ONE OF THE GIRLS.

A Yankee girl, who has been spending some time out West, and getting tired, returned East, gives the St. Louis Republic her opinion of her visit, in the following verses Now, Father, Mother, Sukey, Nell, Matty and all the rest, Sit dowd and listen while I tell what I have learned "Out West," 1 am back in Old Connecticut, "the land of steady ways,"

And if I wasn't diffident, and did not hate self-praise,
I would tell you what the people say about us "Yankee girls,"
Two 'smart' and 'wide awake' we are to al life's twists and twirls.

But never mind ! I went, you know, to see the world myself, And in the corner of my brain, I kept a lit tle shelf,

To stow away the facts I gained and polled them down at will; And had a sharp look out the while, this little shelf to fill.

Well, first I learned ere half way there, to call my luggage 'plunder,'
To 'reckon,' too, instead of 'guess,' and 'toat'

As time mokes these facts wider and better known, this medicine has gradually become the best reliance of the anticised, from the log cishin of the American Pensaut, to the palaces of Eurobe and Kings. Throughout this entire country, in every State, city, and indeed almost every hander it countains. Chemay Pretonat is known as the best remedy extant for diseases of the Threat and Lungs, and in many foreign combites, it is coming to be extensively used by their most infelligent Physicians. In Great Britain, Prance and Germany, where the medical sciences have reached their highest perfection, Chemay Pretonat is introduced, and in constant use in the Armies, Hospitals, Alms Houses, Public Institutions, and in domestic practice, as the surest remedy their attending Physicians can employ for the more dangerous affections of the large. Also in midder cases, and for children it is safe, plenuant and effectual to cure. In fact, some of the most flattering testimonials we receive have been from parents who have found it effections in cases particularly incidential to childhood.

Notice to all Dealers in Ready Made Clothing, Notice to all Dealers in Ready Made Clothing, BENNET & CO. request all who purchase ready made Clothing on credit, to call at TOWER HALL CLOTHING BAZAAR, and see the great advantages they will have by purchasing for cash at this extensive establishment. This, and that only, is the principle on which they deal with all their numerous customers, who have realized that at this house they spare no effort in producing the best CLOTHING, at the lowest possible prices, and that the goods made at this house are the best made, most fashionable, and much cheaper than any other house can afford to sell the same quality of goods, arising from their large manufacturing and importing facilities, and their determination to mantain the principle of large sales and small profits. Their stock is most ample and complete. The particular attention of merchants and dealers is mortied, who are requested to call and judge for themselves, as we are satisfied that they cannot fail to see the advantages they will have in purchasing for cash, at TOWER HALL, 132 MARKET street, between Fifth and Siath.
