An Arkansas Legistator.

A member elect of the lower chamber of he Legislature of Arkansas, was persuaded, by some wags of his neighborhood, that if he lid not reach the State House at ten o'clock on the day of the assembling, he could not be on the day of the assembling, he could not be aworn, and would loose his sent. He immediately mounted, with hunting frock, rille and bowie knife, and spurred till he got to the door of the capital, where he hitched his nag. A crowd was in the chamber of the lower Users on the mound floor walking about Honse, on the ground floor, walking about with their hats on, and smoking cigars. These he passed, ran up stairs into the Senate Chamber, set his rifle against the wall, and bawled out : "Strangers, whar's the man that swears me in ?" at the same time taking out his credentials.

Walk this way," said the elerk, who was at the moment igniting a real Principe, and he was sworn without inquiry. When the teller came to count noses, he found that there was one Senator too many present. The mistake was soon discovered, and the houtsman was informed that he did not belong there.

"Fool who with your corn bread?" ha roared : 'you can't flunk this child, no how you can fix it-I'm elected to this ere Leg islature, and I'll go agin all banks and eternal improvements, and if there's any of your orratory gentiomen wants to get skinned, jest my the word, and I'll light upon you like a nigger on a woodcock. My constituents sent me here, and if you want to floor this two-legged animal, hop on, just as soon as you like, for though I'm from the back country, I'm a little smarter than any other quadruped you can turn out of this drove."

After this admirable harrangue, he put his bowie knife between his teeth, and took up his rifle with "Come here, old suke, stand by me!" at the same time pointing at the Chairman, who however, had seen such people before.

After some expostulation, the man was persuaded that he belonged to the lower chamber upon which he sheathed his knife, fung his gun on his shoulder, and with a profound congree, remarked :

"Gentlemen, I beg your pardon. But if I did'nt think that lower room was a groggery, may I be shot."

PADDY AND THE FOP.

We were much amused by the following col'oquy between an Irishm n nd a mous a l.ed, cartailed specimen of the genus homo : Scene-Laid in a New York City car.

Cause-Lady wanting a seat. Daudy (solus)-It is highly disgraceful, to say the least on't, that a lady cannot find a seat in an omnibus crowded with filthy negroes scapegrace Irishmen, I say, Pat, why don't you rise and give the lady your seat? Paddy-An' is mesel' ye are speaking to in this disrespectful manner? Didn't misel' pay saxpence for the ride, and mightn't I st as well walk for nothing as resting me limbs on me toes for saxpence ? Get out, ye spalpeen.

Dandy-Mighty independent, to be sure ; but the time is coming, and will soon be at hand, when free-born Americans will pobly exert their lawful prerogatives, and expel, destroy and annihilate, in toto and entirely, every vestige, trace, and footstep of your detested race.

Paddy-It's not me that ud wast the breath of life talking to ye-but if Judy was here, tak notice, Judy McGallagher, be jabers onc't ad be the last time you'd have to spake at all, at all Dandy-What a low bred, ignorant fool !

But they are all alike, and little better than the beasts of the field. I say, Pat, they are talking of introducing extra cars for negroes and Irishmen. How do you like that? Paddy—Faix, I'd rather consort with na-gers than the likes av ya—but I heard they
