

OFFICE, MARKET STREET, OPPOSITE THE POST OFFICE.

AMERICAN.

A Family Dewspaper-Devoted to Politics, Afterature, Morality, Foreign and Domestic Dews, Science and the Arts, Agriculture, Markets, Amusements, &e

EW SERIES, VOL. 6, NO. 28.

TERMS OF THE AMERICAN.

O DOLLARS per ince. No paper disc

office, to insure atte

sty subsequent insert

Souare of 16 lines, 3 times,

THE AMERICAN is published every Saturday at 70 DOLLARS per annum to be paid half yearly in Norman No more discontinued until ALL arrearages are

TO CLUBS.

rec copies to one address, $500 ca De Do 1000 teen Do Do 2000 ive dollars in advance will pay for three year's sub-ption to the American.

months, by year, incess Cards of Five lines, per annum, rebants and others, advertising by the ear, with the privilege of inserting fiferent divertisements weekly. F Larger Advertisements, na per agreement.

H. B. MASSER,

ATTORNEY AT LAW,

SUMBURY, PA.

Business attended to in the Counties of Nor-imberland, Union, Lycoming and Columbia.

Refer to:

Somers & Snodgrass, Reynolds, McFarland & Co.,

HENRY DONNEL

Spering, Good & Co.,

P. & A. Royoudt,

Lower & Barron,

unications or letters on business relating to

, must be POST PAID.

SUNBURY, NORTHUMBERLAND COUNTY, PA., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1853.

OLD SERIES, VOL. 14, NO. 2

FOWLS-THE BIGHT THING.

We are glad to see that the committee of ponltry of the New Hampshire State Agri-Five miles further south lies Selinsgrove, cultural Society substantially agree with us on the west side of the river-a rich and in our idea of the Hen fever. They prov with farms worth $100 to $150 per acre .- of fowl-the Darkings, Bolton Greys, and This town, although not immediately on the their crosses-in preference to the Giant line of contemplated tailways, must always Chinamen. Neither profit nor good taste: they say, suggests the breeding of China Eighty years ago, this whole region was a hens - They are not great layers ; nor proli-"howling wilderness," inhabited only by fie; are long in getting their growth, and are skunks, wolves, wildcats and Indians. Some great caters ; upon the table, are course and made more change than the next ten will, if and imgainly, and their crow being, as has Philadelphia is true to Pennsylvnia and been well observed, "not the honest Saxon crow, expressive of day-break, love, war, and animal spirits, but a horrid ejaculation, between a Chinese sentence, as described by THE GREAT CANADIAN RAILWAY, for the missionaries, and a badly blown dinner horn." construction and equipment of which the If these things are so, why is so much attencontract has been taken by a wealthy firm in tion paid to breeding them ? This is a plain England, will be 1,000 miles long-commen- question, and shall have a plain answer. It cing at a point of the St. Lawrence, 120 is because speculation, curiosity and fashion

