THE SALEM PRESS is authority for the following: A farmer in this town hired, last Spring, a young Irishman, to work upon his farm. He labored faithfully, and gave good satisfaction-when, about a week ago, the discovery was made that this faithful hand was a lass of the Emerald Isle. She could Calicoes, Ginghams, Lawns, Berage de Laines. plough, hoe corn, swing a scythe, take, load, and pitch hay with the best of them; but she was not very good at the cradle.

THE Union Passenger Station, Indianapolis, has been opened for business. it is 420 feet long'[100 feet wide, cost about $30,000, and accomodates five railroads. There is a suit of rooms on the building, of which one first floor is used as the ticket office, one as a ladies' reception room, and one as a man's waiting room. The different railroad tracks are labelled with the names of roads, stations, times of starting, &c. The arrangements throughout are admirable.

A SUCCESSFUL Application of Chloroform is mentioned in the London press, upon a man of immense physical power, while under a violent attack af cholera. While in the most violent paroxysms of pain and spasm, the chloroform was administered, and the stroggling giant tamed into the quiet sleeping infant. The functions being suspended, the horrible symptoms ceased, the medicines became absorbed, and in an hour the man was restored to consciousness, and the disease was conquered.

EDWARD EVERETT.

During the short time that Mr. Everett remained in the office of Secretary of State, under Mr. Fillmore, he gained the confidence of the country by his firm and dignified con- And every variety of goods suitable for Laduct; and he has shown so true an American dies wear. spirit in his two letters on the Cuban question, coupled with such ability and boldness, that he has received the approbation of all parties. Mr. Everett differs greatly from all our statesmen in his habits, and is, doubtles, a more accomplished and scholarly man then any member of Congress, or any prominent member of either of the two great political parties. His whole life has been a remarkable series of success not achieved by accident, but by effort and desert. Before he Besides the largest and most general assorthad attained his majority, he was the pastor ment of all kinds of goods to be had in this of one of the largest and wealthiest churches in Boston. He was afterwards editor of the "North American Review," and was the author of the best articles it has ever contained. He was professor of Greek literature in Harvard College, several years member of Congress, Governor of his nativo State, Ambassador to England, President of Harvard University, Secretary of State, and now is a member of the Senate of the United States. by In all those various positions he has been a foremost man, and distinguished by his ability; but, not more by his ability than by his simple republican habits, and his patriotism. His sympathies have always been with the people, and though a member of the Whig party, he has always been theroughly demo cratic in his principles, and in his advocacy of public measures, as is abundantly shown in his two famous letters on the Cobs ques-tion.-Exchange paper.
