The steamship Atlantic, Captain West, arrived out on Thursday, January 5th at noon. The weather has been very severe, and a deep snow fell, which caused a stoppage of the mails throughout Great Britain, France, and Belgium. It is feared that destructive floods will ensue upon the melting of the snow. It was the heaviest snow storm that had occurred for many years.

Turkish affairs are becoming more and more complicated, and a general European war is considered almost inevitable ENGLAND.

The weather has been very severe in England and in the north of Europe. The rail roads were blocked by snow for two days -In Belgium, it was several feet deep on the railways There was also thick ice at Madrid, and the Baltic, at the last accounts, was packed with floating ice.

There is much indignation against Prince Albert, particularly in the independent papers, and the public voice protests that he is a tool of Russia ; and Lord Aberdeen is under his influence. The Prince, it is stated, betrays all the Cabinet secrets to Russia, Austria and Germany. The matter it was expected, would come before Parliament. FRANCE.

Evans, commercial traveller, Chesdated September 7th, 1853 - To Professor Holloway.—Sir, For a considerable period I suffered dreadfully from bile, indigestion, and a disordered stomach. In the hope of obtaining relief I took a great variety medicines, but all proved of no avail; I was, however, recommended, by Mr. Hoghes, of Harlech, to try your Pills, and with pleasure I have to inform you that they soon restored my appetite; and I now enjoy the very best of health.