Tage contributions throughout the country for the New Orleans Howard Association, if terminating at the waters of Lake Huron, is said, now amount to $223,714 .--- Mrs. near Detroit. It is to be constructed with M. J. Thompson, a widow lady, has recovthe wide guage, and in every respect to be ered $2,000 damages of R. Barnes, at Bardsmade in the most substantial manner. The town, Ky., for flander .--- Ir is estimated river St. Lawrence is to be spanned by a that not less than four millions of dollars huge iron bridge, on the feasibility of which have been spent by Southerners this summer favorable opinion has been given by Mr. in sight-seeing and dissipation at the North. -THE sum of $7,867 has been contributed capital has been subscribed in England, and in New York for the Mobile sufferers .---the contract for the entire work, including IN Utah they open their balls and dancing the right of way, bridges, construction, rails, parties with prayer, and close with # benediction .---- The Rochester man who has ses, &c., is £9,000 a mile, amounting to from been asleep for five years is on exhibition in New York .---- ARE you assessed ?---- GEN. SHIRIDS is convalescent ---- New Orleans is reviving .---- TALENT shakes the bush, tact catches the bird .---- "THE first Bloomer of the season" is chronicled as appearing in the streets of Portland .---- GEN. Cass is at present in Detroit, looking well and healthy. -THE number of possible "hands" at whist, is 1,270,027,119,200.-A child, three years old, weighing but six pounds, is on exhibition in Newark, N. J --- - A man too busy to take care of his health, is like a mechanic too busy to take care of his tools .-----THE more polished society is, the less formality there is in it. -A railroad will shortly connect, in a straight line, Columbia, Pa , and New Castle, Del .---- THE Americon' machine seems to general use among the leading London tailors and outfitters. -JOHN SMITH was killed on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad on Satorday. His head was cut off by a train of cars .---- THREE ladies are employed as com-positors in the office of the Pittsburg Dispatck-Undoubtedly they make a good impression. --- IF you wish for care, perplexity and misery, be selfish in all things -- this is the hortest road to trouble .---- Charles Lamb wondered once why people made such a fust about children-"they were so very common.<sup>7</sup> UNBERGROUND RAILWAY IN LONDON. In consequence of the numerous obstruct ions to the passage of vehicles in London, a ovel seeme has been designed to afford mofe apid locomotion from one part of the city to another. The Daily News says in a late edtorial. An underground railway is to be construced, reaching ar first only from Edgeware road in King's-cross, under the new road .-The railway is to consist of two lines in a continuous archway of ample dimensions, well lighted ap, thoroughly purified and dry. Stations, about half a mile apart, are to be placed at the corners of different streets crossing the New road. Trains are to run at short intervals, probably of 3 minutes, and a speed of twenty miles per hour is anticipated. The word "tunnel," which would a "ise to most persons' lips in' speaking of a construction of this nature, is objected to, and that of "arcade" proposed, because while a" tunnel suggests ideas of steam and smoke and damp, the undergroydd railway is, we are told, to be free from all thes causes of annoyance. The ordinary lecomotive is not to DESPATRISS .- The citizens of Watten be employed, and some other means of traccounty, seeming to regard the Sunbury and tion or propulsion employed. The carriages Erie Railroad as a failure, are turning their are to be large and well vestilated, and it is A Convention was to have assembled at the chance of sufficiation on the one hand, Warren last week for the purpose of consid- and theomatism on the other. The first proering the expediency of a subscription by posed is to be only a fraction of the whole proposition is so nevel that it would be premature at present to pass a decided opinion The Charleston Courier has come to the upon it. It will be sufficient to say that the conclusion, "after due deliberation, that the | company have obtained an Act of Parliament, British love for the negro, and the Russian that the Parliamentary and other preliminalonging after Constantinople, are nothing ty expenses have been moderate, and that an more than an epicurean predilection for Ham eminent engineering firm has offered to construct a line from Tyburnia to Kings-cross for £300,000. These circumstances promise an REV. HENRY WARD BEECHER, of Brooklyn, early realization of the plan. Should this be brother of Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe, has the case, the way will be open to a large been presented by a few of the wealthy number of improvements. Should this plan members of his congregation, with some be adopted, it may probably lead to a very $15,000, for the purchase of a country-seat remarkable change in the appearance of for a summer residence. Mr. B. has accord- London. The bosiness men may be underingly purchased a farm in the beautiful town ground, whilst the loungers are above. Beof Lenox, Mass., where he will erect a cot- ing able traverse London is adout twelve tage for the occupancy of himself and fami- minutes, the business man will never walk. A great portion of London may then perchance lose that strange aspect of desperate turmoil which frightens the quiet country visitor, and

Miscellancous Matter. "Eureka, Eureka." WE HAVE FOUND IT AT LAST. MRS. HUNTLEY'S EXAGGERATION.

NOW for the little ones. Why will parents waste hours and days in fruitless endeavors to get perfect pictures of their children and after "Oh! there are thousands ?" said little all get nothing but a poor, miserable caricature ? Mrs. Huntley, to her dress-maker, who We would say, come to our was measuring silk by the yard, "thousands EXCELSOIR GALLERY and plenty. and we will guarantee to make you a perfect picture, by our ELECTRO CREMICAL process,

SUNBURY

H. B. MASSER, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

that works in from ½ to 2 seconds. We defy any Daguerrean in Philadelphia or elsewhere, to compete with us, as we are the $1 00 paper. She knew it was in rebuke for her 25 300 500 500 300 inventors, and the process is used only in our different establishments in New England and the Middle States. For pictures of adults, the silver medals we have received from the American YOU. 10.00 Institute, New York and Franklin, Philadelphia, together with the numerous premiums from ounty Fairs, is sufficient proof that they are the Ne Plus Uttra of perfection. We would call particular attention to our Westfield, Mass.

