The great birthday of American Freedor was ushered in by a clear sky and a scorching sun. At an early hour our mountain girt town was in bustling activity, preparing to commemorate the most remarkable epoch in our nation's history. The stores and shops were closed, the mines and works were deserted-all being anxious to partake of the joy and festivities of that day.

In the afternoon, pursuant to previous no. tice, the citizens of the place, formed in procession at the National Hotel, and escorted by the Shamokin Greys proceeded to a beautiful grove, adjoining the town. Here a large number ladies had gathered to greet and welcome them with their happy smiles

The meeting was organized by calling on J. P. Helfenstein, Esq., to preside; assisted by by Kimber Cleaver and Wm. Fagely Esqs., as Vice Presidents, and J. J. John as Secretary. The President on assuming the duties of the chair, returned his thanks in a priate exercises they were formed into a profew pertinent and appropriate remarks. A petition to the throne of Divine Grace was Greys" to a neighboring grove attended by then offered by the Rev. Mr. Ehrhart, after many cit zens. It was an interesting sight which the Declaration of Independence was read by the Secretary.

On motion Spencer M. Kase, Esq, then addressed the audience in a lengthy speech abounding in the most eloquent remarks .-His address was confined to the day we celebrate, the struggles of our forefathers, their Rev. R. Hill of Shamokin Collegiate Institute, sufferings and privations, and the bright prospects of our future. The toasts were by the Rev. Mr. McKehan of Sunbury. Both then read, and responded to by R. C. Helfenstein, Esq., Dr. Wm. Atwater and others ed to with much interest by those present. in a very able manner. The meeting then As is customary on such occasions, refresh. adjourned, and preceeded by the Shamokin Grevs returned to town amid the soul stirring music of fife and drum.

Now in conclusion one word for the Sha-Lake. Their noble bearing and manly deportment, have won for them universal respect, and the manner in which they acquit. te. thamselves in drill, speaks volumes in the Captain's favor as an officer.

N. B.-It is reedless to add that the refreshments were duly appreciated. REGULAR TOASTS.

For the Sunbury American THE FOURTH OF JULY AT SHAMOKIN. This birth day of our independence was celebrated at Shamokin in a manner troly worthy the day and the glorious event commemorated. The voice of rejoicing was heard at early dawn--gladness filled many hearts during the day, and sweet repose was granted to the slumberer at night.

Early in the morning, the tolling of the ers of Shamokin Sunday School at their ac customed place of meeting. After approcession and escorted by the "Shamokin to see above two hundred children, accompanied by their teachers, escorted by their brothers in arms, and followed by many parents and friends, remember this national Sabbath in so becoming a manner. After reaching the grove and all were seated, the addressed the audience. He was followed these addresses were appropriate and listenments were then distributed among the members of the school. So liberally had they been provided that not only the wants of the ch dren were satisfied, but the "good mokin Greys and their efficient officer, Capt. things" were freely shared out to others present. After singing the national air, the procession was reformed and the children were again escorted to town, to the Presbyterian church where they were dismissed, highly gratified with the exercises SHAMO of the morning.

"My Country 'tis of thee, Of thee I sing, &c."

For the Sunbury American. I am pleased to hear the name of BENJA-MIN PATTON, Esq., of Treverton mentioned as a candidate for the Legislature. He is eminently qualified for the station, and if elected will make a highly useful and honorable representative. He presided as President Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Alleghany county, for 10 years, and was highly esteemed for his legal abilities, street integrity, and impartiality. He is a gentleman of liberal and enlightened views, and will cheerfully land county, has now an opportunity of being sand, if necessary. represented in the Legislature, by a gentlean, competent in every respect

Mn Massan :- Permit me to call attenon to what can be done by industry and are, for improveing lands and increasing their value, by reference to my own experience. This summer I am offered $40 for the crop of hay off of a single acre of ground just out-side of town. Three years ago the same land was not deemed worth the taxes, and, in fact was regarded as a nuisance. Yours truly
