ARRIVAL OF THE BALTIC. LATER FROM EUROPE. Earthquake and Loss of Life—The Credit Mobilier to be Wound Up.

The mail steamship, Baltic, Capt. Comstock, arrived at New York yesterday, (11th inst.). The steamer Africa arrived at Liverpool on the morning of the 27th ult.

The feature of news which excited the most attention in England, was an official paragraph in the Paris Monitor, complaining that the English press publishes calumnies against the French Government, and holding out the menace that a continuance of such conduct will break up the Anglo-French Alliance.

The Cotton manufacture shows no variation, but yarns of most kinds have been largely shipped. The Credit Mobilier will probably be wound up in the present monetary measure.

The only news from Spain is in relation to a contemplated increase of the army. Advice from Madrid deny the report of a fresh ministerial crisis.

There was a great rise in the price of wheat at Madrid, owing to the operations of speculators. The government had interfered and was collecting large stores of corn for winter use.

In relation to the Neapolitan difficulty, the only additional report is, that the French Embassy, and also, probably, the British, had left Naples on the 26th.

Count Walewski's official correspondence with the Neapolitan Government has been suspended. The English fleet is at Malta, and the French fleet at Toulon.

The German papers say that the squadron will go to Naples in three weeks, if matters are not settled. There is nothing new respecting the complicated relations of the Danubian Principalities.

It is denied from Vienna, but re-asserted from France, that the Porte has summoned the Austrians to quit the Principalities. In this connection there are two reports.

THE AMERICAN.

SUNBURY. SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1856.

H. B. MASSEK, Editor and Proprietor.

To ADVERTISERS.—The circulation of the Sunbury American among the different towns on the Susquehanna is not exceeded by any paper published in North or Pennsylvania.

The friends of Mr. Buchanan explained the result of the recent election by a grand illumination, on Tuesday night. The public buildings and the houses of all the victorious party were radiant with light.

Some boys carried an effigy of Mr. Buchanan through the streets and afterwards burnt the effigy in Market Square. This disgraceful conduct, so well calculated to produce a riot, produced no disturbance what ever.

NORTHERN CENTRAL RAILWAY. Another link of this road, says the North American, extending from Bridgeport, opposite Harrisburg, to Millersburg, Pa., a distance of twenty-six miles, is now reported as completed and ready for delivery.

DEATH OF JOHN M. CLAYTON. Hon. John M. Clayton, United States Senator from the State of Delaware, died on Sunday evening last, at his residence in Dover, in that State, after a long illness, the fatal termination of which has for sometime been anticipated.

THE GRAND RESULT. The heretofore doubtful States of Illinois, Tennessee and Louisiana, may now be set down for Buchanan. This makes the electoral vote, so far as heard from, stand as follows:

THE PRESIDENT OF THE READING RAILROAD COMPANY.—At a stated meeting of the Board of Managers of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company held at their office in Philadelphia on Wednesday, the 5th inst., the resignation of John Tucker, Esq., was accepted, and B. D. Cullen, Esq., unanimously elected President of the Company.

REMOVAL.—The Pennsylvanians residing in Cincinnati are making arrangements for a grand supper in honor of Mr. Buchanan's election. The Democrats of Wilkesbarre, Pa., fired a salute of 100 guns on Friday, in honor of Mr. Buchanan's election. The same party at Belfast, Me., fired 200 guns, on last Thursday week.

LETTER FROM THE EDITOR DATED WASHINGTON, November 11, 1856.

There have been many contradicting rumors in regard to the result of the late elections, that it was not until to-day, that it was finally settled that Illinois and Tennessee had gone for Mr. Buchanan. The result, though an important democratic victory, has not been achieved without some misgivings and apprehensions for the future.

The Democrats, in the midst of their rejoicings, look sadly at the election returns from Michigan. The probable loss of General Cass from the U. S. Senate occasions them much uneasiness, and produces regret among all parties here in Washington, where he is universally known and venerated for his lengthened career in the service of his country, his valued experience as a statesman, and for the unswerving purity of his public and private life.

Active preparations are in progress for the session of Congress which is now close upon us. The last annual message of the President will be sought with that peculiar interest which attaches to all vetoes; but interest is attached, as it will be supposed to contain a review of the stirring events which have shaken at least two political parties to pieces during this administration.