N. B .- Cur establishment is illuminated by the brilliancy of our Pictures by Day, and by Professor Horseford's Safety Lamps by Night. "Come and see." Philad.

Office opposite the Court House Sunbury, Northumberland County, Pa. Prompt attention to business in adjoining unties

WM. M. ROCKEFELLER, TTORNEY AT LAW

SUNBURY, PA. Dec. 13, 1851 .--- tf.

M. L. SHINDEL, ATTORNEY AT LAW, SUNBURY, PA.

December 4, 1852 .- tf.

DOCTOR 1. W. HUGHES. FFICE on Broadway, near the Episcopal Church, Sunbury. Sunbury, May 14, 1853.-tf.

AWRENCE HOUSE. SUNBURY, PA.

THE subscriber respectfully informs his friends, and the public generally, that he has opened te "Lawrence House" and will do his best enavors to please the public. SAMUEL THOMPSON.

Sunbury Feb. 26, 1853.--tf.

SLAYMAKER & HASLETT. Columbia Mouse, Chestnut Street below 7th. PHILADELPHIA.

Phila., May 28, 1853 .- 1v. Lumber Yard. TTORNEY AT LAW. THE subscriber would respectfully inform the L citizens of Sunbury, and Northumterland and adjoining counties, that he has opened a Lumber Yard in the lot fronting on Cranberry St., a short dis-tance East of the Steam Saw Mill, where he has now a large amount of Seasoned Pannel Plank, also Pannel Boards, and all other Boards and BUILDING MATERIAL, such as will be wanted for Sunbury, May 28, 1853 .- 1y.

PROCLAMATION. NOTICE is hereby given that a Special Court of Common Pleas, in and for the County of Northumberland, to commence at the Court Honse, in the borough of Sunbury, at 10 o'clock, A. M., on Monday the 31st day of October next, and will continue ONE WEEK.

Jurors are requested to be punctual in agreeable to their notices.

and the Independence of the United States of America the 78th. • WILLIAM B. KIPP, Sheriff.

exaggeration, so she said laughing-"I William Huntley had never been pleased with this peculiarity of his pretty bride .--- er lord of creation, that "When wonna won't she won't, And there's the end on't." Never was the young and handsome Kate Huntley more voluble, or in better spirits building purposes. Also a large amount of Shingles on hand, which will be sold from $6 up to $8, according to quality and size. Please give is a call-and examine our prices and quality. N. B. Farmers who are in want of Shingles will please call as we will sell to you low. J. E. LEIB, Sup.

day."

Given under my hand at Sunbury, the 27th day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three,

List of Causes.

with perfect abandon. The Huntleys were to have a small par- market is created for all'kinds of provisions to try an experiment which he had long had in contemplation. So when the ladies had assembled, and the gentlemen were fast dropping in, with the rest came young Huntley, looking quite flushed and nervous. asked his wife, looking up with mock dis- the centre of a flourishing business. But pleasure.

working like a dray horse ; thousands of to ship off, millions of accounts to attend, besides it's been hotter than six ovens all

By this time every eye was upon him-grew rosier. "What do you think of L's new book ?" asked a gentleman, as the conversation there, were $6,372.09, making a round sum turned on literature.

"Heavenly !" exclaimed Huntley, roll- of $6,466 09 paid to the State in 1852, ing his eyes, and casting a half furtive against $6 paid in 1845.

