been taken to yearure the Forwarders for Mon and Boys' Summer Coots, Pantalmous, Vests, &c., to which he would invite Furnishing Goods, Canaliting of Shirts, Stocks, Handkerchie's Acat ell of which are offered at the lowest Possille ced Triers, and at cheap as my other that how Where carries in ren vales shall blossom, Parents who ded a Brigal Commun. now earnestly invited to examine the attack-

Country Biosekeepers can be accommodated at VEN LIN INCH GRORGE CULIN

S. P. Corner of Second by Market Sts Plate.

April 19, 1851 .-- 15 LIGHTNING RODS.

FIGURE subminiser has a naturated a LIGHT-NING BIMS on true Philosophical princirites, by which buildings supplied with them are rendered periodly seemes assisted destruction by red, as well as the preparation of the ground ted, is on an entirely man plant, unaling a more per-fect conductor than any heretological not. Measures have been taken to seeme Letters Patent for the improvement.

Persons decrease of securing their lives and "Yes." perfect and substantial manner, by applying el-ther personally as by letter, to the undersigned the scal ?" at the following prices: For 40 ft, with a good silver plated polar $10.00

For 40 ft, with gold placed point, place-12:30 And twenty cents for every relibitional foot over T. S. MACKEY. Milton, Sept. 6, 1551 .-- ly.

TO COUNTRY MERCHANTS.

20 per cent saxed. Country Merchants Baying BOOTS & SHOES can save 20 per cent by This age calling on

WM. I. MING. No. 46, N. 2nd St., (before Arch west side.). PERLAGRICATIONA.

TITLE can be found a large assurances of Alden's Conlensed Reports of Peans B UST Published, and for sale by the subscrier-the Second Volume of Alden's Conensed Pennsylvania Reports, containing the Dallas' Reports, 4 volumes, and all of Yester Reports, 4 volumes, besides the two first volumes gran to read, of Binney's Reports. The third volume is read, and will be put to press immediately.

H. B. MASSER, Agent.

Sunbury, Aug. 16, 1851 .--

NATIONAL HOTEL. SHAMOEIN, Northumberland County, Pa.

HE subscriber respectfully informs his friends and the public generally, that he has opened a new Hotel in the town of Shamokin, Northumberland county, on the corner of Shamokinand Commerce streets, nearly opposite to the House he formerly kept. He is well prepared to accommodate his guests, and is also provided with good stabling. He trusts his experience, and strict attention to business, will induce persons visiting the coal region to continue the liberal patronage he has beretotore received, WILLIAM WEAVER.

AS removed from his old Stand, No. 118 Vine street, to No. 52 Dillwyn St., (bet'n Cal'hill & Willow,) where he has constantly on hand, BROWN STOUT, POT PER, Ale and Cider.

FOR HOME CONSCRIPTION OR SHIPPING.

Philadelphia, April 12, 1851.-1y. above Insurance Company, in Northumberland county, and is at all times ready to effect Insurances against fire on tent or personal pro-

SLLECT POETRY.

THE MEETING-ILACE.

"The ransomed of the Lord shall return and come to Zion with songs and ever, same lesing joy upon their heads,"-Instan, XXXV, 10.

Wayn the faded flowers shall freshen, Frish in a ver more to fade ; Warre the shady sky shall brighten, Brighten never more to shade; Waste the sun-blaze never scorches, Where the star-brams cross to chill, Waste no tempest stars the cchois

Of the wood, the wave, the hill; Where the more shall wake in gladaces, And the norm the joy prolong; Where the day-light dies in fragrance

Mid he birst of hely song; Bother we shall meet and rest 'Mid the hely and the blest. Where no shadow shall bewilder; Where life's van parade is n'er;

Where the sleep of sin is broken.

