A PERFUMED BREATH. WHAT hely or gentleman would remain under the curse of a disagreeable breath when y using the "Balm of a Thousand Flower," as dentrifice would not only render it sweet but have the teeth white as alubaster i Many per-sona do not know their breath is bad, and the subject is so delicate their friends will never mention it. Pour a single drop of "Balm" on our tooth brush and wash the teeth night and miller. A fifty cent bottle will last a year. A heartiful complexion may easily be acquired using the "Balm of a Thousand Flowers,"-It will remove tan, pimples and freekles from the kin, leaving it of a soft roseate hue. Wet a to wit : towel, pour on two or three drops, and wash the face night and morning.

SHAVING MADE EASY. Wet your shaving brush in either in warm or cold water, pour on two or three drops of "Balm of a Thousand Flowers," rub the beard well and it will make a beautiful soft lather, much facilitating the operation of shaving. Price only fifty cents. Beware of counterfeits. None genuine
