LATE FIRE AT DUBUQUE, IOWA. Duntque, Jon 7, 1859 Gents: I nm requested by Mr. T. A. C. Cochrane, of and rain, which resulted in the less of about $20,000 worth of property. A few hours afterwards a half a block of buildings on Main street, valued at $250,000, was consumed by fire.

It is estimated that there are now en route for Europe not less than eight and a half millions of dollars in specie, nearly all of which has gone to pay for the silks, satins, furbelows, laces, and other extravagances of women.

The ice business of Lake Pepin, on the Mississippi, the past winter, has been one of great importance. Over 600 tons of ice were put up at the various points on the lake the same of the lake the largest assortinest of Sales in the largest approach of Sales were the largest assortinest of Sales in the largest approach of this place, to say to you that on the morning of the this space, to say to you that on the morning of the this space, to say to you that on the morning of the timestant, alout 3 o'clock, his store took fire, and the entire stock of goods was destroyed.
