You are well aware that most of the ubles which lately sgitated the Territory re occasioned by men who had no especial even residents, whilst it is quite evident at others were influenced altogether in the re or other personal considerations. The sat body of the actual citizens are conserved, law-abiding, peace-loving men, dissed rather to make sacrifices for conciliation I consequent peace than to insist for their tire rights, should the general good thereby caused to suffer. Some of them, under influence of the prevailing excitement d misgaided opinions, were led to the come deliberate intention of doing wrong. The address asserts that a comparatively w mischievous men have caused most of the ficulties in Konsas, and from such persons schecked evils may arise dangerous to the nion. Alter speaking with reference to the sportance of the Union, he concludes thus: When I look upon the present condition I the territory, and contrast it with what it as when I first entered it, I feel satisfied it my administration has not been pr judicd to its interests. On every hand I now erceive unmistakable indications of welfare not prosperity. The honest settler occapies is quiet dwelling, with his wife and children lustering around him, unmolested and fearse of danger. The solitary traveller pursues is way unharmed over every public through-ire. The torch of the incendiary has been stinguished, and the cabins which by it were estroyed have been replaced with more sub tantial buildings. Hordes of banditti no onger lie ip wait in every ravine for plunder nd assassination. Invasions of hostile armies ave ceased, and inforiated partizans, living in our midst, have emphatically torned their cords into plowshares and their spears into uning-hooks. Laborers are everywhere at k-farms undergoing sapid improvements erchants are driving a thriving trade— soices pursaing with profit their various continues. Real estate, in town and country, has increased in value almost without precedent, until in some places it is com-nauding prices that never could have been anticipated. Whether this healthy and happy change is the result solely of my executive labors or not, it certainly has occurred during my administration. Upon yourselves must mainly depend the preservation and perpetuaffairs. Guard it with onceasing vigilance, and protect it as you would your lives. Keep down that party spirit which, if permitted to obtain the mastery, must lead to desolation. Watch closely and condemn in its infancy every insidious movement that can possibly tend to discord and disunion. Suffer as local prejudices to disturb the prevailing harmony .- Fo every appeal to these turn a deaf ear, as did the Saviour of men to the promptings of the deceiver - Act as a united hand of brothers, bound together by one common tie. Your interests are the same, and by this course alone can they be maintuned. Follow this, and your hearts and fromes will be made light and happy by the richest blessings of a kind and munificent

In conclusion, Governor Geary returns his sincere thanks to the citizens of Kansas, and cultury to the ladies, for their hearty peration in enforcing the laws, and Gen, Persifer F. Smith and officers of the United States army for their valuable

THE DEAN AND BOKER C.SE.

There was a large crowd in the Supreme Court room yesterday afternoon, awaiting the denuement of this affair. Judge Davies took in seat at four o'clock, but neither the wife nor the father was present. Dean, the bridegroom, was promptly on the ground, ac-The report of the physicians appointed to examine the lady as to the soundness of her mand reported that after careful and (on the one of the commissioners) repeated amations, they were of the unanimous apparent that no evidence has been furnished to show t mt any mental unsoundness exists in the case of the said Mary Ann Boker, otherwise called Mary Ann Denn.

The answer to the writ of habeas corpus by Mr Boker having been read, in which was denest that Miss Boker was restrained of her liberty, the Court remarked, that the main fact being denied, the lady could of course go where she pleased, and the hubeas corpus was there'ere dismissed. An order to that effect was made, and given to officer Bertholf to see it carried out. Judge Davies after hearing the argument of counsel decided to dissove the injunction, and in doing so his honor remarked, that as he had had several interviews with the young lady, and found that she was not restrained of her liberty; he also stated to the court that Mr. Dean had done no more than any free and honorable lover would have done. The tady is very intelligent, and the court found that she wished as much as possible to reconcile the due to her burents, with hit higher ad data which she had be owed Truth is Mighty, and Must Prevail. Report of the Committee appointed to superin tend the Burning of the Iron Safes, at Reading, February 27, 1857.

26 South 4th Street, Philadelphia.

K. DINO, Murch 4. The undersigned, members of the committee do respect uity report, that we saw the two Safe originally agreed upon by Farrels & Herring and Evans & Wutson, placed side by side in a fur-hace, viz: The Sale inuse by the Paymoster of the Philadelphia and Rending Railroad Compa ny, in his office at Reading, manufactured by Farrels & Herring, and the Safe in use by H A. Lantz, in his store, manufactured by Evans & Watson, and put in books and papers precisely

The fire was started at 84 o'clock, A. M., and kept up until foor cords of green hickory, two cords dry oak and half chesnut top wood were entirely communed, the whole under the superintendence of the subscrivers, members of the Comniftee. The bafes were then cooled off with water, after which they were opened, and the books and papers taken out by the Committee and sent to H. A. Lantz's store for public examined and marked by the Committee. The books and papers taken from the Sale manufactured by farrels & Herring were in our jugment, damaged fully filteen per cent, more than those taken from Evans & Watson's Sale.

We believe the above to have been a fair and impartial trial of the respective qualities of both

JACOB H. DYSHER, DANIEL S. HUNTER. Having been absent during the burning, we fully coincide with the above statement of the condition of the papers and books taken out of the respective Sales.
