Midlinburg is a thriving and healthy borough.

Its inhabitants are moral, intelligent and enterprising. Its tracets have been recently graded and paved. It is, in every respect, a pleasant and derivable retreat for students. We, therefore, trust that the friends of education will deem the Academy worthy of their liberal support.

Life The price of hoard, in the best of private families, daw not exceed $1,30 per week.

N. B. Students may enter the Academy at any time during the term; yet it is desirable that they be present, if possible, on the first day, Millinburg, July 16, 1853.—6in.
