

SUNBURY, PA. SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 1860.

H. B. MASSER, Editor and Proprietor.

TWO DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

Bombardment of Gaeta Presented by France. - Important from China. FRANCE - Formidable naval preparations are going on, and some writers entertain the view that war at St. Ulono is a palpable indication of an eventual campaign.

SPAIN.

It was reported that the Austrian envoy had notified the Emperor that, unless the warlike preparations of Piedmont were discontinued, and the Hungarian legion disbanded, Austria would immediately commence hostilities.

THE DISUNION MOVEMENT.

Much of our paper this week is taken up with the treasonable designs of the disunionists who are mostly confined to South Carolina and Georgia. That there will be any actual secession by any State we do not believe, but matters have arrived at such a crisis as to create great cause for alarm.

THE REPRESSION MOVEMENT.

A further resolution was adopted, condemning the action of the citizens meeting this afternoon, and declaring that the resolutions adopted thereat did not express the sense of the community.

The late rains have caused a sudden rise in the Susquehanna. Our coal operators were obliged to stop shipments for several days on account of high water.

COURT.

The business in Court this second week, was brought to a close on Wednesday. But few of the cases on the list were tried, most of them being continued.

SHERRILL'S SALE.

Sherrill's sale, at this place, on the 3d of December, the valuable coal lands, collieries, &c., belonging to and known as the "Green Ridge Improvement Company." The real estate belonging to the company embraces ten tracts of coal land, the actual value of which exceeds, perhaps, one hundred thousand dollars.

During court week Mr. Baker, our new Commissioner, entered upon the duties of his office. Mr. Baker will make an obliging and attentive officer.

The excitement in regard to the secession of South Carolina and Georgia, seems to be subsiding. Virginia will not favor secession, nor will Texas, Arkansas and Louisiana.

Jefferson said that "as long as Virginia and Pennsylvania hold together, nothing North or South will fly off."

JOHN O. HEENAN.

The veritable Heenan and American champion of the pugilistic ring, passed through this place on Thursday morning, on his way to Harrisburg in company with Aaron Jones, his trainer and others, in all eight professors of the art. Heenan occupied a seat on the engine of the Sunbury & Erie road, from which he descended, and as soon as the engine of the Northern Central came up, re-mounted, and after being introduced to Mr. Cobb, the engineer, by Mr. Rankin, engineer of the Sunbury & Erie, quietly took his seat, surveying the crowd, many of whom were looking for Heenan in the cars.

Godley's Lady's Book, for December, is really a splendid number. The principal engravings represent Christmas in the city and in the country. The Fashion plate represents a bevy of bridesmaids. Still further improvements in this excellent magazine are promised for the new year, and Godley always keeps his promises. Subscribe for it.

LOOK OUT FOR counterfeit five dollar bills on the Western Bank of Philadelphia. The counterfeiters are well done, and calculated to deceive even good judges.

DEER.

The hunters in the Northern counties have killed a large number of deer the present season. Mr. Miles, of Snowhook, Centre county, shot a large buck, which had jumped into the yard while the family were at breakfast. Venison sells in that region for ten cents a pound.

TRIFLES.

There is no crop more productive, or one that pays better than that of the turnip, when properly cultivated. As a general thing our farmers do not pay sufficient attention to root crops, which are essential for winter feeding for cattle, in the production of good butter. These remarks were induced by the large yield of one of our farmers, Mr. John Stroh, of Rush township, who last year raised about one thousand bushels of very fine turnips from a small piece of land, most of which were sold in this place. This season Mr. Stroh raised another crop of about seven hundred bushels, from one acre and a half, at prices varying from 25 to 30 cents per bushel.

THE GAZETTE OF LAST WEEK CONTAINS THE FOLLOWING IN REGARD TO THE WATCHMAN WHO FELL FROM THE RAILROAD BRIDGE AT NORTUMBERLAND:

On last Monday night, immediately after the night express train had crossed the bridge between Sunbury and Northumberland, the watchman who was crossing the bridge in the performance of his duty, fell from the board path, and was drowned. The river being very high, his body has not yet been recovered. He was an Irishman, and resided at Northumberland.

GRAPE.

For a number of years past, considerable attention has been paid to the culture of the grape, and the Isabella and Catawba were considered the only grapes worthy of cultivation. They are, unquestionably, both very fine grapes, the former, however, much the best for the table. Of late years, however, new varieties have been introduced, such as the Concord, Diana, Rebecca, Delaware, and a number of others. The Delaware has been greatly puffed, and in our opinion, greatly overrated. It is a grape of fine flavor, but entirely too small - about the size of the largest of the cherry curraut, and about the same in color - and, as our friend Major Freas says, "ought to be eaten with a spoon." The Diana, which is a seedling from the Catawba, we think, is quite or nearly equal in flavor, and has the advantage of being much larger, though smaller than the Catawba, but several weeks earlier. The Major had impressed us so highly in favor of the Concord, personally, and by his paper, that we were anxious to test their quality. This we did some weeks since, and fully concur in the opinion of the able editor of the Germantown Telegraph in regard to the superior quality of the grape. The bunches are not only larger and more compact than the Isabella, but they come nearer, in point of flavor and texture, to the black Hamburg, than any other native grape we have seen. They have, besides, the desirable quality of being hardy and very prolific.