And the dreamer drespos no more; Where the found is never severed, Posti us, claspings, sob and moan, Metright waking t twinght weeping ; Heavy nomited swall are done Where the child has found its mother,

Where the mother finds her child; That were scattered on the wild; Bothers, we shall meet and rest

Mil the holy and the blest. Where the smitten heart the ireshuesa Of its buoyant youth resomes ; Where the love, that here we levish

On the withering boves of time; Shall have ladeless flowers to fix on, Loving on, mechilled, untiledered,

Laying once and evermore ; Brother we shall meet and rest ²Mid the boly and the blest Where a blasted world shall brighten Undern what biner sphere, And a suffer, gradle simshine Sized its hearing splender here: Parang on their robe of green, A of a poter, lairer Eten. It where only wastes have been :

had assume the cultivous seepire Count and wear the holy crown. Brothers, we shall meet and rest "Mid the holy and the blest,

Where a King to kingly glory, Such as earth has never known.

A Sketch.

From the Boson Museum. THE TWO TRAVELLERS.

"Beg pardon, sir-does this carpet-bag I below to you?

Persons destroins of second the road her ment he had approached the confines of manifested by the fathers and sons, the conductors not up to their buildings in the most to my moving it, to make more room on tween Constantinople and Sweden long dream-land, he was aroused by the applicawhere it is ?" WY cs.2

thrust and party was a very large corperation of a dense piece of words, they bug, placed upon a seat between two trailing borders of a dense piece of words, they bear a crash, felt a sudden jur, and became of may have breathed hard, sir; but if you wake me again I shall blick you out of you wake me again I shall blick you out of pened to the coach.

The proprietor of the carpet-bag, who can tall, pened to the coach. outlandish moustache, and a black eye, with the moustache.

with a rather savage expression. young man, with a clean-shaved counter many to tell you that I have not against a nance, and a mild eye, and a fine intellect- raisally stump, and broke an existre 22

the above named actions, just received. The latter individual was apparently, we do to demanded the ill-matured travels at the above named actions, just received. much discommedeat by the presence of the lere the carpotaling; but the brief answers of his . "There is a house close byfollow-traveller, and his forbidding "mind.

of the car window being closed, it was too late to go into Sweden. Now, if too soon too dark for the traveller to see the can get any sort of a conveyance of the print. So he said politely to his ill-nature man in the cottage over here, well and ed companion-blind. It is growing quite dark. The owner of the carpet-bag scowled the blind with a crash. "Thank you, sir."

his eye over the columns of the newspaper. It was a small cottage, of humble pres count." At length the latter said-

"Perhaps you would like to look at the

The proprietor of the carpet-bag bowed fered article without a word.

Three minutes after, the cars stopped. "Constantinople," cried the conductor, blameable for his individual misfortunes. The owner of the carpet-bag started to his feet, passed the newspaper to his companion, in a rather abropt manner, and laid violent hands upon his property. A crowd of travellers rushed out of the car, our two friends among them. "Fellow!" suddenly cried the man with the carpet-bag.

was the handsome young man of the mild in the house," ye and smooth countenance.

"I beg your pardon," said the latter.-"I was pushed by the crowd."

But during this consultation all the other that I neither kick nor sucre." evening; and the stage for Sweeder Cor- other traveller, ners was loaded with passengers ready for "Very well," rejoined his companion a start. Our two travellers ran forward with a quiet smile, "olf you prefer to do together to obtain seats. "All full inside," cried the driver .- shall go to bed, Mr. Parmer," "Room for one up here."

"I am your man!" cried he of the mouse travellers to the room, precedence," replied his companion.

both got seets.15 "If you had been satisfied with a proper with the rest of them." "Settle it between you; and be quick," cried the driver.

"It is of the atmost importance that I should have the seat," exclaimed he of the moustache.

