Mr. William Smith, supercargo of the steamer Crescent City, had caused to be published in the New York papers, an exaggerated and false statement, respecting the severity of the Spanish Government in Cuba. This statement accused Gen Canedo of the cruelty of having loaded young Cuban ladies with fetters and chains to their feet. This published falsehood, which was not denied by Mr. Smith, induced Gen. Canedo, to diof the owners or agents of the steamer, to inform him, that the Crescent City would not be allowed to enter the harbor of Havana, if Smith was on board, as he considered him to be an enemy of Cuba, acting with those who had designs upon the Government .-On the 3d of this month the Crescent City was signaled, but the Captain disregarded the signal, and entered the port, alleging as an excuse for violating the laws, that he could not stop his machinery. Col. Lima forwarded the order to leave the harbor, as soon as he discovered that Mr. Smith was on board. Capt. Porter presented a closed letter for Gen. Canedo, who refused to receive it, unless it came through the proper hands the American Consul. The Consul could no be found, nor the principal Agent of Ma Drake. Capt. Porter then presented a prepared protest, which shows that he wa aware of the difficulty his rashness would occasion. The order for leaving, was again repeated, and the Crescent departed, carry ing off passengers, mails, &c. These are th facts of the case, and the affair will be view ed differently, according to the several feel ings by which individuals will be actuated. 11. Jno McReynolds, 23. J. S. M'Calmont, We must judge of it with impartiality.

Mr. Smith, by refusing to deny the publication attributed to him, gave ample reason for the suspicion that he was the real author of it, and therefore incurred the responsibility involved. As he showed, in that publication, hostility to the Spanish Government, and acted the part of a spy, in favor of those who have designs upon the Government, it is riety of other entertaining matter. The circulation of this not strange that General Canedo refused him | magazine, the proprietors say, now reaches 100,000 copies. permission to enter territory against the lawful authority of which he endeavored to play the mischief-maker. His right to do so is the mischief-maker. His right to do so is handsomely illustrated with four plates. The principal enunquestionable. A diplomatic agent, everf, graving "My Eye and Betty Martin" is excellent as is also may be sent out of a country by the Government, if his acts are such as to show that he is inimical to that Government. Capt. Porter cannot plead ignorance of the intention of the Captain General, after the warning given, and his own previously prepared protest, shows that he expected the treatment which he received, and of which he has lit- by valuable. To give additional spice and variety to their tle reason to complain. He, and the Compa- journal, the publishers have secured the exclusive services 12th, Hendrick B. Famuy is to have an article in the next number land at Havana. This attempt to brave the the Musical World & Times, which will doubtless be legitimate authority of a friendly Government, is positively disgraceful, and has involved the passengers in expenses and trouble, for which the ship should be held liable. We can see no outrage upon the American flag in this act, as none was intended. The affair is simply a personal transaction, which does not involve the United States at all. It is an attempt, on one side, to preserve the dignity of the Spanish Government, and the safety of the loyal citizens of Cubs, against the rashness and disrespect of the officers and owners of the steamer, and the machinations of designing enemies of the Spanish berland, to morrow morning at 104 o'-Government, with whom these officers and owners appear, by their unjustifiable conduct, to sympathise. That no insult to the American flag was intended, and no unnecessary restrictions imposed upon Americans trading to the port, is evident in the fact that the steamer Empire City, commanded by a prudent and gentlemanly officer, who knows his duty, and respects territorial rights, was received, on the 19th of September, with every mark of regard.

HORRIBLE SUICIDE BY A WOMAN. - Mrs. Passage, wife of Thomas Passage, of this city, put an end to her life on Wednesday columns this week, that Jurors are not relast, at East Rush. Her husband went to Illinois last spring, when she with her two children, eleven and seven years of age, respectfully took up their abode at Captain Jeffrey's, in Rush, where they have since lived. Mrs. P. had frequently, of late exhibited feelings of despondency, and a few days ago made an attempt to drown herself in the Honeoye creek. One of her remarks was, that she had an internal disease preying upon her intestines. At 8 A. M., on the day above mentioned, she rushed from the bed room into the kitchen, to the horror of the family, with her throat dreadfully cut by a razor, and instantly ran back again, burying herself in the clothes of her bed. Doctors Smith and Galentine, were in attendance immediately. While they were attempting to dress her throat, her resistance and struggles revealed the fact that she had also cut her abdomen in a horrible manner, so that the intestines protruded, when ail hope of saving her life was abandoned,-She very soon expired -Rochester Advertiser, October 15.
