[From the Baltimore American, June 4.] A FAITBLESS WIFE.

There was quite an excitement created at one of our hotels a day or two since in consequence of a gentleman from Reading, Pa., finding his wife in company with another man. It appears that the husband had been from home for some time on v business tour, and had written to his wife to meet him at this city, where he would be at a certain time.-He reached Baltimore a day or two before he expected to do so, and the wife anticipating a or two of pleasure before his arrival, left her home in the company of a friend, who was to act as a protector until the arrival of the husband.

Both arrived at the same hotel without the knowledge of each other, and the wife took lodgings under another name. There was another gentleman from Reading stopping at the same house, who saw the truant wife, and meeting the husband, inquired after the health of Mrs. F., when he was told by the husband that he was there awaiting her arrival. He was then surprised to learn for the first time that she was then in the city and stopping at the same house with himself. An inquiry was at once made, and it was also discovered that she was in the house, and that she was in the same room with her pretended protector. He immediately went to the owner, and gaining admission, found that they were there as man and wife,

Instead of inflicting merited punishment upon the wretch who thus robued him of hapness, he contented himself with seeing them grand out of the house, and relinquishing all claims to her. We understand that the jured husband is a man of abundant means and was devoted in his attentions to the false creature who had trified with his honor and factions. She is said to be a young woman of prepossessing appearance and of good family, and that the fact of her infidelity has been made known to her aged parents. They include the hasbeen married but a short time, and the hasband anticipated to himself a life of unalloyed

CONSULAR DIFFICULTY -Mr. C. Dorwin, the American Consul at Montreal, Canada East, has issued a notice requiring all masters of United States mercantile vessels arriving advanced age. at that port to comply in future with the provisions of an act of Congress, passed on the 28th of February, 1853 directing every American vessel, on her arrival at a foreign port, to deposite her register with the Consul, der penalty of $500 fine. This seems a very ordinary matter, coming solely within the province of the Consul; but the Montrea commercial Advertiser treats it as a grave aggression upon the dignity of Britain and of the local authorities of Great Montreal, and proceeds, in a long and intemperate distribe, to berate the Consul for his presumption, and Americans generally for their alleged general disregard of the rights of other nations.

FROM BAD TO WORSE.—Mr. Hiss, the expelled member of the Massachusetts Legislature, has been trying to get his case before the Courts, and had himself arrested for debt, the Courts, and had himself arrested for debt,
The Court refused to hear the case, unless one, and not made up to get into the Courts.

Hiss basked out, and subsequently finding he did owe somebody, had himself re-arrested.
But the Judge refused a habeas corpus, and Mr. Hiss has to remain is jail. This was an

OUR PASTOR'S GRAVE.

BY MRS. M. A. STEVENS

Our pastor's lowly grave, It is a dear secluded quiet spot; Tempests that o'er dwellings howl and rave, There reacheth, shrieketh not.

Gracefully droops above, The sycamore of giant storm-tried arms;
As though the snowy tablet knew the love,
That shelters us from harm.

Thou art removed from strife, Few pass thy narrow home-childrens feet Quiet as eve to learn the way of life, Where divers footsteps meet.

Perchance a weeper comes, Clad in the garb that tokens deepest woe Leaving uncared life's toilsome busy hum, Deceived, deceiving show.

Upon the breast of God, Thou leanest where no clamor meets thine ear; He loveth thee for thou hast known His rod.

The lava-torrent tear. Thy rest of perfect day.

Becometh marvelous Gods vicegerent—
Fallen, a warrior in the thickest fray—

Thou art well sheltered there,

Beneath the sacred aisles thy feet have Where thou for many a wintry day did'st bear. The messages of God.

Time-honored, revered place, Thy halls rang with the lofty eloquence; That legions listen to of royal race, As thou demandest whence, Whence comes this regal crown, This diadem of more than mortal light? The scraphs answering echoes well nigh drown. "Thou hast well fought life's fight.

Who would not strike the lyre, And call forth notes of holiest numbers ; Nor would we with a cadence wild desire, To break thy quiet slumbers. Lawrenceville, Pa.

CITIZ FEMALE SEMINARY. We clip the following item from the Lan.

caster Whig, of the 5th inst :-Thursday commenced the annual vacation of the Litiz Female Seminary, and in the morning one hundred and twety-five of the young ladies, papils belonging to it, reached Laucaster in time to take the different railroad and stage lines to their homes. They were all in fine spirits and glee, buoyant with life and hope; rejoicing in the anticipation of meeting their parents, brothers, sisters and There were six large coaches in the train that brought them from Litiz, and a four horse wagon heavily loaded with baggage. The sight was most interesting. Long may they live and prove a blessing to themselves, to society and to the world. The Litiz schools have a reputation so widely and so favorably known as constantly to increase their fame and their scholars.

THE "OLD SOLDIERS,"-A bounty land warrant of 160 acres was forwarded to the President of the United States for military services rendered by him during the Mexican war. A similar warrant was forwarded to ex-President Tyler, for military services during the late war with England. Hon, William structed to procure the services of an Engi. L.
