ARRIVAL OF THE ANGLICAN AT QUEBEC.

FOUR DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE. No Declaration of War.

QUEBEC, May 9.—The steamship Anglo Saxton has arrived with Liverpool dates to the 27th ult., three days later than the advice by the Niagara.

The despatches received by the Anglo Saxton state that there has been no actual declaration of war as threatened by Austria, and that Austria had given Sardinia fourteen days longer to disarm and disband the volunteers.

It is rumored that France and Russia have entered into an alliance offensive and defensive.

The French troops are also said to be entering Sardinia.

A French loan of five hundred millions of francs is announced.

The rumor of an alliance between France and Russia had caused a panic in the London money market, and under its effect Consols had declined to 91 1/2 for money and account.

Sardinia replied to the Austrian Ultimatum on the 23rd ult., but the result had not been divulged.

The Austrian troops were expected to cross the Ticino at an early moment, although it is reported that the Emperor had agreed to another proposed mediation.

The French contingent of troops, for the year, is to be raised to 140,000 men, and the Emperor has ordered that the French troops be entering Piedmont. Great warlike activity prevailed throughout France.

The British channel fleet has sailed with sealed orders, but its destination is reported to be the Adriatic. It is rumored that the whole militia force of England is to be embodied in anticipation of an enemy being involved in the impending war.

The Sardinian Chamber has invested King Victor Emmanuel with the powers of Dictator.

The Commanders of the French Army have been announced. Pelissier is Commander-in-Chief of the Army of Observation.

The London Post explains that the policy of the English cabinet had forced France into an alliance with Russia.

A despatch from Vienna asserts that the French troops had already violated neutral territory.

It was also announced that the French troops had arrived at Genoa, and entered the Sardinian territory.

The Imperial Council of France had been placed on a war footing at an early moment.

It is reported that the French Minister of Marine had sent orders to all the seaports of France forbidding the departure of any more boats for the Deep Sea fishing, as a measure preparatory to embarking their crews in the French navy.

The question of the regency of France was agitated. The Prince Jerome and the Emperor were spoken of.

STILL LATER.

THE ADELAIDE AT ST. JOHNS, N. F.

THE IMPENDING WAR.

Official Announcement of the Passage of the Ticino.

HOSTILITIES COMMENCED.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., May 9.

The steamer Adelaide, from Galway, with dates to the 30th ultimo, arrived this afternoon.

The steamer Hammonia, from New York, arrived on the 25th ult.

The news is most important. There has been no declaration of war, but hostilities were about to commence. The Austrian troops, 120,000 strong, have passed the Ticino.

The crossing of the Ticino river by the Austrian troops had not yet been officially confirmed.

No actual conflict had not yet taken place. The French army was pouring into the Piedmontese territory.

The Grand Duchy of Tuscany had joined France and Piedmont against the Austrians.

The report of the French Russian alliance has been denied, but as effect the London Times publishes of the treaties which are said to have been entered into by these two Governments. The official effect of which was to have been entered into by these two Governments.

Consols at one time were quoted as low as 88. In consequence of these fluctuations, and the hazardous speculation of bar field failures among the stock brokers are announced.

THE WAR CRISIS.

It had been telegraphed from various sources, that during the night of the 26th of April, 100,000 Austrians, under General Koller, had crossed the Ticino, in three corps, and took the road towards Novara. Also that they afterwards blew up the bridge of Belfiore, over which they had crossed.

The news, as yet, lacked confirmation from official quarters, and some doubts were thrown out.

It was reported that Austria had accepted a proffered mediation of England, and postponed the declaration of war.

France had not yet accepted the mediation, and the Constitution of Paris, and Daily News of London deny the existence of the reported alliance between France and Russia.

The news further states that the document which has been signed, and which has led to the London Times proposing to give a report, is a mere Convention.

The King of Sardinia has issued an inspiring proclamation to the army, saying that he regarded the ultimatum of Austria as an insult, and rejoined to it with disdain.

The Government has chartered the Cunard steamer Etna and other vessels to convey arms and ammunition to the Mediterranean.

Lumors prevail of a proclamation being issued by the Emperor calling out twenty thousand men for the navy.

Preparations are being generally deemed at Lyons.