"Oh ! Katy, Katy," cried her husband, "you are incorrigible." But Katy did try, and may you, dear reader succeed as well as she .- Olive Branch of your readers. visited this place, and some of our neigh-Just then she caught a sly glauce from boring towns, a few weeks since, thus her young husband, as he looked over his speaks of the importance of our iron manufactories. The Iron works referred to, in can't help it. William, 'if I was to die,' so the following remarks, are those of Mr. just let me talk as I please ; I don't hinder Samuel R. Wood, in Point township, three miles this side of Danville :

> OUR IRON MANUFACTURES. Vhe editor of the North American, who

On the banks of the North Branch, a few The habit of exaggeration he knew led to miles from Danville, in 1845, was a farm, embellishment, and that to unscrupulous which supported an ordinary family, and Talbotypes—Daguerreotypes in Oil. D. C. COLLESS & Co., 100 Chestnut Street Philadelphia. Main street, opposite site Hamp-den House, Springfield and Collins' Building, er lord of creation, that falsehood Ever since their wedding-day he had tried seriously to check this propen-sity, But alas! he found like many anoth-er lord of creation, that prior the state some S6 in taxes. In that year, au intelligent and enterprising gentle-men-formerly a resident of Philadelphia, where he is still highly estermed - murchased falsehood. Ever since their wedding-day paid the State some $6 in taxes. In that he had tried seriously to check this propen- year, an intelligent and enterprising gentlewhere he is still highly esteemed-purchased the premises, and commenced building a furnace, with the usual apportenances. Iu 1846 he began to make iron, and has continthan to-day. The magic of fine colors and ued to do so ever since. Last year he tornrich silks, and the winning small talk of ed out 4200 tons of pig metal, and this year the little dress-maker, who was a droll ge- he expects his yield will be much greater nius in her way, had set her tongue on hin- His establishment, including the ore mines, ges, and she indulged her besetting habit gives employment to about seventy men and sixty horses. As these are all consumers, a ty in the evening, and Mr. H. determined and grain, which is supplied by the farmers of the neighborhood A store has also to be maintained on the premises, where dry goods and groceries and all sorts of wares are dis. posed of. Here then we have a single farm "Why are you so late, M. Huntley ?" converted into a thrifty village, and become this is not all. In 1845, as we have said, the "My dear, if it had been to make my last farm paid a State tax of $6; in other taxes will and testament, I couldn't have come it paid $8. In 1852, the same property paid sooner," he said earnestly. "I've been a State tax of $81; license for the store, to notice us, Nature has been kind beyond $13; and county, poor, and other taxes, clerks to oversee, twenty thousand cartloads $104 54-altogether $198 54-a rather conexample. Our fields are fertile, yielding to rude culture abundant harvests-our forests siderable increase over the $14, the former inexhaustible in pine and oak-our hills filled total. More that this even. In 1845, the farm having no produce to be transported to astonishment and mirth predominant; but a distance, and requiring no bulky supplies our young husband took it cooly, wiped from abroad, contributed nothing to the intheir attendance, at the time appointed his heated brow, and looked as unconcerned come of the canal, which flows directly beand innocent as if he had said nothing to side it. In 1852, the tolls paid for iron made attract attention ; but his wife's rosy cheeks in the same place, and sent by canal to various points, and for coal, ore, limestone and cian wilderness will yield a full retorn. Our ancient borough lies at the confluence merchandize brought by canal to be used of two great rivers-the N ath and West Branches of the Susquehanna. It is supposed to have been founded, in remote times, by county will never know the want of able and From the North American and U.S. Gazette. distinguished citizens to fill her offices of NORTHUMBERLAND, Sept. 19, 1853. profit and honor !

As this portion of Pennsylvania is growing in consequence and interest, owing to the contemplated improvements, a short letter concerning its geography, prospects and cir- growing village, surrounded for miles away the careful breeding of the domestic varieties cumstances, may prove acceptable to some Until quite recently, the great natural be a flourishing and wealthy place. wealth of the country, bordering the two branches of the Susquehanna, has been very inadequately appreciated by the citizens of Philadelphia. To missapprehension, and not to a want of liberal enterprise on her of the first named are still to be found occa- stringy; and of a certainty are no ornament part, do the people of Central Pennsylvania sionally. But the eighty years have not to the farm yard, their form being awkward While New York, by way of Cattawissa, herself. s stretching out her gigantic arms to grasp our trade, and while Baltimore, with febler Hastily, yours.

clutch, is aiming at the same object, our own great Capital is compatively inert-procrastinating-suicidical. It is true, a corporation, miles below Quebec, and terminating at a will govern people."-Baltimore Sun. point opposite Detroit. The road will pass through or near Quebec, Montreal, Kingston, Belleville, Cobourg, Toronto and Hamilton, forty to forty-five millions of dollars.

poctrn.

