Married, on the 10th ult., in Kunnebunkport, Me, by Rev. C. W. Heywood, Misa Amanda Munn to Mr. A R. Knott, all of Kennebunkport. The following poetical correspondence is said to have actually passed have been the bong fide" proposal" and "reply." The fact that they were known to be inverste ponsters makes the statement more pobabley. The last stanza, we presume, was added by our correspondent:

NOTT TO AMANDA "Oh, that I could prevai, my fair, That we unite our lot Oh. take a man, Amand Man, And be a double 'kno .'

Your coldness drives me to despair-What shall I do? ah what! For you I'm growing thin and spare-For you I'm a 'pine Knott."

If I should hear that you had died, I would kill me on the spot-Yet only yesterday I cried Ah! would that she were Knott !

The 'chords' and tendrils of my heart Around thee tondly 'twine' -- Amanda, heal this aching smart! Amanda, oh be mine!

These very terms, as I opine Suggest united lots --Let's tie, then, dear, these 'cords' and In hymencal knots."

MISS AMANDA MANN'S REPLY. "This life, we know, is but a span, Hence I have been afraid That I should still remain A. Mann. And die at last-a maid.

And often to myself I say, On looking round, I find There's Nott, a man in every way Just suited to my mind.

I fain would whisper him, apart, He'd make me best for life-If he would take me to his heart And make A. Mann his wife.

Love not, my mother often says. And so, too, says the song -I'll heed the hint in future days, And love Nott well and long. Then oh! let Hymen on the spot.

And bind me in a lashing knot Tied with a single beau. And now I give myself to you,

And thus unite our lots-Then tie those 'cords and twine' into A dozen little Notts.
