With notes and additions, together with a short system of conveyancing. By A. Jordan, President Judge of the Eighth Judicial district of Wm. M. Rockefeller and M. L. Shindel, of the bar of Northumberland county. Since the publication of the book, the following etter has been received from Judge Pearson of HARRISBURG, June 30, 1853.

GENTLEMEN: After a careful examination of your "American pleaders assistant," I take pleasure in ex-pressing my entire approval of the selection and composition of the precedents thus offered to the berland. public. The legal profession in Pennsylvania stands in need of a correct system of pleading, adapted to our habits of business, and the practice of the courts. Your forms of declarations being. as he is unfit for the married state, -Johnson to a great extent, founded on the acts of assembly will be a saving of labor to the pleader, and con-duce to safety and brevity in our pleadings. It should be in the hands of every practising lawyer in our state.