With smiling lips and dancing eye, My wife desired a kiss, A reasonable request, which I

To grant her wish I sprung with haste; But oh ! most strange to tell, Upon her rosy lips the taste Was greater than the smell.

Although her soft white hand I prest. And in a loving way Folded her warmly to my breast, in which Lancaster takes the lead, has opened away for the inexhaustible coal fields of Shamokin to the Susquehanna. It is true, other companies are building railroads among the mountains, which in a few months will place Northumberland and Sunbury within a seven hours' ride of Philadelphia But the Great Erie Railroad, through divided conn-sels (Councils,) remains unmade, and almost unattempted. To those who comprehend the resouces o middle and nortwestern Pennsylvania, and the vast trade of the region lying upon the Lakes, it is useless to urge that this work must prove the crowning glory of Philadelimpute her remarkable inaction.

BURNY TR

phia-the cap-sheaf on her shock of prosperity and greatnass. Let her men with the long purses come up and see for themselves what we have to ren-

with limestone, coal and iron -riches more real and substantial than the gold of Australian or Californian mines. But, as yet, these benefactions of Nature are comparatively undeveloped and profitless. Let the American Athens open her coffers, and this Thra-der our country interesting. We will show them that, although Art has barely deigned omotives, cars, station houses, warehou-

A KISS .--- AFFECTING.

By no means took amis.

I turned my nose away.

Stephenson, the celebrated engineer. The

Phila., May 28, 1853		FOR Special C Northumberla	ourt of Con and County to
Dilworth, Branson & Co. IMPORTERS OF & DEALERS IN Foreign and Bomestic IARDWARE, CUTLERY, &C. No. 59 Market St., 1 duor below 2d St, PHILADELPHIA.		Monday, the 31st day of Octobe 1853. James Graham vs Hu Com'th for Wm L Heineman vs Com'wealth for S. D. vs T, A Jordan Mahonoy and Shamokin Improvement co vs Abs
Where they always deen on hand a large stock of every variety of Hardware, Cutlery, &c.		Kenderton Smith's same	ex'rs. vs
	enry D. Landis, mes M. Vance.	Jane Bogar v Henry Donnel et al Robert Philips vs	s George vs Hugi Zerby Run
THE DEAD BROUGHT TO LIFE!		J	AMES BEAL

Prothonotary's Office, Old Sunbury rising out of her sleep of many unbury, Aug. 27, 1853 .---

The Iron horse snorting and blowing has arous EDWARD DUFFY & SON. ed her sleeping energies and infused new vigor Soap & Candle Manufacturers into her prostrate system. One of its first effects is seen in the vast amount of new and fashiona AND DEALERS IN ring, they are now prepared to offer induce named articles. Purchasers will find an excel-

"Quick Sales and Small Profits."

Notice

TO CARPENTERS & BUILDERS.

FLOORING BOARDS.

get out timber to order, with promptness and he shortest notice, either on the river bank at Lower Augusta, August 6, 1853 .- If.

CHEAP

WINDOW SHADE

Depot and Manufactory

G. L. MILLER & CO.,

PHILADELPHIA.

Merchants and others are invited to give us

LEATHER.

FRITZ & HENDRY,

Store, 29 N. 3d street.

PHILADELPHIA

Commision and General Leather Business.

Phila., August 20, 1853 .--- 1y.

Morocco Manufacturers, Curriers, Importers

WHOLESALE & RETAIL.

Manufactory 15 Margaretta Street

Streets, Philadelphia

August 13, 1853.- 6m.

corner Arch and Second Stree

Farmers and others, in Union county

CHARLES GOSSLER.

No. 44 Filbert street, above 9th, Philadelphia. August 13, 1853.-3m.

dealars in the alove

Soda, Starch, Castlle Soaps, &c. AVING increased facilities for manufactu I. W. TENER & CO'S STORE.

