THE BARQUE CASPIAN-RESCUE OF SEVER-AL PERSONS BY A DOG. — We appounded yes-terday the loss of the Barque Caspian, near Babia Honda. (not Baracca.) while on her passage from New Orleans to Boston, and the death of Capt. Troufatan. When the versel struck, the captain was washed over-board, and was found the next morning en-tangled in the mangrove bushes, and died from exhaustion a few minutes after he was discovered by the people on shore. When the vessel struck it was found im-possible for a boat to reach the shore, and on board were the wife of the captain, her sister and two children, beside a crew of twenty one persons. There was the shore in view and persons standing. At length a small dog on board was put overboard, with the end of a ball of twine made fast around his neck. He reached the shore to the joy of all. A thin line was then made fast to the twineand hauled in shore, and agnin by its means a stout hawser was got on shore, which being have taut by a windlass on board, the two ladies and the children were successively placed in a chair, which was suspended from the haw-ser, and hauled through the surf and waves on shore.—New York Advertiser.

LYNCH LAW IN ALABAMA .- Burning a Negro.-We find the following account of the burning of the negro, at Abbeville, dla, in the Esfaula Native. The crime for which Mose was burned, was the murder of his mas-Mose was burned, was the murder of his mas-ter: A large concourse was assembled at Abbeville, numbering from 4000 to 5000. The negro was taken from the jail by the guard: no opposition was offered by the she ter: A targe concourse was assembled at Abbeville, numbering from 4000 to 5000. The negro was taken from the jail by the guard; no opposition was offered by the she-riff. The place was arranged before the segro arrived. A green pine stake was set in the ground firmly, and around that, a pile of fat pine wood was arranged in diameter about pine wood was arranged in diameter about six feet, and about four feet high. He was bound hand and feet to the pole, and before Arctic party must have perished in May, 1850, bound hand and feet to the pole, and before fire was placed to the pole, the wretch made fire was placed to the pole, the wretch made the following confession : "That he had mur-dered his master, bat would not have done it had it not been for a white man." He made some other confessions, implicating a white man and another negeo in the affair. Our in-formant says, that when he left the four informant says, that when he left the fire had already consumed his head, legs and feet, and that they were piling on more wood to finish of horned owls, and sent them to her Mujes. that they were piling on more wood to finish the body.

THE ALTOONA MURDER -Another development has been made of the strange affair hich occurred a couple of weeks ago near Altoona. The sister-and brother-in-law ar-Altoons. The sister and brother in law ar-rived in the latter place on Sunday last and identified young Norcross; and on Monday had the body conveyed to the home of his friends in Massachusetts. They stated that it was known by a letter they had received from Dunleith, Illinois, that he had $2000 on The bis person when he bet that place. The name of the man who is supposed to be his murderer is David McKim, of Wilmington, Delaware, and not McKinney, as he register-ed his name in this city. He is well known to somment. the police of Philadelphia and other places in the East, but had been in Dunleith for some time working as a blind-maker. A public meeting was held in Altoona on Saturdayeveninglast, and steps taken for asking the Governor to offer a reward for the arrest of the marderer. FATAL DURL IN NEW ORLEANS, LA .- The New Orleans (La) Picayune of the 20th inst., says, that on the day previous, a ducl, at fi-teeu paces, with double barrelled shot guns, on the Metaicie Ridge, came off between Mr. Geo. W. White and Mr. Packenham LeBlane which the latter was shot through the beart and instantly killed at the first discharge.

A SAD CASE .- In the Ohio Penetentiary, The stump and top must have made the tree there is a young prisoner, who entered about a year ago for some small offence against the laws. He was troubled with weak eyes, upon which the prison doctor made a forced opera-tion, totally destroying his sight. The prison-er resisted the cruel operation till be was overpowered by the main strength of his keepers, and the cruel cunning of his physician, by whom he was made stone blind. A few MATRINONIAL INCIDENT IN BOSTON .- A respectable young woman, dependent upon her own exertions for support, was married a few days ago in Boston, to a young man who pretended exceeding piety, and was or assumed to be a member of a church in that city. They were married on Thursday night, and on Friday morning the new-made husband fied, taking with him about $600, the accumulated savings of the unfortunate girl for the past 7 vears.

Porrsville .- The Miner's Journal estimates the population of the borough at 10,-$50, and sums up an aggregate of 28,940 inhabitants living within a radius of four miles from the office of that paper. The towns in-cluded are Minersville, 5420; St. Clair, 5290; Schuylkill Haven, 3150 ; Port Carbon, 2650 ; Palo Alto, 1260. Several of these will doubtless be united with Pottsville in the course of a few years.

In the Ohio House of Representatives, Jan, 20, a final vote was had upon the resolutions to expel Mr. Slough, a member of the House from Hamilton county, for an insult on Mr. Cadwell. The resolution was adopted by a vote of 70 to 35, all the Democrate voting against the resolution, except Mr. Cony, of Hamilton. The case caused considerable excitement, and the House was full of persons anxious for the final decision. Mr. Slough left for Cincinnatti last night.

SHOCKING OCCURAENCE -The Bath (N. Y.) Courier states that on the 31st ult., as the Rev. E. H. Havens, of Dadley Settlement, near that village, was boiling a quantity of spirits of turpentine and rosin, for making balsom, the mixture exploded, blowing the glass out of the windows, and scattered the lourning mixture amongst his family. Mrs. Havens died the same evening ; a child two years old, died soon after midnight; Mr. Havens lived till next morning, and two other children, a girl of 15, and a boy of 3 years old, was dreadfully burned ; the latter, it was thought, could not recover. The house was on fire, but was saved by some neighbors.

VENISON AT THE WEST .--- One of the consequences of the cold and the deep snow at the West is an abundant supply of venison. At Madison, Wis., on the 2d, 108 deer were brought in from Richland county and shipped brought in from Richland county and shipped thed to the same, will attend to the duties of for the East. HARRISBURG, January 24th .- No train has yet reached here from Philadelphia.

A fire occurred this morning near the Rail-road Dapot, when three small frame honses were consumed, including the office of the Baltimore Central Railroad Co. The books were destroyed. A clothing and a confec-tionery sfore were also destroyed. The United States Hotel was slightly injured.

Loos Out .- We are told by those who handle money that there are counterfeit half doll-ars in circulation in this place. There is some count by suspicion that a "bogus mint" has been established among these hills. If so, the scamps had better look out, or they might be appren-ticed to the shoemsking business.
