The British surrendering their arms to GENERAL WASHINGTON After their defeat at YORKTOWN, Virginia October 1781.

After their defeat at YORKTOWN, Virginia, October 1781.

THE Engraving is accented by Tamer, Vallance, Rearney & Co. from an original drawing by J. F. Renault, and published by Benjamin Tamer, Engraver, Philadelphin The size of the print is 25 by 34 inches and was originally published to Subscribers at 812 in the sheet.

EXPLANATION.

THE History—In the first and grand plan are exhibited three large groups of the principal officers, who were present at the transactions, with a faithful likeness of each. In the first group is seen General Washington, General Rechambeau, General Lincolo, Colonel Hamilton, an old Parmer eager to contemplate the scene, Billy the servant, and the Horse of General Washington.

In the second group, are American and French Officers; General Knox, Secretary Wilson, the Dake de Lauzam, and the Marquis de La Favette.

The third group is electriptive of the British sutrendering their arms. Lord Cornwallis, General O'Hera, Commissione Simmons, Colonel Raiph Abergronible, Licutemat Colonel Banda International Colonel Banda Berger of the law in General Washington is pointed out to him as the only person to whom he is to surrender his sword.

On the heights said in the distance are the different ramies and crowds of spectators. The House of Secretary Wilson, occupied by Lord Cornwalis, saked leave of General Washington to serve him a dish of his own cosking, and immediately after several boundables fell through the too on the table, and wounded some, and dispersed the party. The Atlaconty—on the left is erested a montiment in honor of those illustrious heroes who sacrified their lives and fortunes to insure to lifer citizens, the Liberty mid Indexes and the Colonel of the Colonel Secretary was and citizens, the Liberty mid Indexes and the Colonel of the Colonel Secretar