Our motto is lespatch.

nents to purchasers and

Their stock is elegant and varied and well worth seeing : aye, and buying too at the prices they offer them ; all are respectively invited to inspect lent assortment of select goods. Goods sold exand purchase. Sunbury, Sept. 10, 1853.

years.

hle goods, just now arrived at

WM. MCARTY. ROOKSELLER Market Street, SUNBURY, PA.

JUST received and for sale, a fresh supply of EVANGELICAL MUSIC or Singing Schools. He is also opening at time, a large assortment of Books, in every pranch of Literature, consisting of Poetry, History, Novels, Romances, Scientific Works, Law, Medicine, School and Children's Books, Bibles ; School, Pocket and Family, both with and without Engravings,-and every of variety of Binding. Prayer Books, of all kinds. Also just received and for sale, Purdons Digest of the laws of Pennsylvania, edition of 1851, price only $6,00. Judge Reads edition of Blackstones Commer

Sunbury, or a mile below. For further particutaries, in 3 vols. 8 vo. formerly sold at $10,00, lars address the subscriber or Samuel Gossler. and now offered (in fresh binding) at the low Sunbury. price of $6,00. A Treatise on the laws of Pennsylvania respecting the estates of Decedents, by Thomas F Gordon, price only $4,00.

Travels, Voyages and Adventures,---all of which will be sold low, either for cash, or country produce. February, 21, 1852 .---- tt.

NOTICE,

BANK OF NORTHUMBERLAND, Northumberland, June 25, 1853. 5 The Directors of the Bank of Northumberland

EVERY VARIETY OF SHADES, Whole give notice that they intend to apply to the next Legisleture of this Commonwealth, for a renewal of its charter with the same capital, and with its present title, location and privileges. By Shades executed at short notice. order of the Board. trial. We will try to please. Brasses, Trimmings, &c., always on hand.

JNO. TAGGART, Prest. June 25, 1853.--6m

Brittania Ware

N.

AND CANDLE MOULDS.

THE subscribers wish to call the attention of dealers to their superior quality of Brittania Lamps, Tea Setts, Candle Moulds, of the finest finish. All goods warranted. CALVERLEY & HOLMES, Diladelphia 109 Race street, Philadelphia. Phila., August 6, 1853.-2t.

RESH Vanilia Bean of a superior quality just received and for sale by June 4, 1853 - H. B. MASSER.

WRITING FLUID and self sealing Enve-April 19, 1851.- H. B. MASSER. Ginger, 25 cent mmon Pleas of glance towards his wife. "It sets me in to commence on perfect raptures-I feed on ambrosia--1 er next, A. D., drink nectar. If I could see the author I owly Bellus et al sT A Billington | and give it to him." A smile went round the assembly. A. Billington &

"By the way, I've been round to Allen's largely of the products of the soil and the labail new house," he added, following up his bors of the manufacturer and mechanic, as raham Paul advantage. "Happy Allen! what a situa-A. C. & T. G. tion ! Soft, balmy airs, blowing over a salt Morris marsh loaded with vapors-a palace of a same house-two stories high and painted yel-P Buyers et al low-glorious trees-cut down within a south and west, and one from the north and rh Bellas 1 and Shamokin foot of the ground-splendid garden-with northeast, and the amount of the correspon cement Company ARD, Proth'y. one rosebush-and a wilderness of pig- deace is large and constantly increasing. weed-charming view-flats on every side The working people, who are chiefly for -delightful pond-peeping here and there eigners, forward and receive numerous let under the thick green scum and duckters, and some of them make considerable weed-I should think Allen would be as remittances to their friends. In a recent inhappy-well, I can't think of anything less stance, a father and son, who had been in than a king." the country but a few months, obtained, By this time the company were pretty through the proprietor of the works, a Bill of well initiated into Huntley's secret. The Exchange for £32 sterling, to be applied to ladies laughed faintly, for they were every one of them guilty in a greater or less de- bring out other members of the same family Here are a few facts worthy to be considgree of hyperbole-as perhaps you may be, reader. They rallied, however, and jested ered for their intrinsic value, and which are with their tormentor, but he sustained his eminently suggestive of the future which part admirably throughout the evening .- awaits, not only the valley of the Sasque-Every song that was sung bid fair to set him hanna, but the whole of Pennsylvania.

in raptures. If he told the truth he was intending to die twenty times-transported COURTESY OF THE BAR .- Joseph Heyfron out of himself with joy twice as often ; never was so delighted in all his life, every five minutes-and by the way he risked THE subscriber respectfully informs the citi-zens of Sunbury, and the public generally, his thousands one would have thought him cashier of the bank of England. Everythat he has on hand for sale, a large lot of yellow thing was "sublime or horrible;" every woman "beautiful as an angel," or homely satisfied, Joe took up Blackstone and com-He has also on hand a quantity of excellent broad as a "hedge fence."