The French troops were landing at Genoa and numbers, and were enthusiastically received.

King Emmanuel has gone to join the army at Alessandria.

THE LATEST.

[By Telegraph from London]

LONDON, April 30.—The report that the Austrian troops had crossed the Ticino on the 26th is incorrect. They had received orders to do so, but the order was countermanded, and they remained on the east bank of the river.

It is asserted that the advanced posts had been crossed, and that the main army would do so on the 29th.

The Austrian official journal contains an important manifesto, explaining the necessity of a war with Sardinia, and authoritatively denies the existence of a secret treaty between Russia and France.

The ship Pomena, from Liverpool to New York, was wrecked off Wexford on the 17th. The crew and three of her passengers (including the captain) were saved. She had over 400 souls on board. The loss of life had not been ascertained.

The Parliamentary elections had commenced, and were progressing quietly.

An Austrian manifesto has been issued tantamount to a declaration of war.

Consols are quoted at 89.

OFFICIAL—HOSTILITIES COMMENCED.

PARIS, Saturday.—Austrian troops have crossed the Ticino and commenced hostilities. This intelligence is officially received.

MIRACULOUS ESCAPE—MAN CARRIED 100 FEET ABOVE THE EARTH.

The Wheeling Intelligencer soberly relates the following startling incident. If true, it certainly deserves record as a remarkable accident and escape:

The most frightful, and at the same time the most wonderful, accident ever witnessed, was seen on record, occurred at the Catholic Church, yesterday morning. Some twenty persons were engaged in putting up the new bell which arrived from Pittsburgh the evening before. There was a windlass erected on one of the towers, by which was attached a snatch block and shackle. Immediately above the open space in the cupola, to which the bell was to be drawn up, there protruded a beam, to which was attached another snatch block and pulley, and the bell was to be hoisted by means of a strong rope, working through these shackle by the power of the windlass and cylinder on the ground. The bell had been raised in this way almost up to the open space in the cupola, and the men were just ready to pull it in.

The man named Thomas Newton was below, engaged in guiding the folds of the rope as it wound round the cylinder. To do this, he had a firm grasp upon the rope. When the bell had reached a great height from the ground, one of the men in the windlass, by mistake, pulled the windlass fixture gate way. Another revolution of the wheel ripped off all the coils; the bell fell to the ground, and Newton, who had hold of the lower end of the rope, was carried up with frightful velocity, a distance of one hundred feet from the ground, and about four feet above the aperture where the bell was to have been taken in. For the instant, every one was surprised beyond measure, and before those engaged in the work could comprehend what had happened, the man was falling himself down opposite the aperture, and called for help to those within. Bishop Whelan, who was on the platform in the cupola, reached out at the risk of his life, and seized Newton by the waist, pulled him from the platform.

The accident struck everybody with amazement, and all but the eyewitnesses were loth to believe in the incredible feat. The bell weighed three thousand seven hundred pounds, and it fell with a momentum which some idea may be formed of the rapidity with which Newton descended. He says he thought of letting go the rope, but before the thought was clearly defined, he was at the beam, a hundred feet above. He had no time to let go, as the rope was so tight, and he was so high, that he could not have done so. He was hurled a distance of two squares from the church; and a Mr. Smith, who was standing near, received an ugly wound in the face from a flying particle. Mr. Newton was taken to the office of Dr. H. W. Weston, and the wound was dressed. The flesh was all torn from the palms of his hands, even to the bone, which is supposed to have been done by the death grasp, and his sliding down the rope during his swift passage into air. Altogether, we suppose there is not a more alarming or remarkable accident, or a more miraculous escape, on record.

EXTENSIVE.—It was discovered in Detroit, recently, that eight servant girls, belonging to one of the large hotels in that city, had been for some time in the habit of stealing hanks, legs of mutton, glass and crockery ware, bed clothing, table linen, provisions, and no end of small trumpery and conveying them from the house under cover of their pretenses, by means of large bags attached to their loaves. In a receiving shop they had accumulated a large quantity of abstracted property, and one of the girls confessed to an attempt to carry out a half barrel of beer in the above manner, but failed for want of a second half barrel to balance her "patent extension" on the other side.
