Hundreds of our citizens complain of debility and langour of the system, derangement of the liver and stomach, want of appetile, &c.; they are frequently the result of too close application, and a thousand other causes we cannot here name; but we would say to all so afflicted, do as we have done—get a bottle or two of Dr. Hooffland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. Jackson, and, our word for it, you will be cured. We recommend this medicine, knowing from experience that it is much superior to the generality of patent medicines. We would benefit of goods at low prices and of the best say to our readers, purchase come noless quality Our stock consists of prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadel-

the confidence we feel in an article which seldom fails to realize the happiest effects that can be desired. So wide is the field of its weefulness and so numerous the cases of its cures, that almost every section of the country abounds in persons, publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs, by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind, is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affectious of the pulmonary organs, which are incident to our climate. And not only in the formidable attacks upon the langs, but for Let' All of which will be sold cheap for each the milder varieties of Couns, Octobe, Hounes, or in exchange for country produce at the highest | xxxx, &c., and for Carlinnex it is the pleasantest and sufest medicine that can be obtained.