In vain his pretty wife endeavored by all chestnut rails and posts. He is also prepared to the masonic signs of wealock, to stop her roguish husband; and she could scarcely can be supplied with any of the above articles on keep her equanimity till the last guest had gone. Then she burst into a passion of tears, and "would not be comforted." "Come, Katy, tell me how it all looked and sounded ;" said Huntley, halt relenting that he had vexed her so.

sage to show what a divil of a fool Black-"You know you looked ridiculous," she stone was. answered through her sobs; "you know you mortified me half to death. 1 wish-mother-had-been-here, you wouldn't have dared to treat me so. I shall never hold up my head again in society. thought I should die."

spairing at the failure of his efforts, "how Sale and Retail, such as Scroll, Flower, Gothic, Vignette, Oil and Dry Landscapes, are do you think you sounded yesterday, when structions, told her to boil some string-beans, to be had at the lowest prices for quality of work. Orders for Gilt, Plain Store, Lettered and other you declared your neck was broken because you tripped over a brush-or when your was a mile to large ; were not those expressions fully as ridiculous as mine ?" Remember 8. W. corner SECOND & ARCH as I can help it," she said pettishly, "I've cord. talked so ever since I was born." "Is there any need of such extravagance. Katy ! come, let your good sense answer." Katy, only pouting a very little, "but I can't help it ; everybody talks so." "Not everybody, Katy. Come, what shall I get you if you will only break yourself of this odious habit ? 1'll buy you a beautiful little pony." "Oh, delightful !" exclaimed Katy ; "I'd FOR sale at this office, Superior Black Ink, passing an altered Bill."

one Rip Van Winkle, who distributed the On this single farm, or, rather, what was town lots among his children. "Sleepy Hola farm then---and the case is by no means low" is situated about midway between this exceptional-in six years the income to the place and Sunbury--which was also laid out should certainly take my heari in my hand, State has increased literally a thousand-fold :

by a near relative of Rip's. How such lazy and seventy men with their families earn a rascals happened to select so beautiful a spot comfortable subsistance, and consume so for their operations is a mystery to accidental way-farers. Perhaps in all the world, scenes of greater natural loveliness cannot to futnish employment to many-many more. be found than those which can be viewed On the same farm there is a now now a post from the tops of the surrounding mountains. office, with two daily mails, one from the As you have seen for yourselves, and as your readers, I trust, will some day, I shall not attempt a description. In truth, it would be a vain effort. Fields, forests, towns, hills, valleys, mountains and rivers stretching on all sides into invisible distance, may scarce be painted, much less written about. On the North Branch is Danville, eleven miles distant, with its extensive and flourishing iron works. Bight or ten miles forther are Catawissa and Bloomsburg. Then Ber. wick, and 60 miles from this point Wilkesbarre and the great Wyoming coal region. On the West Branch are situited Lewisburg, 8 miles off ; Milton, 12; Williamsport, 40 by the course of the river ; Jersey Shore, 55. and Lock haven 67.

Of these latter, Lewisburg and Williamsport are the flourishing,-the one growing Amboy Railroad, it is said, have compromirapidly in wealth and population from the sed with the Rev. James Purviance, of Mis-Brush. Musser's, and Penn ; the other by an his wife and child, were injured in the fearry of the country. Abounding from an early recovered. period in Generals, Colonels, Majors and Judges, she has frequently been considered a seperate commonwealth to herself, and is known among the trout fishers and possum Williamsport."