"For my part I must go to Sweden Cor- and composed timself to sleep. ners to-night," cried the other. The two gentleman were getting into a very respectable quarrel, like the two cats of say Mr. What's your-name," be selded, we have quoted goes on to say :in the fable, when a wise monkey of a tra- wis not that a remarkably broad bed ?" veller stepped forward and settled the matter by occupying the disputed sout himself. The stage drove off, leaving the two travellers looking very blank, and very angry. man in the bid. "we have mobody to blame but ourselves, chair, appeared very dreary, compared for this disappointment. Let us make the with the luxury of sheets and feathers, "I for the suffecting which his wife had unders. Reiterated should be Reiterated should be recommended. hest of it. As I must go to Sweden Cor- don't know-under the circumstances-a ners to-night, and as there is not another man must sleep-rascally house with only stage, I shall engage a private conveyance." one spare room-villain of a driver."

the same vehicle I''

we will be company for each other." way of cult He of the monstacks smooth, as if in quantance.

panion's remark; then looked thoughtful, the other. as if the first was worthy of consideration. "Very good," said he; "we will engage a carriage together." treshment stand, then having engaged a panion evidently intended to put amend to which the British Consul, at Belgrade, and dulat see any lake in the matter. Constantinople back, they had their bag- conversation for the night

"Yes."
"Hem !—then you wish it to remain the name attempted to enter into some con"Did you intend to wake me, sir !" however, felt altegether too ill-halfored to Yau were moring," The subject of the above colloquial permit of the least sociability. So they "You must be mistaken, sir; I never threat and party was a very large carpet. Talle in very dismal allence, until, on the party."

"I think we have broke down," said the watch on the present occasion, flashed mild gentleman, looking out. The other traveller was a handsome "Gentlemen," cried the driver, of am •Burn the house !? your lasmies," scowl, had the effect of press "And perhaps you can get accommodaventing further conversation on the subject tions there, while I go back for another Inack."

The young man smiled indulgently at He of the manufache raved furiously a first volumes of Bionov's Reports. The first vol- his companion's ill furmor. True, he cast while his companion, taking things more ume of Aidea, containing Dallas' Reports. 4 vel. a glance at the conductor, as it amount to reumes; and Values' Reports volume it is also on quest him to remove the carpet-hag, but the best of the misfortune, and took comes hand, and for sale. The above two volumes are appearing to change his mind be quietly of with the driver, on the course to be at the desire to many, experse to many, expe ume of Aidea, containing Daltas' Reports, 4 vels | a glance at the conductor, as if about to resecuely; expressed his willingness to make

Evening was approaching, and the blind and return with mother back, it will be good; but, if not, I think I will content "If it would be the same thing to you, myself to stop with him all night, and wait then among all norts of people. I find mys same thing to you, myself to stop with him all night, and wait then among all norts of people. I find mys same thing to you, the marriage what do you have supported in the marriage product the hay!" sir, you will oblige me by dropping that for you in the morning. What do you sell the gamer by it." say to the arrangement, my friend?"

still angry at himself for suffering a good matured feeling to move him, threw down No vehicle of any kind could be had; appointment. I was returning a my friends after a long absence."

No vehicle of any kind could be had; appointment. I was returning a my friends after a long absence."

guests a nice cup of tea, and served them at his companion in autonishment. with very palatable bits of toast and fine And he politely tendered the paper to slices of dried beef. The mild gentleman appeared in excellent spirits; but his moody companion devoured the food plastilly, by way of thanks, and took the prof- ced before him in sullen silence, as if he considered all the world in general, and as soon as the supper was over.

"I object to sleeping with any one." "Indeed !" "Yes, sir, decidedly."

"Somebody had trodden upon his loes. He seized the offender by the shoulder. It fess the truth, we have but one spare hed self," said the mild gentleman, observing tion of his wife to her husband after being rangement of the Old English Gentleman's the farmer's perplexity. "I prefer sleep- exiled to Turkey: The gentleman with the moustache ing alone myself; but under the circummade a rode, insulting reply. The other stances, I shall not object to having a comremonstrated with considerable spirit; and panion; and I am sure my friend here, after his extle commenced in Turkey, with his fellow traveller was at length obliged will not be so unreasonable as to find fault incredible sacrifices and devoted disregard to acknowledge that he had spoken hastily, with the arrangement, when I assure him to a thousand dangers, traversed hostile terri. Lord Abinger, for the opposite side, that so, I shall be obliged to you. I believe I us he sank into the feathers-and scanty forniture of the room. "Shall I trouble you to wake me at day-

