All this, it will be remembered, was perpe trated upon individuals who went within the Chinese line bearing flags of truce, and for the purpose of exchanging communications with the Chinese authorities. The communications were exchanged,-they had an interview with the authorities, and on their return were intercepted, and subsequently were treated as we have described.

This conduct is aptly set off against the cowardice of the Emperor, who fled at their approach, and the imbecility of the Generals, was offered almost no resistance to the advance of the allied army only five thousand strong, through the heart of a populous empire ; while the stories of the splendors discovered in the Imperial palace are equally illustrative of a barbarje nature. The gems that adorned the walls, the halls paved with marble, the throne guarded by golden drag-ons, the costly oriential silks,—all indicate the taste of a semi-fivilized nation. The scene where the prisoners were fumbled into the dust before the borses' feet of the Tartar prince, is only a corollary of the gorgeous barbarism that stuck precious gems in palace walls and piled the halls with siks and gold.

TENNESSEE AND THE UNION. A gentleman of this city has received a letter, dated Jaquary 1st, from a correspondent in Tennessee, who is a large owner of pegroes and other property in that State .-His sentiments on the present political troubles, and his information concerning the feeling of the people of Tennessee, are so gratifying, that we take pleasure in publishing that portion of his letter that relates to the present troubles. He says :

Though all is gloom and darkness in the political world, Tennessee is safe, under any circomstances, for the Union. The leaders of the Breckinridge wing of the Democratic party are down on Andy Johnson for his speech in the Senate, as they say he has given aid and comfort to the Republican party.the approbation of a very large majority of the Democratic party. The leaders of the party never had any love for Johnson, and they are trying to run him down so that they may get into his place. I am still more confident that we will come out of this polical trouble wiser and better men, and I hope with a better government, or, I should say, a better administration of the government than we have bad heretofore. We may have to chastise South Carolina and some of the Agent at the Lewisburg Station. Mr. Barrefractory men in other States; but, if they rett is changed to Lock Haven. will commit treason against the government let the consequences fall on them. In Tennessee we will fight for the Union and maintain our rights in the Union whenever fighting is necessary, which I hope will never be.

-Evening Bulletin. GENERAL JACKSON'S WILL.-In June, 1843 mitage, wrote his will with his own hand .--In it, among other bequests, are two, which ought, at this time to be published for presmore than Roman patriotism, and should sink deep into the hearts of the people. Here is the literal language of illustrious dead :

"Seventh. I be queath to my beloved neph-ew, Andrew J. Donelson, son of SAMUEL Ponelson, deceased, the elegant sword presented to me by the State of Tennessee, with this injunction :- That he fail not to use it when necessary in support and protection of our glorious Union, and for the protection of the constitutional rights of our beloved country, should they be assailed by foreign enemies or DOMESTIC TRAITORS."

"Eight. To my grand nephew ANDREW JACKSON COFFEE, I bequeath the elegant sword presented to me by the rifle company of New Orleans commanded by Captain Beal, as a momento of my regard, and to bring to his recollection the gallant services of his deceased father, Gen John Coffee, in the late Indian and British war, under my command, and his gallant conduct in defence of New Orleans in 1814-'15, with this injunction :-rights secured to the American citizen under our glorious Constitution, against all invaders, whether foreign foce, or INTESTINE TRAITORS."

WHAT PRESIDENT FILLMORE DID - Some ten years ago, when President Fillmore occapied the White House, South-Carolina got up ber secession movement because California was admitted into the Union, without being cut in two, making one a slave and the other a free State. Now, though Mr. Fillmore was regarded as an amiable man, chock ration whether or no Senator Toombs, of full of peace principles, why he quietly put Georgia, was guilty of Treason, in telegraphinto Fort Moultre a strong body of troops without asking their leave.

The gay and Pulmettoes awoke one fine morning and found this awkward fact suddenly staring them in the face ; whereupon their offence. chivalrie governor waxed wroth and applied to President Fillmore for an explanation .-"Sir," was the answer, "The President of the United States is not responsible for his offiina." The amiable President then in office did not particularly affect leonine or heroic qualities ; but he understood his duty to the Constitution he was sworn to support, and his vigorous mode of confronting rebellion nip. ped it in the bud to the great satisfaction of everybody except the combastible and ex-plosive Paimettoes. If the pussillanimons old public functionary" now at head of the government had had the forecast, discretion, duty, he would not now be the object of universal contempt and derision.
