THE OCEAN MAIL MERVICE.

The following extracts from the Postmaster General's report show the operations, revenue arising from, and cost of our ocean mail service :

The aggregate amount of postages, sen, inhand and fereign, on the mails conveyed during the year by the United States line of ocean steamers, exceeds the previous year in the sum of $181,067 17. This increase is Collins steamers, and was caused by the tem-porary withdrawal, in November, 1854, of the British mail pickets of the Canard line, running between New York and Liverpool, in consequence of which the amount of mails conveyed between these ports by the steamears of the Collins line were largely increased. The increase of postage, as compared with the previous year, on mails conveyed by the Collins line, was $196.776 67; by the New York and Havre line, $1.550 46; and by the New Orleans and Vera Cruz line, $971 81; while the decrease by the New York and Bremen line was $7,383 94; by the New York and California lines, $7,529 05;

ment with that country, was considerably less

The gross amount of postage on letters conveyed between the United States and Prassit, in closed mails, under our postal treaty with that country, was $299,578 46 being an increase of $31,915 28 over the sum realized during the previous year on that class of correspondence.

The annual compensation of the Collins line is $858 000. The amount paid to that the omission of a half-trip having been caused by the loss of the Arctic-was $841,500 ; while the total United States postage, both sea and inland, on the letter and newspaper mails transported by the line during the year was $151,681 11. Deducting the inland postago on letter mails, which cannot be claimed as belonging to the sea service, and the revenue from ocean postage only was $371,329 62 -showing an excess of expense by this line of 8470.173 38.

The contract pay of the Bremen line is $200 000 per annum, while the total United States postage on mails conveyed during the year was $117.321 70. Deduct the inland postage on mails conveyed by this line, and the revenue derived from sea postage only was $76,037 92,

The contract pay of the Havre line is $150. 000 per annum. The total postages on unils. conveyed during the year was $89.011 12, and the sea postage, after deducting the United States inland, was $72,789 91.

The total postages, inland including, on | 20 years. mails conveyed during the year by the New York and California steamship lines, was $316,477 14, and the cost of transportation, including the Isthmus service, was $771, 625 56.

The total postage on mails conveyed by the Charleston and Havana line, during the year, was $6,830 72, and the cost of transportation $58,332.
The total postage on mails conveyed by the

New Orleans and Vera Cruz line, was $5,-$17.83, and the amount paid for transportathen, $34,003 12.

THE MODERN INCLISITION The Picciments of Turin publishes a let-ter from Rome, giving the following account of the tribunal of the inquisition at Rome at the present time: The old palace of the Inquisition having been turned into burracks for the French troops, the trabulal has been transferred to the laterior of the Vatican, where the Dominicans occupy a part which none but these who have grown old in the palace can ever find, such is the intricacy and multiplicity of the stairs, passages and secret corridors that lead to it. When the inquisitors want either the arrest or question you, they neither send flicers of justice nor a warrant; such extreme measures are only reserved for those who attempt to escare; but a gentleman calls upon you in a quiet way, and informa you that the body office requests the pleasure of your company. Should you happen to ex-postulate, the quiet gentleman politely sug-treets the expediency of being punctual. When you reach the outer court of the Vaseem, you find a priest who conducts you to the tributed and if you are only summoned as a witness it is he who conducts you back .--When in the presence of the inquisitor, you my made to swear that you will speak the trath; your answers to the questions put to you are written down in Latin, and before beng released, you must take another oath that you will reveal nothing of what you have el-id at or Superintendent of the road one day. and rather summarily informed that after services. Hensked who was to be his sucressur, and the name was given him. He miling to obtain a satisfactory explanation. a little light dawned upon him, and he adthe said his superior officer nearly as follows: - You are about making a great mistake, Sir, a great mistake. You know, Sir, I have n nee house, a fast horse, a splendid gold watch, and an elegant diamond ring. That fellow you have chosen to take my place has got to get all these things. It is said the arsument was conclusive, and the conductor was allowed to retain his position.

THE DRAINING OF THE HARLEM SEA, HOL-LAND .- The Chairman of the Commission on the Draining of the Harlem Sea has published a final report on this work, which is to be Suished this year. The expenses from 1839 to 1855, inclusive, are $3,400,000, and the receipts from land to be sold is estimated at $3,200,000. It was at first supposed the reclaimed land would be worth only some $32 per acre, but in 1853 it was actually sold for ver $120. This return exceeds all expectation, as the draining was not undertaken as a speculation, but as precaution against further inroads of the sea. Fruitful farms already begin to appear here and there on the ormer floor of the sea. Forty-five thousand neres in all have been reclaimed from the sea, which will supply 100,000 people bountifully with the means of life.

FRENCH AND AMERICAN ALLIANCE -There is a report in Paris that Mone, de Morny is about to marry a young American lady without fortune. M. de Morny is generally regarded as the son of Queen Hortense, the mother of Napoleon III. He executed the coup detat of the 2d of December. He was at that time Minister of the Interior. He retired from his place through dissatisfaction at the decrees which impoverished the family chiefly confined to the mails conveyed by the Collins steamers, and was caused by the temporary withdrawal in November, 1854, of the acquired in the speculations, and which he is disposed, as is said, not withstanding his former bacelor connexious with the court to give to this young and obscare American la-

A MAGNIFICENT COAT .- General Scott has had a magnificent uniform coat made in New York. It is of dark blue cloth, lined throughout with black and yellow silk. The collar and wristbands are embroidered with heavy gold thread, representing a running vine, all of which was done with a needle, and cost the Charleston and Havana line, $50. The collar and lappels are after $3,325 81.

It is a fact worthy of notice that the correspondence exchanged with Great Britain and the lappels are thrown partly over the during the year, under our postal arrange- arms. Heavy guilt buttons adorn the coat, ment with that country, was considerably less in amount than in the year preceding, the decrease of the amount of the postages being $50.050-86.

but are not made to button. A rich gold cord is attached, between the collar and lappel, by which the coat can be fastened in front. The epanlettes that the General had during the Mexican war will adorn the coat. It will cost $180 when finished.
