Tresurers appeared before said auditors, states that though the sum of $5,000 78 of State Tax, on Real and Personal, remained outstanding on the 1st of January, 1852, when young became Tresurer, yet that the whole of that sum was not payable to the Commonwealth because during the term of Gunck, Tresurer a large som of Contary money had been used to paying said State Tax in indvance of the collection, and during the terms of Suppress and Youngman, Treasurers, the County Commissioners had borrowed from the Bank of Northamberhad a commende a mount, which was used for the same purpose. The Commouncealth having then received in edvance of its collection, part of the tax leviced on real and personal, was not entitled to the whole of the outstanding tax mounting (as reported) late of binary, 1852, to $5,340 78. The amount the Commonwealth was entitled to receive, from the secuntarialing taxy or balances in the hands of the Treasurers, (aubject, however, to deductions for excinentions percentings to eddectors) is exhibited in the accounts