"It does very well for one." "Hem-for one!-I should say so "

Giving expression to such incoherent sed and got into bed.

extempt for the latter chase of his come | 'of don't see much to admire," grumbled [apartments]

nine politeness!-- theor---- " The sociable gentleman was interrupted | triol, let us not forget the heroic adventures | They took a hasty luncheon at the re- by an impatient cough, by which his comgage put abound, and not for Sweden | Accordingly, the mild gentleman took in her her success, the same respect for her the hint, and went to sleep. But the mo- victors, the same joy at her h primess, he and rough. To beguile the tediousness of tion of a strange chow to the tenderest versation with his graft companion, who, all don't know whether I did or not .-

and he was not transled with any more el- B. bows that night. When he awake it was morning, and his fellow-traveller was dress- To morrify male wretches. " ascally stump, and trake an existres."

"Uniformly converged same with will of believe 1 gat a cop of about five mins

In the course of the marning, the goodonking gentleman, whose perceful dispose Mr. Posev, M. P., has communicated the many accordable facors, which had the et- The machine, drawn by two bosses, and with mytorly."

of the carpet-hag looking moodily out of the back, and to assist the driver to bring wrote that he was expected home about

"Charles! Can it be---

"I am Charles Stanly-" "And I am your brother Edward!"

and which had occasioned so much ill-feel-"Oh, yes," replied the farmer; but I be- ing between his brother and himself. They lieve I forgot to inquire if you could sleep quarreled no more that day, however, but together?" and well, related the adventure, as we

THE WIFE OF KOSSUTH.

The New York Express, to an article on the expected arrival of Kossuth, relates the June, 1833, between certain publishing "My good friend, do not trouble your- following incident, illustrative of the devo- tweedledoms and tweedledoes, as to an ar-

"With him comes his heroic wife, who, tories, submitted to deprivations and under- learned counsel rather flippantly questioned er travellers had left the car. It was now | "I shall sit up all night," exclaimed the | went sufferings of every kind, joined him at | him thus : his retreat, by the foot of Mount Olympus .-It was notice the projection of a passport from the British Consul General at Bulgrade, | mean by that, sir ?" that as British subjects, under assumed The farmer took a candle to conduct the names, she and her companious were enabled to accomplish this great adventure, and but with a different accent, the one being in As soon as they were left alone, the when, on the twenty-eighth day, a courier common time, the other in six-eight time : "Your pardon, sir-I think I have the mild gentleman went to bed, exclaiming, was sont in mivance of them to apprise and consequently the position of the accen-Kessuth of their approach to Shumla,- (he ted notes was different." "No, sir, I claim the seat."

"This is really delicious! These people of the many plans of the mild general look out for comfort rather than show."

"This is really delicious! These people of the Austrians to assessinate him, the Sulof the Austrians to assessinate him, the Sultheman, firmly; otherw up my baggage." oHem!" nuttered his companion, seat- tan's nuthuities would not allow him to allow him to leave Shumla and go to need his wife,) the you hadn't trod on my toes we might have glancing angrily around of the bare walls news of her deliverance and her approach terms here. Lask you what is a musical acoccusioned the liveliest satisfaction to all the cent 7. Can you see it 27 apology, we might have had our chance light?" asked the traveller in hed, "By refugees; and the Hurgarians and Poles | Cooks-No." the way, as you may want something to went as far as the gates of the city to meet i amuse you, if you sit up, you will find a this hereic marryr of the cause of Hungary. new movel in my coat pocket. Good It was night when the carriage neared the tor) city; and as it entered the gates she found | S.r. J. (very angry) - "Now, pray. sir, "And the good-humored traveller draw a the streets lighted with hundreds of lights, don't heat about the bush, but explain to his long breath, turned his face to the wall, green, white and red, the colors of the londship Lord Donman, who was the Judge Hangarian dag, and welcomed with the that tried the cause] and the jury, who are "Confound his coolness" graveled the most triendly shouts from the whole budy of supposed to how nothing about music, the traveller in the chair, biting his amountache, the refugees. And the account from which meaning of what you call accent."

