

THE PACIFIC RAILROAD

KILLED AND WOUNDED

The magnificent train of cars which left the city yesterday morning on an excursion to Jefferson City to celebrate the opening of the Pacific railroad to that place, is now a mass of ruins, and infinitely worse than this, many of the noble hearts that participated in the pride of the occasion, are now stilled in death.

The train, consisting of fourteen cars, left the depot on Seventh street at 9 o'clock, crowded with invited guests, a half hour before the time advertised. By the time it reached Hermann this delay was fully recovered, thus showing the good condition of the track. After leaving Hermann the train proceeded with good speed, and without the least difficulty until it reached the Gasconade, when one of the most disastrous accidents occurred which has yet thrown this city into mourning.

The bridge across that stream gave way, and ten of the cars were precipitated a distance of twenty-five or thirty feet. The locomotive, from all appearances, had reached the edge of the first pier, when the structure gave way, and in falling reversed its position entirely, the front turning to the east, and the wheels upward. On the locomotive at the time were the President, Mr. E. H. Bridge, Mr. O'Sullivan, the chief engineer of the road, and an additional number of employees.

Mr. Bridge, it is supposed, is the only one saved of the individuals named. An hour after the disaster, voices from beneath the wreck of the locomotive, were heard asking for assistance, and when we left the scene of disaster active efforts were made to relieve the sufferers. It is possible—nay, it is to be hoped probable—that some of these unfortunate may have been rescued.

The road enters the bridge with a curve, and this circumstance, perhaps, prevented the disaster from being more fatal, as the cars thereby were diverted, and thus prevented from falling directly in a general hollow—Enough of injury, however, was accomplished. The baggage car next the engine went down—so to express the opinion of one who was in it—"extremely easy" without causing any serious casualty. The first and second passenger cars followed, and in these several were killed, and a great number more or less mangled.

In the third car, one or two were killed, only. This car, although in a dangerous position, and almost entirely demolished, was not fatal to a limb. In the fourth and fifth cars a great many were fatally injured, and several instantly killed. The balance of the train, followed swiftly on their fatal errand, and the loss of life, with casualties more or less severe, was dreadful.

Some of the persons who were beneath them with their ponderous wheels, and crushed or maimed the unfortunate persons below. Others hung upon the cliff in a perpendicular position, and two or three turned bottom upward down the grade. Only one—the extreme rear car—maintained its position on the rail.

A Misses Board.—The fortune left by the late Baron Dietrich, of Vienna, to his grandson, Prince Sulkowits, amounts to fifteen millions of florins, ($9,000,000). There were found in the cellar 22 bags, each containing 1000 ducats in gold, and in different chests securities out of date and lost for a sum for a sum 150,000 florins. This practice of hoarding gold is said to be very common in Austria, where the paper currency is greatly depreciated.

A Melancholy List.—The Norfolk (Va.) News publishes a formidable list of letters remaining in the Post office of that city on the 1st inst., which occupies nearly half a page of the paper. A large number of these letters, the letters are addressed are among the "reluctant dead."

WILLIAMSON VS KANE.—Judge Kane was served with a summons yesterday at the residence of his brother-in-law, George Leiper, Esq., in Delaware county, Pa., to appear in the case of Pasmore Williamson for trespass and false imprisonment.—Philad. Sun.

The Postman who speaks of "winter hugging in the lap of spring" which it needs no poet to tell us the time here this season, the last two days having been decidedly wintry. Nor does it need a poet to inform the public that for all sorts of weather there is a very abundant provision of suitable and fashionable clothing at Rockhill & Wilson's cheap store, No. 111 Chestnut street corner of Franklin Place.

Notices to Contractors.

PROPOSALS will be received by the undersigned at the engineer's office of the Northern Central Railway, in Harrisburg, until the 15th of November, at six o'clock in the evening, for the grading and masonry of the Northern Central Railway, commencing at Bridgeport, opposite Philadelphia, and running to Sunbury, a distance of about 54 miles. Also the work from Rockdale to Canton, a distance of 3 miles. On this end of the road there is a tunnel 3,000 feet long, to be graded for double track. The work is very heavy, and worthy the attention of good contractors. Plans and specifications of the above work can be seen at the engineer's office three days prior to the letting.
