Her agenies were distincting, and for months logather she was deprived entirely of rest and sleep.—Every romedy that medical men advised was tried, but without effect; her health saffered severely, and the state of her legs was terrible. I had often rend your Advertisements, and advised her to try your Pila and Ontonem and, as a last resource, after every other remedy had proved uscless, she commenced six weeks ago, and, strange to relate, is now in good legalls. Her legs are painless, without seam of sear, and her sleep sounifying in multipribad. Could yet large witnessed the sufferings of any wire during the last 13 years, and contrast them with her present calgorment of health, you would indeed feel delight in a having been the means of so greatly alleviating the sufferings of a fellow-creature, (Signed).
