The certificates from those who have used these Paints, are such as to satisfy the public that they are invaluable. The ablest chemics of France and this country have testified to the superiority of Zine over Lead Paints, as to dambliry, healthtuness and beauty. They have been adopted by the French Government, by this comparation of New York, and are now extensively used by the Entited States Government at many of the largest Millinry and Marine Depots.
