DR. A. B. MADDOCK'S CELEBRATED WORK ON INHALATION In the Treatment and Cure of Consumption, Ashma, Bronchitis, and other Diseases of the Respiratory Organs, by Medical Inhalation.

WITH NOTES AND ADDITIONS First American edition, from fifth London edition, whose it has had an unprecedented sale.

This is a valuable work and should be in the hands of all invalids, and the Medical Profession generally. Forwarded free of charge, by mail, on receipt of FIFTY CRNES; cloth (gilt) one notice.

C. W. VAN HORN & CO.

No. 32 North Ninth St., Philadelphia.

We subjoin a few, from many commendatory notices and reviews from the English and American Medica and other Journals.

"Dr. Maddock is the son of the late Heury Maddock, Esq., M. P., the well known barrister, and promises to rise, in his own procession, in as eminent a degree as his parent.

"The system (inhalation) proposed as the most effectual method of applying a remedy to a portion of the system which enmot be directly reached by medicine tasif. We recommend the readers to purchase the Work."—Wesleyan Chronicle, London, Feb. 19, 1845.

"We recommend the Work to our readers, as it appears to be fully matured, cleanly written, and entirely divested of any quackery or pelf-seeking tendency. The Work well deserves perusal, and the practice, as for as our knowledge and experience extends, will repay not only a serious consideration, but a patient trial of its merits"—London Medical Journal, December 13, 1845.

"We think that no one can rise from its peusal, without being satisfied that it sube work of a practical and experienced man; and that it ought, for the sake of these who suffer from comments.

usal, without being satisfied that it is the work of a pracical and experienced man; and that it ought, for the sake of these who suffer from consumption, asthma, or bronchitis, to be brought into extensive circulation. It is, in the strictest sense of the term, a valuable Work."—Oxford University Herald, November, 7, 1848.

"A Re-Print of the London Edition of Mr. Maddock's Work on Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma, Ac.; with Notes, &c., by Dr. Chas, Greene—This Work will be found worthy the attention of our residers, for they may learn from it what can be expected from this mode of treating Consumption and other affections of the air-pessages. Dr. M. is evidently a man of considerable intelligence and whatever there is of good in inhalations of medicated vapors, he seems to have ability to extract, may, we go further, add say, that we fear that the Profession have not given sufficient attention to this mode of alleviating the sufferings of those laboring under this class of diseases."—New Jersey Medical Reporter, June, 1955.

(From Professor Jas, Bryan, Editor of the "Philipdelphip

"Dr. Mansock's sook on Inhalation is one of the few which have been issued from the English press on this autiset. Its re-publication in this country, with the judicious Notes of Dr. Greene, will add to the medical literature of the United States, and, it is hoped, excite some interest in the medical Profession on the subject of Inhalation, as a means of treating pulmonary affections. With the addition of modern discoveries in Physiology, this mode of treating these discasses should have a fair trial and some stomement made for the long neglect which In halation has suffered at the bands of medical men.

A CARD.

DR. GREENE will treat DISEASES OF THE LUNGS and AIR-PASSAGES, agreeably to the mode as successfully adopted in the practice of Dr. A. B. Maddeck, and other eminent physicians of Europe. By this mode of treatment the diseased surface of the Bronehi and Lungs are directly acted upon, the various medicated vapor being carried to the most minute ramifications of the Langs, producing healthy actions; where a complete disorganization has not taken place the best results always attend this feature of Practice; in fact, with sminable adjuncts, it is the only reliable form of treating diseases of the Respiratory Organs. He intends evoluting his sols attention to this particular branch of his profession. Those desirous of consulting him can do so by letter addressed to

With notes and additions, together with a short system of conveyancing. By A. Jordan, President Judge of the Eighth Judicial district of Pa., and Wm. M. Rockefeller and M. L. Shindel, of the bar of Northumberland county, Since the publication of the book, the following etter has been received from Judge Pearson of Harrisburg : HARRISBURO, June 30, 1853.

GENTLEMEN: After a careful examination of your "American pleaders assistant," I take pleasure in expressing my entire approval of the selection and composition of the precedents thus offered to the public. The legal profession in Pennsylvania stands in need of a correct system of pleading, adapted to our habits of business, and the practice of the courts. Your forms of declarations being to a great extent, founded on the acts of assembly will be a aving of labor to the pleader, and conduce to safety and brevity in our pleadings. It should be in the hands of every practising lawyer in our state.

Yours, with great respect, JNO. J. PEARSON. Hon. A. Jordan, Wm. M. Rockefeller and M. Shindel, Esquires.

W. McCarry, Esq., Dear Sir:-I received more than a year ago copy of "Reed,s Pleaders' Assistant" improved by Judge Jordan and others. I examined it with some care soon afterwards, and have had occasion to use it several times since. I think it decidedly valuable as a manuel for practising attorneys in Pennsylvania, and do not hesitate to recommend it. If it were generally used it would increase the accuracy of the profession in matters which are often very carelessly done. I am very truly yours, &c.,

I also received a copy of the Pleaders' Assistant, and have examined it sufficiently to enable me to concur very heartily in the above commendations by the Chief Justice