Two miles south of us, as you are well aware, is situated our twin sister, Sunbury i OBEVING ORDERS .- A gentleman and lady a town also remarkable for distinguished residing at Cambridgeport had in their em- men and editors, statesmen and patriots. In no place on the face of the earth are the beploy, as domestic, an Irish girl, fresh from the Old Country. The lady, on going out to nefits of the Free School system so apparent. is able and willing to serve his country in any profitabl capacity, from Connty Treasurer down to President of the United States. I will not be guilty of "scandalum magnatum"

The region immediately contiguous to this Katy reflected a moment. "I don't see had strung all the beans in a row on a tow village, is well adapted to the cultivation of water melons, and animals of a amphibious nature. But lately the huge embankments of the railroad company bid fair to dry up said a tipsy individual, who was hanging by frog ponds and turtle patches, and before "Why no, I suppose not; answered a lamp-post; "Look 'ere, didn't you know many years the census of Sunbury will show that you'd no right to go by me in that way?" a great increase of pigs and people, and a "Why not, my friend " asked the person proportional diminution of water rats and buladdressed, who recognised in the "tight 'un' rushes. The loss of drift wood will be com-

an old acquaintance. "Because-hic-hic- pensated by a gain in coal dust, while the it's ag'in the law." "Against what law ?" rattle of car-wheels will be considered by "Why, you used to know Bill Nelson, when many, a fair exchange for the cloaking of do anhth ng in the world for such a gift- he was-a-highly different individual to tadpoles. All hail great Sunbury! Hereafter Cattle Medicine at 25 cts, Pure Essence of yes, I'll stop it if I have to cut my longue what he is now-and there's a big law ag'in your patriots will be numbered not by hundreds, but by thousands, and Northumberland | be well fattened-

My wife-a spunky piece of stuff, As everybody knows-Demanded of me, in a huff, What made me cuil my

Says I, why nearly every day, You sweet, you naughty sinner, You will, in spite of all I say, Eat onions for your dinner.

WIDOW OF JOHN HANCOCK .- Mrs. Hancock, he widow of John Hancock, of the Revolution, married James Scott. Her last days were seelnded. Those who were admitted to her little supper table, were considered highly honored. When Lafavette was last in this country, he made an early call upon her, and they who were witness, speak of it with admiration. The once youthful chevalier and the unrivalled belle met, as if only a summer had passed since they had enjoyed sociel interviews during the perils of the Revolution. She was attentive in her very last days to taste in dress, as when in the circles of fashion. "She would never forgive a young girl," she said, "who did not dress to please ? nor one who seemed pleased with her dress."

RAILROAD DAMAGES .---- The Camden and trade of the tich valleys of Buffato, Sugar, sissippi, (formerly of Baltimore,) who with immense and increasing lumber business .- ful collision of the cars on their road on the This town, as the southern terminus of the Sitt of August, by paying him $10,000 dam-Williamsport and Elmira Railroad, and as an ages Mr. Purviance's foot was slightly important point on the Sunbury and Erie, burt, his daughter's thigh broken, and his must inevitably be a great place in the com- lady badly hurt in the hips. They are still mercial, as heretofore in the political, histo- det ined in New York, but have all nearly hunters of this section, as the "State of attention to the Meadwille and Chio Road .- asserted that travellers will be protected from the county to the stock of the Road.

and Turkey 11

ly during the summer months.

KENTUCEY papers are of opinion that there will be a large surplus of hogs in that State makes him feel like a solitary leaf flung amidet the boiling eddies of a whirlpool. this year. The hogs are more abundant than ever, and the corn crops in the most promising condition, so that the pork this year will mations

South Carolina possesses no limeatone for-20

how to prepare dinner, and, among other in-

PASSING AN ALTERED BILL .-- "Look 'ere,"

an Irish barrister with a broad broage, was trying to convince Judge Starling, in the Lauderdale court, one day, that something he laid down as law was law; but the judge promptly roled the point against him. Not menced reading a passage to prove that he was right. But the judge interrupted him

somewhat indiguantly with the interrogatory. "Mr. Heyfron, do you mean to say that this court does not understand the law ??

"Oh, no, yer honor," immediately rejoined

Joseph, in his blarneyist hish; "I don't mean to say that yer honor don't understand the law, but I was merely reading the pas-