For the Sunbury American. Hughesville, Potter County, October 29 h, 1853.

DEAR SIR :- As a propogator of truth you will no doubt admit some of the following remarks in your esteemed paper, in order to dispel the uncertainty, which appears to prevail yet about our settlement. Most of you: tenders must have heard of Ole Bull's or the Norwegian Colony; they probably recollect too, its brilliant beginning, and may have heard something about its decease! It is true Ole Bolls colony, (in itself an improper name: baving produced among a number of Norwegians the opinion of forming an independant Norwegian state,) is no more. Ole Bullea isfied that he could neither to his own, nor other people's satisfaction or hearts content, gave up all his claims to the few thousand acres of land, he really possessed, and to all his personal property there to be found, for the handsome sum of 17,000 dollars But it is a great mistake to believe, that those beautiful lands he once owned, and all the others around them, are not worth cultivating because the famous musician failed in set thing them. On the contrary, since he is not any more concerned in the undertaking, every thing will go on very nice and practical. Though many of Mr. Bull's followers and proteges have gone away from here disgusted and dissatisfied, because they expected a little more than every thing without work: or at least with only the slightest degree of activity, there are still a number of excellent men here of Mr. Bull's importation, and constantly new comers make their appearance, and ask nothing better, than to settle in a land of promise, like Kettle Cresk valley and neighborhood. Our soil is unsurpassed, our timber in all its varieties of the best kind, our climate is charming and healthy like Arcadia, water- power is everywhere to be found, the same of game and excellent fish. Land is cheap at the average price of three dollars per acre, purchase conditions accomfind some exquisite society, learning and ed neation in all degrees, up to the very highest-You will find settlers from all parts of the glube living in perfect harmony. Let me give you but one example. At a late visit of a number of distinguished gentleman, among whom was our amiable and learned Attorney General, Mr. Hughes, in our settlement, a account of the beauty of the scenery and br - Christian Chronicle. ing convinced that the location is one, where any man might find and enjoy perfect hap-

We take the following from the Star of

New Year's Day in Washington .- All our world's agog to-day, drinking, eating and making merry. From 11 A. M. until 3 P. M., according to the prevailing custom, the houses of hundreds of persons, mostly in public life, were thrown open to all acquaintances who chose to call. Egg nogg and apple-toddy were ready for the guests in most of them, though it is not customary on such an occasion to drink sufficient to have it "show" upon the drinker. The day has been one of great hilarity, indeed, with all around us The President (who does not join in this universal treating) was visited by, perhaps, five thousand people, comprising persons in every walk of life. From 11 A. M. until 2 P. M., all parts of the reception rooms of the Executive Mansion were crowd. JULY, ed as no other reception chambers in this orrow the intelligence of the decease of her late comrade GEORGE M. GRANT Many estimable qualities endeared him to us. He was a generous, kind, true friend; a coldier always prompt active and efficient. We who have lost so dear a comrade, can well appreciate and sympathise with the keen angnish of his sorrowing relatives.

His early death cautions us to be roidy naich when the dram beats.
