NEW GOODS.
LARGEST AND BEST ASSORTMENT
CHEAP, HANDSOME & DURABLE.
THE subscriber takes pleasure in informing his customers generally that he is now in receipt of an unusually large and Splendid Assortment of New Goods.
To endeavor to enumerate the one hundred part of the articles would be useless. Suffice it to say, they will be disposed of at the lowest prices, and the same quality can be purchased elsewhere.
My motto is—"Quick Sales and Small Profits."
He takes this method of presenting to the public his thanks for the liberal patronage extended to him, and by strict attention to business, he respectfully solicits a continuance of the same. It will be advisable for purchasers to call and examine his assortment before purchasing elsewhere. All kinds of produce taken in exchange.

The Scientific American.
Eleventh Year.
Splendid Engravings and Prizes,
The Scientific American is published weekly commencing on the 17th of September, 1855.
The "SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN" is an illustrated periodical, devoted to the promotion of the progress of science, art, manufactures, agriculture, engineering, mechanics, and all interests which the light of practical science is calculated to advance.
Reviews of S. P. Estlin's works are also published every week, including all copies of the Patent Claims, Laws, orders and instructions upon thousands of other subjects.
The contributors to the Scientific American are among the most eminent scientific and practical men of the times. The editorial department is universally acknowledged to be conducted with great ability, and is distinguished not only for the excellence of its articles, but also for the judiciousness and accuracy of its selections, and for the numerous valuable suggestions which are contained in its columns.
Mechanics, Inventors, Engineers, Chemists, Manufacturers, Agriculturists, and people of every profession in life, will find the Scientific American a most valuable and interesting volume. It is published every week, for their respective callings. Its contents and suggestions will save them hundreds of dollars annually, besides affording them a continual source of knowledge, the experience of which is beyond price.
The Scientific American is published weekly; every number contains eight large quarto pages, forming a weekly paper, and is published at the rate of $3.00 per annum, in advance, or $1.00 per month, in advance.
For further particulars apply to the publishers, at the place above mentioned, or to the proprietors, at the office of the American Printing-Office, No. 235 Fulton Street, New York.
New York, October 10, 1855.—

NOTICE.
All persons knowing themselves indebted to Ira T. Thompson, on Book account, notes or otherwise, are requested to call and pay up without delay, otherwise their accounts will be placed in the hands of a magistrate for collection.
