

THE SIEGE OF SEBASTOPOL.

CAMP BEFORE SEBASTOPOL, May 21.—The rumor is that we open fire on the 24th (Thursday next), but that may be a ruse to distract the attention of "gossip and correspondents" from the expedition.

It is said that a private of the 48th Regiment has given some very valuable information respecting the terrain of Sebastopol, and has corrected a serious misconception under which our engineers were laboring respecting the course of a creek in front of the left attack.

It is certain that the Russians require an immense number of men to keep their communications in order, and to bring up their supplies to Sebastopol, wherever they may come from.

SCENES WITHIN SEBASTOPOL.

LETTER FROM A RUSSIAN THERE.

The Austrian Military Zeitung contains an interesting letter from Sebastopol, under date of May 13. The following is a summary:—"In spite of the effects of the bombardment, our bulwarks stand as fast as ever.

On the southern side of our town has suffered most severely, and is hardly to be recognized—500 houses have been totally destroyed, and grass is growing on their ruins.

On the northern side of our town has suffered most severely, and is hardly to be recognized—500 houses have been totally destroyed, and grass is growing on their ruins.

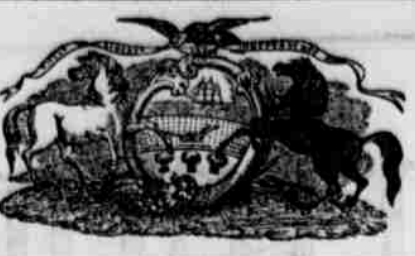

PHILADELPHIA AND SUNBURY RAILROAD.

We observe by the Philadelphia papers, that at a meeting of the Board of Managers of this Company, held at their office in Philadelphia, on Friday, the 22d inst., the Hon. Wm. L. Helfenstein was elected President of the Company, in place of David Longenecker, Esq., resigned.

The following is a copy of the letter of resignation, and resolution of the Board of Directors: To the Directors of the Philadelphia and Sunbury Railroad Company.

Gentlemen:—Having retained the Presidency of your Company, until the successful completion and operation of your Road, to the point contemplated when I accepted the situation, at a great sacrifice of my time and private interests, I now feel that I may retire from the position without injury to the road or its prospects.

Under these various circumstances, it appears that people may buy and drink imported liquors by the bottle as before, and that hotels, inns, &c. are permitted to supply their guests with liquors.

PROBABLE AFFILIATION OF WALKER AND KINNEY—LETTER FROM HEAD QUARTERS.

By the kindness of Col. Hiram Pearson we have obtained the following letter written to him by Col. Kinney, from which it would appear that the original idea of landing at San Francisco, and the Kinney immigrants from New York will meet about the centre of Nicaragua, and the results of their junction can hardly be doubted.

It is not generally known that Walker enters Nicaragua by the express invitation of Castillon, the Democratic candidate for President, and the plan of waging war against the servile or legitimate ruler by the chiefs of the late President Chamorro.

THE PAPAL POWER.

The N. Y. Journal of Commerce notices, at length, the efforts of Spain and Sardinian Governments to effect some temporal independence of the Pope of Rome.

The powerful vassals of the Pope have thus virtually thrown off the yoke of temporal power. The hand of ecclesiastical tyranny which has weighed heavily upon them for centuries, has been shaken away, and the chains of ages or political paralysis removed.
