Aver's Cathartic Pills. Till evinces of Chemistry and Medicine have been taxed their utmost to produce this best, most perfect purgetive which is known to man. Innumerable proofs are shown that there Paus have virtues which surpass is excellence the ordinary medicines, and that they win un precedentedly upon the esteem of all men. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. Their penetrating properties atimulate the ""all activities of the body, remove the obstructions of " ann, purify the blood, and expel disease. They purps out the fool humors which breed and grow distemper, stimulate singlish or disor-dered organs into their matural action, and impart healthy tone with strength to the whole system. Not only do they cure the every-lay complaints of every body, but also formulable and designous diseases that have baffed the best of human skill. While they produce powerful effects, they are at the same time, in diminished dose, the affects, they are at the same time, in diminished doors, the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-coated, they are pleasant to take; and being purely vegetable, are free from any risk of harm. Curse have been made which surpass belief were they not sub-stantiated by men of such earlied position and character