"Come," said the mild gentleman, who "wWell," mattered the other, to whom "Maria F" of the plains of Hangary. "You are an ass," it rest on ass; but if I of the post in the second of the complaints, the traveller at length undress to speak and offer her hashand consolation seeming gravity, accosted the chop-fallen and tranquilley, while her own poor feels, coursel thus: "I admire these country people," re- hend was ready to bast with emotion. Her est will save expense for both of us, and marked the centleman on the back side, by voice failed her, and smid the reiterated James !"

"In our rejoicings, therefore, at the liber-"Not in their hospitality !- in their gen- ation and the coming hither of the great pa- down !" the united population of Shumla displayed deln't see any joke in the matter thyme, thus was his tylinding machine in We can the following description of the "go- lands, some fwenty-five thousand poetical motion, on the subject of Bloomerism t-The ladies put on tights. Bould you know the reason.

The the agreet wearnier rights. Lo, woman takes the male attime, Of promise," and the dress does bligher tinnes to grow in favor in England. The sition could not remain long railled, found assume time at the first state of this real it in his way to do his want companion where first Reval Agricultural Society — This indominable, never-ceasing energy is feet of suffering his temper and oaking, drawn by two horses, and the true secret of their success, and although the true secret of their success. Some not a little eshamed of his ungentles the wheat about eight hockes from the many conduct. Accordingly, on the road ground with the atmost regularity. The Sweden Corners, the latter raw fit to uther a work hight, though the many portion of a policy.

MECORIMICS STREAMING MACHINES This admirable American invention con-

All wheat about eight hockes from the yet, upon the whole, it is a valuable trait.—

Since I left home, I have often been remindable to a further wards refinement. When a mon now a week in the latter is a valuable trait.—

Since I left home, I have often been remindable to a further wards refinement. When a mon now a wards refinement wards refinement wards refinement and any wishes to communicate the latter of a north property of a policy. wrened.

"Before you can go to Constantinople over ted like making myself accurable and a half per hour, making fifteen acres of our own citizens a short time since. He affairs have reached a crysis. per day of ten hours. The mker, standing said that if a big mortar could be constructwith anytholy."

"The redy you must less a great deal of entire the deliver to take the cut wheat from the platform, restrictly had to exceed the cut wheat from the platform, restrictly had to exert the cut which would throw an immense bomb-shell, containing fifteen passengers, from St.

Long to Boston in five minutes, with an absolute continue, or who has only to so on the dicky, might very who has only to so on the dicky, might very well exchange places from time to time:

The next neglect to study human nature, or cultivate good feeling, or gather information," re-though the solutions that he and drives who has only to so on the dicky, might very well exchange places from time to time:

The next neglect to study human nature, or which moved the most unprofitable information," re-though the most unprofitable information, and that if a big mostar could be constructed which would throw an immense bomb-shell, containing fifteen passengers, from St.

Long to Boston in five minutes, with an absolute certainty that fourteen out of the fifty one divided the hay!

The ill-natured traveller grambled a lit Wou are right," rejoined the traveller with the monstache; at blame myself for the at length expressed his approsupon his fellow traveller for a moment; the; but he at length expressed his approgiving way to such feelings as I manifested most be change in prove himself the lucky fiflength of the lucky fi then, as it mobile to deny so reasonable a bation of his companion's proposal, and last night. But you need consider my disrequest, tendered with such civility, but went on with him to the cottage, which appointment. I was returning frome to will also see the advantage of being removed. any friends after a long absence."

