A MICHIGAN HAM STORM. -It is stated that a hail storm lately passed over Macomb county Mich., and that the stones varied from the size of a musket ball to two thirds the size of a goose egg. Men caught in the storm were so pounded by chunks of ice as to be confined to their houses for two or three days.

Another Decision under the $300 Law. -The Supreme Court, at its present session at Harrisburg, has decided that a debtor cannot waive his interest under the $300 law in favor of one creditor, in 'preference of prior lieu creditors; and the assignment of his right is an abandonment of it, and that prior just creditors are entitled to the money in the order of their seniority.

A Man in Disguise.-Last summer, a re- opened a puted female was going the rounds, instructing ladies in the art of cutting dresses, hailing from the North, we believe. A DRUNKEN FELLOW ran against a house which had been newly painted. Shoving himself clear by a vigorous effort, he took one glimpse at his shoulder, another at the house, and a third at his hand, and exclaimed- "Well, that is a darned careless trick in whoever painted that house, to leave it standing out all night for the people to run against."

A Lan, of twelve years of age, came into the Police Court of Cincinnati, and asked to be committed to the House of Refuge. When interrogated as to what had prompted him to take such a course, he replied that his father and mother did nothing but get drunk and abuse him, and that he was anxious to be placed out of their reach and influence.

The Transportation of Convicts .- The English are perplexed to know where they shall establish a penal colony. The people of Van Dieman's Land will not have them, and a proposition to send them to the Cape of Good Hope nearly caused a rebellion. The Falkland Islands are now suggested. It is stated that the number of convicts annually transported from England exceeds 2000, and that 50,000 persons are now under sentence of transportation for life.

Of all the numerous medicines extent, (and some of them visitable) for the care of pulmarry complinits, nothing has ever been found which could compare in its effects with this Preparation. Others care symmetrizes, but at all times and in all diseases of the lungs and throat where medicine can give relief, this will do it. It is pleasant to take, and perfectly safe in accordance with the directions. We do not allectrize for the information of those who have tried it but those who have ried it but those who have not. Families that have known its value with not be without it and by its timely use, they are secure from the dangerous consequences of Coughs and Codes which neglected, ripen into fatal communition.

This is the most difficult Worm to destroy of sil that in-feat the human system, it grows to an almost Indefinite length becausing so colled and fastened in the Intestines and Stoment effecting the health as saily as to cause St. Vitus Dance, Fits, &c., that those afflicted seld-on it ever suspect that it is Tupe Worm hastening them to an early grave. In order to destroy this Worm, a very energetic treatment must be pursued, it would therefore be proper to take 6 to 2 of my Liver Pills soots to remove all obstruc-tions, that the Worm Symptomy net direct upon the Worm, which must be taken in doses of 2 Tablespoonfulls 3 times a day these directs as full-awest have never been known to fail in curing the most obstinate case of Tape Worm. TO HOBENSACK'S LIVER PILLS. No part of the system is more liable to discove than the LIVER, it serving as a differer to purify the blood, or giv-LIVER, it serving as a filterer to purify the blood, or giving the proper secretion to the bile; so that any wrong nestion of the Layer effects the other imperiant parts of the system, and results variously, in Liver Compalant, Jamese, Dyspensia, &c. We should, therefore, watch every symptom that might indicate a wrong action of the Layer. These Pills being composed of ROUTS & PLANTS formished by acture to beal the sick: Namely, 1st, An EXPECTORANT, which augments the secution from the Polaneary muons membrane, or promotes the discharge of secreted matter. Bud, An ALTERATIVE, which changes in some inexplicable and insemilishe manner the extrain method action of the system, 3rd, A TONIC which gives time and strength to the nervous system, renewing health and viges to all parts of the body. 4th, A CATHARTIC, which acts in perfect harmony with the other ingredients, and operating on the Bavets, and expelling the whole mass of current and villated matter, and parifying the Blood, which destroys discuse and restores health.