Our foreign relations are all in the most desirable, pacific condition. The disputes with England are quietly and satisfactorily adjusted. Nothing now remains to mar our peace but our own march in national prosperity.

AN EX-MINISTER OF STATE IN RAPS.—A correspondent of the Augsburg Allgemeine Zeitung writes: The former Minister of State, who was born in time to time, an old man, with snow white hair, a fine expressive face, and beautiful intelligence.

THE OFFICIAL VOTE OF PENNSYLVANIA. HARRISBURG, Nov. 12.—The official vote of 55 counties of the recent Presidential election, puts as follows:

EXPLORATION OF CENTRAL AFRICA.—Dr. David Livingston arrived at the Mauritius, on the 13th of August, on his way to England. This traveller has succeeded in tracing the Nile from its source in the mountains of the Cape of Good Hope, started north and west to Angola, whence he returned as far as Sishiki, and thence eastward to Tote and Quilimane, on the Eastern coast.

A BUNDLE OF ELOPMENTS.—The Buffalo Express gives the following chapter of domestic difficulties: Mrs. King near Kingston, was recently taken sick, and her husband seized the opportunity to elope with a handsome servant girl named Martin. On their arrival in Albany, Miss Martin eloped with a young man named Cornelius, taking Mr. King's money. King, being penniless, returned home, and found that his wife had eloped with a dry goods clerk, named Jeffrey, with all the movable articles in the house.

General Cass—Apprehensions of his Defeat.—Feeling on the subject in Washington.—President's Message—Interest manifested.—The New Cabinet—Speculations thereon.—Meeting of Congress—Condition of the Country—Thoughts of the Future.

The first time, while in prison waiting his trial, he broke jail and let out three other prisoners; on the same night there were some six or seven stores broken into in Wilmington. Tremendous Fire at Syracuse, N. Y.—Loss about One Million of Dollars. SYRACUSE, November 8.—About 3 o'clock, this morning, the largest fire that has ever visited our city, broke out in the first Ward, and in the short space of three hours over 12 acres were burnt, and about one hundred buildings consumed. The fire originated in the barn back of Grant's hotel, which had not been occupied for two or three years. It immediately communicated to Grant's hotel, occupied by Barney Grant, which was consumed. The loss on the building is estimated at $3000. The stores of Mr. Grant then caught fire and was soon burned down—loss $5000. The flames then spread to the new and magnificent building owned by Messrs. Slattery & Ford, and soon it was a mass of ruins.

Communicated.

NEAR MILTON, Pa., Nov. 6, 1856. H. B. MASSEK, Esq. DEAR SIR: Shortly after my withdrawal as a candidate for Congress, I was told that it was reported that I received money from certain persons to buy votes. Knowing the report to be a base falsehood I knew that it could be invented only by base slanderers, to whom I thought no attention would be paid, and therefore disregarded it. But, as it has been repeated with the addition, that the money was not paid to me, but to one of my sons, I now solemnly declare, that no money, in any amount, large or small, was ever paid to me or any member of my family, male or female, as a consideration for my withdrawal as a candidate for Congress, and I pronounce any charge or report of that kind to be entirely unfounded. I was attacked in my withdrawal as a candidate for Congress by higher motives than money, and therefore give this public notice, that if I hear said report again, that I will spare neither time nor expense to find out the author and make him answer for his conduct before a court of justice. I am, Sir, your obedient servant, J. J. REIMSCHUESSEL.

THE ELECTION RIOTS IN BALTIMORE.—The election riots in Baltimore on Tuesday were as serious as many a regular battle. The Republican reports that twenty five persons were either killed or mortally wounded, 27 dangerously, fifty severely, and thirty-four slightly wounded. A total of one hundred and thirty seven persons were injured in the riots at this election. This is a shameful disgrace to the city, and is in striking contrast to the good order which prevailed in nearly every other part of the Union. The government of the city must be in very weak and inefficient hands, where such a riotous and insubordinate scene as this could occur unchecked twice within a month. If there had a Mayor who knew what his duty was, such disorders could not prevail.—Phila Ledger

AN AMERICAN ON THE PAPAL THRONE.—A correspondent of the New York Post, writing from Rome, 13th Oct., says:—This morning Cardinal Hiram Pearson, of San Francisco, was fined one thousand dollars for seating himself on the throne of the Pope.