and independent of the graval of strangers to get in als corn, who cannot always be found. The Last Hours.—A rich eld bachelor with him; and we hope Congress will send who had been through life regardless of rebut the obliging fariner offered the travellers supper and todgings, which they were glad to accept. He then went with a landglad to accept. He then wen A silence of some moments ensued, during which the cars rattled on, the owner ming which the cars rattled on, the owner of the delivered to be a stock land, is even; where radges and was an attendant coquired if he wished to see a stock land, is even; where radges and was an attendant coquired if he wished to see a the window, and his companion glancing the gentlemen's baggage into the house, this time, and I formed my visit on his acc. ter formers exist, some difficulties seem to elergyman? The dying man assented, and arise. But or this level hand it was wonder- requested that the Rev. Mr. Clover, who being burnt or pulled down, wrote or tensions; but the mistress thereof made her | The traveller with the unustacle stated ful to see this new implement working so lived near, should be sent for. He came, the doors,smoothly, so truly, and in such a masterly not without some surprise, knowing as he manner. The fact it, however, that it is not did the character of his neighbor, and taking an entried implement. Though new in this the hand of the sick man, enquired his country, it has been used for some years in wishes. The man toplied, "I am about to To have seen the two travellers embrace, America, where experience has enabled the die- the doctors say I cannot survive the on would not have thought that they had inventor to correct in successive seasons the | night. I have sent for you to request you to een quarreling for the last six-and-thirty defects invariably found in new implements. keep the cats in your yard as still as possithe people around him more particularly, hours? So it was, and Edward never ceass It is certainly strange that we should not ble to-night.' The Rev. Doctor left. ed to regret his incivility, by which an have had it over before, nor indeed should "Is my room ready for me?" he asked earlier recognition had been prevented, we have it now, but for the Great Exhibition, to whose royal originator the English ty like a woman. Remove her from the farmer is clearly indichted for the introduc- purlor to a garret, and instead of taking of a western legislature. tion of the most important addition to farm- assenie, as a man would, she actually being machinery that has been invented since comes more cheerfut. Like a lark, the tion; last year made fifty thousand barrets have related it here, for the lesson it con- the threshing machine first took the place nearer she approaches Heaven, the more of whiskey, besides wasting thousands of of the flait."

THE COUNSELLOR POSED.

At a trial in the Court of King's Bench -an old English air by-the-bye---Tom Cooke, the composer, was subpossed as a witness by one of the parties. On his examination by Sir James Scarlett, afterwards

"Now, sir, you say that the two melodies are the same, but different. What do you

To this Tom promptly answered-"I said that the notes in the two expies were alike, Sir James-"What is a musical accent ?" Cooke-"My terms are a goinca a lesson, sir." (A loud laugh.) Sir J. (cather rafiled)-"Never mind your Sir J .- Can you feel it ?" Cooke-"A musician can. (Great laugh-

When Malame Kossuth descended from stress hald upon a particular note, in the latter 9737. her carriage, she found herself in the pres. some manner as you would by a stress upon "And for two, on a pinch," raid the sence of her husband, who had risen from any given word for the purpose of being his bed of illness to receive the the poor better understood. Thus if I were to say, was the first to recover his equinimity, the prospect of a night in a hard-bottomed. In place of receiving her in his arms, M. were to say, "For are an ass," it rests on the cause of her country, threw himself at lowed this repartee. Silence having been survives. her feet and kissed them. She endeavered at length obtained, the judge with much | Dr. Kinner, the German patriot, was pre-

Lord Denman-"Are you satisfied, Sir

way of cultivating his companion's ac- shoots of the Haugarmas and Poles, this he. Sir James, (who deep red as he naturally reic warran was carried to her hasband's was, to use poor Jack Reeve's own words, every one we pre-pay the postage, whether had become scariet in more than name.) in on our business or not. We expect our cora great half, said: "The witness may go respondents to do the same thing.

And go down he did, amidst renewed

GO ATTEAD ! John B. Crockett, the son of Davy Crockett, the eduor of the St. Louis Intelligencer, is now travelling in the Eastern States. His A wastens edito with a passion to letters to his paper are nousually interesting. It is estimated that by the time Kossutia abendativeness' of the Yankees, from his welcomes will have been written and pul-> people. Whatever they engage in, they do it "with a rush." If it be a matter of business, and a dollar sparkles in the distance, they go at it as if life and death depended on the issue. If they are engaged simply in have a flavor similar to Madeirasight seeing, they appear always resolved to have the first sight; or if a meal is to be eat. Mr. WEBSTER returned to Boston, from on, they are sure to got seats at the first ta- New Plampshire, on Friday. He is rather ble. When a boat is about to start, they are | thin in tlesh, but his health has been mucl. the first abound, and when it lands they are | improved by his recent respite from official invariably the first ashore. Not content with labors. travelling thirty miles an hour over a mil- A Colonen female, named Eliza Greencond, they jump off, carpet bag in band, at field, is creating quite a sensation in musical the end of the trip, before the cars step. "Go circles in Buffalo. She is said to have a very ahend, at the top of your speed," is their powerful and sweet voice, and is to give a

A LATE writer says, nobody bears adversishe seems to sing

A STRING OF ITEMS

THE watchword of the Mexican revolutionists is "Death to the Tyrants."

Triathene, the great planist and composer, intends to visit the United States

NINETY-Five thousand dollars have been subscribed, in Ohio, for a farmers' col-

Sick politicians are visible now-a-days .-Poor fellows, don't take it so hard! We Jon't ?

Tue effect which the air of East Florida has on all palmonary diseason, in Goon Inga .- Magnifying glasses of superior power are being brought into general use, to detect counterfeit notes. THE Boston Bar are taking measures for a token of respect to the memory of the la-Judge Woodbury. Tun people of "Tom's River," N. J.

talk of altering its name. Is Tom agreed ' We believe it is his property. It is decided that the Crystal Palace shell be demolished. The site is to be marked y four blocks of granite. A MAN in Menson, Mass., who is upwards of 75 years of age, has a third set of front teeth growing.

Thent are 237 more free negroes in the District of Columbia than in the whole State Cooke- Accent in music is a certain of Kentucky; the former has 2973, the Dr. John M. Bernhisze, delegate in Congress from Utah Territory, arrived in St.

Lewis on the 4th instant, on his way to the suat of Government.

A CINCINNATI man boasts that he has had his skull broken eight times, had gone, and by gratitude for her devotion to court, is which the bench itself joined, fol. been shot through twenty times, and yet > sented to the President, yesterday, by Mr. Crittenden. The interview was lengthy, and highly satisfactory. We write a good many letters, and en

Ir is said Smith, not Juhn, has published a new addition of his grammar, in which he of his middle wife, and let the same interest laughter, in which all joined; parties speaks of four genders, 712; -- Masculine,

> The laziest man we ever heard of was a sportsman in Michigan. He was so lazy that he put out one of his eyes the other day, to save the trouble of winking when he takes aim.

lished. We have been favored to some The Yankees are emphatically a "fast" extent. ARRANSAS WINE -The Editor of the For-Smith (Ark) Herald, acknowledges the receipt of a bettle of wine, made of graperaised in the Creek Nation. It is said to concert shortly. She is called the "Black

"Ma. Smith, the English Vice Cornil.

condition !" .- Letter from Havana. God bless that English heart, he gave the men a dollar each, all the money he had "No Popery !" Old Grimaldi, to avoid all mistakes, week on his -- Dening the riots in 1780, most persons in Leaden in order to save their houses from

An old lady of Jersey had an unaccountble aversion of tye, and never could est in pay form till of late they got she said to making it into whiskey, and I can now and there werry down a little." Inis reminds us of a speech of a member "Mr. Speaker, my county beats ad creat.

bushels of earn for bread !

porty, or renewing policies for the same. Sunbury, April 26, 1851 .- tf.

Shamokin, April 19, 1850,-tf. JAMES H. MAGEE

N. B .- Coloring, Bottling, Wire and Bottles, Vinegar, &c. For sale as above. Lycoming Mutual Insurance Company. DR. J. B. MASSER is the local agent for the